Re-envisioning Chinese Education Guoping Zhao, Zongyi Deng, 2015-10-30 Maintaining education as a pedagogical space for human formation this book is distinctive in looking at the crisis rather than the success of Chinese education. The editors and contributors, mostly overseas and mainland Chinese scholars, argue that modern Chinese education has been built upon a superficial and instrumental embrace of Western modernity and a fragmented appropriation of Chinese cultural heritage. They call for a rethinking and reenvisioning of Chinese education grounded in and enriched by various cultural traditions and cross-cultural dialogues. Drawing on Chinese history and culture, Western and Chinese philosophies, curriculum and pedagogical theories, the collected volume analyzes 1) why education as person-making has failed to take root in contemporary China, 2) how the purpose of education has changed during the process of China's modernization, and 3) what a rediscovery of the meaning of person-making implies for rethinking and reenvisioning Chinese education in the current age of globalization and social change.

Reenvisioning Chinese Education: The meaning of person-making in a new age discusses, among other issues, China's Historical Encounter with the West and Modern Chinese Education, Rediscover Lasting Values: Confucian Cultural Learning Models in the Twenty-first Century, Rethinking and Reenvisioning Chinese Didactics: Implications from the German Didaktik Tradition, The New Basic Education and the Development of Human Subjectivity: A Chinese Experience. This book will be relevant for scholars, researchers, and policy makers everywhere who seek a more balanced, more sophisticated, and philosophically better grounded understanding of Chinese education.
