Trauma Sensitive Schools Learning Communities Transforming Childrens Lives K 5:

Trauma-Sensitive Schools Susan Craig, 2016 Growing evidence supports the important relationship between trauma and academic failure Along with the failure of zero tolerance policies to resolve issues of school safety and a new understanding of children s disruptive behavior educators are changing the way they view children s academic and social problems In response the trauma sensitive schools movement presents a new vision for promoting children s success This book introduces this promising approach and provides K 5 education professionals with clear explanations of current research and dozens of practical creative ideas to help them Integrating research on children s neurodevelopment and educational best practices this important book will build the capacity of teachers and school administrators to successfully manage the behavior of children with symptoms of complex developmental trauma Kudos Susan Craig has done it again After Reaching and Teaching Children Who Hurt she has written a book that will help administrators and educators truly make schoolwide trauma sensitivity a regular part of the way their schools are run A major contribution to education reform Susan Cole director Trauma and Learning Policy Initiative Massachusetts Advocates for Children and Harvard Law School Dr Craig s message is clear that promoting self reflection self regulation and integration gives traumatized children the chance at learning that they re not getting in traditional approaches And she bravely points out that it s critical for teachers to recognize the toll that this emotional work can take and the need for self care Being mindful of both the importance of trauma sensitive systems and the enormity of the task of helping vulnerable children build resilience is so critical for everyone working with and caring for our children Julie Beem MBA Executive Director of the Attachment Trauma Network Inc

Susan E. Craig, 2016 Trauma-Sensitive Schools Susan E. Craig, 2015-11-27 Growing evidence supports the important relationship between trauma and academic failure Along with the failure of zero tolerance policies to resolve issues of school safety and a new understanding of children s disruptive behavior educators are changing the way they view children s academic and social problems In response the trauma sensitive schools movement presents a new vision for promoting children s success This book introduces this promising approach and provides K 5 education professionals with clear explanations of current research and dozens of practical creative ideas to help them View poor academic and social progress through a trauma sensitive lens Create a school climate that fosters safety and resiliency in vulnerable children Establish relationships with children that support their efforts to self regulate Design instruction that reflects the social nature of the brain Work with the brain s neuroplasticity to increase children s executive functioning Reduce teacher attrition in high risk schools by decreasing secondary traumatic stress Influence educational reforms by aligning them with current research on the prevalence of childhood trauma and its effects on learning Integrating research on children s neurodevelopment and educational best practices this important book will build the capacity of teachers and school administrators to successfully manage the behavior of children with symptoms of complex developmental trauma Dr Susan E Craig is a sought after public speaker and professional developer offering in person training anywhere in the United States Invite Dr Craig to your facility to train your staff Visit her blog www.meltdownstomastery.wordpress.com Trauma Doesn't Stop at the School Door Karen Gross,2020 This book explores how educational institutions have failed to recognize and effectively address the symptoms of trauma in students of all ages Given the prevalence of traumatic events in our world including the COVID 19 pandemic Gross argues that it is time for educational institutions and those who work within them to change their approaches and responses to traumatic symptoms that manifest in students in schools and colleges These changes can alter how and what we teach how we train teachers how we structure our calendars and create our schedules how we address student behavior and disciplinary issues and how we design our physical space Drawing on real life examples and scenarios that will be familiar to educators this resource provides concrete suggestions to assist institutions in becoming trauma responsive environments including replicable macro and microchanges Book Features Focuses on trauma within the early childhood adult educational pipeline Explains how trauma is often cumulative with recent traumatic events often triggering a revival of traumatic symptomology from decades ago Provides clarifications of currently used terms and scoring systems and offers new and alternative approaches to identifying and ameliorating trauma Includes visual images to augment the descriptions in the text Equity-Centered Trauma-Informed Education (Equity and Social Justice in Education) Alex Shevrin Venet,2021-05-25 Educators must both respond to the impact of trauma and prevent trauma at school Trauma informed initiatives tend to focus on the challenging behaviors of students and ascribe them to circumstances that students are facing outside of school This approach ignores the reality that inequity itself causes trauma and that schools often heighten inequities when implementing trauma informed practices that are not based in educational equity In this fresh look at trauma informed practice Alex Shevrin Venet urges educators to shift equity to the center as they consider policies and professional development Using a framework of six principles for equity centered trauma informed education Venet offers practical action steps that teachers and school leaders can take from any starting point using the resources and influence at their disposal to make shifts in practice pedagogy and policy Overthrowing inequitable systems is a process not an overnight change But transformation is possible when educators work together and teachers can do more than they realize from within their own classrooms From Trauma to Resiliency Shulamit Natan Ritblatt,Audrey Hokoda,2022-09-28 From Trauma to Resiliency integrates research and practice of trauma informed care reviewing the neuroscience of trauma and highlighting relationship based interventions for diverse populations that have faced multiple traumas Chapters explore the experiences of oppressed groups that include survivors of abuse war poverty Indigenous youth Middle Eastern refugee mothers individuals who identify as sexual and or gender minorities SGM and children and youth involved in child welfare foster care and juvenile justice systems In each chapter contributors provide strengths based trauma informed strategies that can be used in clinical settings school based programs and in urban communities where food insecurity limited access to health services and community violence are prevalent Professionals and students in counseling social work psychology child welfare education and other programs will come away from the book with culturally affirming trauma informed interventions and models of care that promote well being and resilience Counseling Strategies for Children and Families Impacted by Incarceration Johns, Kenya,2022-06-17 Currently there is a lack of resources and information regarding how to best understand and support those impacted by incarceration As the number of people impacted by incarceration rises it is important that we acknowledge the issues and address the concerns faced by professionals such as social workers and educators that work with families and the most vulnerable populations impacted by incarceration Counseling Strategies for Children and Families Impacted by Incarceration provides in depth information and background regarding the growing group of children and families impacted by incarceration It sets out to bridge the gap between community and school counseling mental health counseling social work and social and cultural issues and can be used for skills development and social justice reasons Covering topics such as school counseling resources community engagement and trauma it is ideal for researchers academicians practitioners instructors policymakers social workers social justice advocates counselors and students The Next Big Thing in Learning and Behavioral Disabilities Bryan G. Cook,Melody Tankersley,Timothy J. Landrum,2021-04-28 Responding to the need for educational stakeholders to plan for evolving developments in policy and practice for learners with learning and behavioral disabilities the authors in this edited collection predict what the next big things in the field will be and offer recommendations on how to prepare for that envisioned future Creating Inclusion and Well-being for Marginalized Students Linda Goldman,2017-08-21 An overview of the loss grief trauma and shame that marginalised students encounter and the effects on personal learning and success Covering a range of issues faced by young people the analyses of case studies suggest means for change with strategies for effective practice Children and Trauma Brianne Kramer,Jennifer McKenzie,2022-04-20 A 2023 SPE Outstanding Book Honorable Mention According to the American Psychological Association APA 2015 trauma is an emotional response to a terrible event which can lead to difficulties with emotional regulation social relationships and the development of physical symptoms Traumatic experiences may include physical or sexual abuse neglect experiencing or witnessing violence war suicides and disasters Because of the prevalence of students with traumatic experiences in K 12 schools development and use of trauma informed practices TIP is currently increasing in educational spaces across the United States as educators and others who work with children become more aware of how socio emotional development and exposure to trauma places children on a pathway through adulthood Because of growth in these areas it is important for educators and others who work with children to have a resource to consult Children and Trauma Critical Perspectives for Meeting the Needs of Diverse Educational Communities provides teachers administrators and others involved in education with an understanding of trauma informed practices and explains how they can be used in the classroom Additionally school districts could utilize this text to implement professional development particularly if they are considering creating a districtwide trauma informed system Perfect for courses such as Trauma Informed Educational Practice Psychology Educational Psychology Foundations of Education Pedagogy Methods of Emotional or Behavioral Disorders Teaching Methods Diversity in Education Social Work Human Development
