Translation A Multidisciplinary Approach Palgrave Advances In Language And Linguistics:

Translation: A Multidisciplinary Approach J. House, 2015-12-11 The cross linguistic and cross cultural practice of translation is a field of rapidly growing international importance World renowned experts offer new and multidisciplinary insights on this subject viewing translation as social action and intercultural communication and as a phenomenon of languages in contact and a socio cognitive process

Frontiers of Translation in Korean Language Education Simon Barnes-Sadler, Jieun Kiaer, 2025-02-20 Frontiers of Translation in Korean Language Education makes the case for the continuing relevance of translation in Korean as a Foreign Language KFL education This book presents practical case studies of developing and implementing translation in KFL on scales ranging from extended programs for example the integration of a translation and interpreting internship program which responds to local community needs into the higher education curriculum to single activities such as the comparison of English to Korean literary translations of the same source text to improve linguistic and cultural awareness More theoretically oriented works on the relationship of translation in KFL with fast developing translation technology the language of South Korean mass media and the social processes of globalisation are included alongside practical contributions The substantive contributions are bookended by an introduction and conclusion which provide overviews of the history and current disposition of translation in KFL and a prospectus for its future respectively Drawing on the work of researchers and practitioners based in higher education institutions across North America Europe and South Korea both the practical and theoretical strands included in this collection come together to provide a well rounded account of the most recent developments in Korean language pedagogy which will appeal to language teachers particularly Korean language teachers and the institutions that employ and train them

Contemporary Approaches to Translation Theory and Practice Roberto A. Valdeon, 2020-06-29 This book gathers together for the first time the editors of some of the most prestigious Translation Studies journals and serves as a showcase of the academic and geographical diversity of the discipline The collection includes a discussion on the intralinguistic translation of Romeo and Juliet thoughts on the concepts of adaptation imitation and pastiche with regards to Japanese manga reflections on the status of the source and target texts a study on the translation and circulation of Inuit Canadian literature and a discussion on the role of translation in Latin America It also contains two chapters on journalistic translation linguistic approaches to English Hungarian news translation and a study of an independent news outlet one chapter on court interpreting in the US and a final chapter on audio description The book was originally published as a special issue in 2017 to mark the twenty fifth anniversary of Perspectives Studies in Translation Theory and Practice

Assessing Second Language Pragmatics S. Ross, G. Kasper, 2013-11-29 The first book length collection of studies on the assessment of pragmatic competencies in a second or foreign language Grounded in theoretical perspectives on communicative and interactional competencies it examines the reception and production of speech acts through a variety of assessment methods and quantitative and qualitative analyses Confronting Digital Dilemmas in Translator and Interpreter Training Pavol Šveda, Martin Djovčoš, Emília Perez, 2025-10-30 This collection explores the challenges and opportunities brought on by developments in emergent technologies for translator and interpreter training Given the growing role of language professionals as mediators in an increasingly fragmented and globalized world this book offers an in depth look at the present and future of translator and interpreter training amidst these changes Featuring perspectives from established and up and coming scholars the volume is organized in three sections taking in turn different dimensions of the current training landscape These parts consider key topics including theoretical foundations and pedagogical innovations ethical considerations and social responsibility and ways forward for adapting training programs to better grapple with new tools Taken as a whole this book will be a useful resource for students and scholars in translation and interpreting studies as well as practicing professionals

Chinese Lexical Semantics Jia-Fei Hong, Qi Su, Jiun-Shiung Wu, 2018-11-25 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed post workshop proceedings of the 19th Chinese Lexical Semantics Workshop CLSW 2018 held in Chiayi Taiwan in May 2018 The 50 full papers and 19 short papers included in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from 150 submissions They are organized in the following topical sections Lexical Semantics Applications of Natural Language Processing Lexical

Resources Corpus Linguistics Linguistic Ethnography Fiona Copland, Sara Shaw, Julia Snell, 2016-04-29 The collection demonstrates the ways in which established traditions and scholars have come together under the umbrella of linguistic ethnography to explore important questions about how language and communication are used in a range of settings and contexts and with what effect Corpora and Discourse Studies Anthony McEnery, Paul Baker, 2015-07-21 This edited collection brings together contemporary research that uses corpus linguistics to carry out discourse analysis The book takes an inclusive view of the meaning of discourse covering different text types or modes of language including discourse as both social practice and as ideology or representation Educating for Language and Literacy Diversity M. Prinsloo, C. Stroud, 2014-11-12 Educators and researchers in variety of locations increasingly encounter linguistically and socio culturally diverse groups of students in their classrooms and lecture halls This book examines everyday forms of talk and writing in relation to standardised forms and schooling expectations to suggest ways forward in educational discourse

(En)Countering Native-speakerism Adrian Holliday, Pamela Aboshiha, Anne Swan, 2015-09-29 The book addresses the issue of native speakerism an ideology based on the assumption that native speakers of English have a special claim to the language itself through critical qualitative studies of the lived experiences of practising teachers and students in a range of scenarios
