Walls Built On Sand Migration Exclusion And Society In Kuwait:

Walls Built on Sand Anh Nga Longva, 2019-08-28 When Iraq invaded Kuwait in 1990 the sight of tens of thousands of non Kuwaiti Arabs Indians East Asians and Westerners fleeing or trapped under occupation made the outside world suddenly aware of a singular fact of Kuwaiti society that Kuwaitis are an absolute minority in their own country Basing her analysis on extensive fieldwork and archival research Arab Migrant Communities in the GCC Zahra Babar, 2017 This volume provides a series of empirically dense analyses of the historical and contemporary dynamics of Arab intra regional migration to the monarchies of the Persian Gulf and unravels the ways in which particular social and cultural practices of Arab migrants interact with the host states Among other things specific contributions allow us to consider the socioeconomic and political factors that have historically shaped the character of the Arab migratory experience the sorts of work opportunities that Arab migrants have sought in the region what their work conditions and lived experiences have been and whether we are able to discern any patterns of sociocultural integration for Arab non nationals Asianization of Migrant Workers in the Gulf Countries S. Irudaya Rajan, Ginu Zacharia Oommen, 2019-11-27 This edited volume contains sixteen chapters by eminent scholars on one of the largest migration corridors in the world i.e. between South and South East Asia and the Gulf region Asia's trade and cultural contact with the Gulf date back to ancient historical times Since the 1970s the economic rise of the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC countries owing to the discovery of oil has inspired a huge influx of migrant workers from Asia At present out of roughly 15 million expatriates in the Gulf region Asians constitute around 12 million 80 percent The chapters in this book look at migration from countries like India Sri Lanka Bangladesh Pakistan Indonesia and Philippines to the different GCC countries A few chapters also focus on migration from the India state of Kerala a state where migration to the Gulf is prominent and where remittances make up over 36 percent of the state GDP Furthermore the issues covered range from labour practices and policies citizenship and state protection human rights gender and caste as well as diaspora This book explores the multifaceted nuances of the Asia Gulf migratory corridor and unearths future prospects and strategic implications The book examines remittance behaviour changing gender roles of immigrants social spatial mobility migrant policies human rights sense of belonging and identity and perception and the interaction between nationals and non nationals The book will be of interest to researchers in the areas of demography migration and gender studies as well as social science researchers policy makers human rights lawyers civil society institutions working on migration Gulf studies programmes and centres on South Asian and Middle Eastern studies Diversity of Law in the United Arab Emirates Kristin Kamøy, 2020-12-16 This book examines the law and its practice in the United Arab Emirates UAE The objective is to understand the logic of the legal system in the UAE through a rounded analysis of its laws in context It thus presents an understanding of the system on its own terms beyond the accepted Western model The book shows how the Emirati law differs from the conventional rule of law The first section of the book deals with the imperial international and cultural background of the Emirati legal system and its influences on some of the elements of the legal system today It maps the state's international legal obligations according to core human rights treaties showing how universal interpretations of rights may differ from Emirati interpretations of rights This logic is further illustrated through an overview of the legal system in federal local and free zones and how the UAE's diversity of legal sources from Islamic and colonial law provides legal adaptability The second section of the book deals mainly with the contemporary system of the rule of law in the UAE but at times makes a detour to the British administration to show how imperial execution of power during the British administration created forerunners visible today Finally the debut of the UAE on the international scene contributed to an interest in human rights investigations having manifestations in UAE law The work will be a valuable resource for researchers and academics working in the areas of Comparative Constitutional Law Legal Anthropology Legal Pluralism and Middle Eastern Studies Migrant Encounters Sara L. Friedman, Pardis Mahdavi, 2015-12 Migrant Encounters examines what happens when migrants across Asia encounter the restrictions and opportunities presented by state actors and policies Contributions draw on original ethnographic work foregrounding migrants' intimate lives to argue that such encounters unpredictably transform migrants and the states between which they move Asia Inside Out Eric Tagliacozzo, Helen F. Siu, Peter C. Perdue, 2015-06-08 Asia Inside Out reveals the dynamic forces that have linked regions of the world's largest continent Connected Places the second of three volumes highlights the flows of goods ideas and people across natural and political boundaries and illustrates the confluence of factors in the historical construction of place and space Diasporic Journeys, Ritual, and Normativity among Asian Migrant Women Pnina Werbner, Mark Johnson, 2019-07-09 The power of embodied ritual performance to constitute agency and transform subjectivity are increasingly the focus of major debates in the anthropology of Christianity and Islam They are particularly relevant to understanding the way transnational women migrants from South and South East Asia Christians Muslims and Buddhists who migrate to Asia Europe and the Middle East to work as carers and maids re imagine and recreate themselves in moral and ethical terms in the diaspora This timely collection shows how women international migrants stereotypically represented as a nation of servants reclaim sacralised spaces of sociality in their migration destinations and actively transform themselves from mere workers into pilgrims and tourists on cosmopolitan journeys Such women struggle for dignity and respect by re defining themselves in terms of an ethics of care and sacrifice As worshippers they recreate community through fiestas feasts protests and shared conviviality while subverting established normativities of gender marriage and conjugality they renegotiate their moral selfhood through religious conversion and activism For migrants the place of the church or mosque becomes a gateway to new intellectual and experiential horizons as well as a locus for religious worship and a haven of humanitarian assistance in a strange land This book was published as a special issue of the Asia Pacific Journal of Anthropology The Deportation Regime Nicholas De Genova, Nathalie Peutz, 2010-04-15 This important collection examines deportation as an increasingly global mechanism of state control

Anthropologists historians legal scholars and sociologists consider not only the physical expulsion of noncitizens but also the social discipline and labor subordination resulting from deportability the threat of forced removal They explore practices and experiences of deportation in regional and national settings from the U S Mexico border to Israel and from Somalia to Switzerland They also address broader questions including the ontological significance of freedom of movement the historical antecedents of deportation such as banishment and exile and the development entrenchment and consequences of organizing sovereign power and framing individual rights by territory Whether investigating the power that individual and corporate sponsors have over the fate of foreign laborers in Bahrain the implications of Germany's temporary suspension of deportation orders for pregnant and ill migrants or the significance of the detention camp the contributors reveal how deportation reflects and reproduces notions about public health racial purity and class privilege They also provide insight into how deportation and deportability are experienced by individuals including Arabs South Asians and Muslims in the United States One contributor looks at asylum claims in light of an unusual anti deportation campaign mounted by Algerian refugees in Montreal others analyze the European Union as an entity specifically dedicated to governing mobility inside and across its official borders The Deportation Regime addresses urgent issues related to human rights international migration and the extensive security measures implemented by nation states since September 11 2001 Contributors Rutvica Andrijasevic Aashti Bhartia Heide Casta eda Galina Cornelisse Susan Bibler Coutin Nicholas De Genova Andrew M Gardner Josiah Heyman Serhat Karakayali Sunaina Marr Maira Guillermina Gina Nu ez Peter Nyers Nathalie Peutz Enrica Rigo Victor Talavera William Walters Hans Rudolf Wicker Sarah S Willen

Stories of Democracy Mary Ann Tétreault, 2000 A sophisticated investigation of the shifting tides of democratic governance in modern Kuwait from 1921 to the present based on interviews both with political activists and members of the political elite Stories of Democracy sheds light on a wide array of issues concerning Middle Eastern politics and democratic institutions in general Mary Ann Tétreault explores how various political factions have sought to advance their own notions of Kuwaiti history and politics through distinctive popular appeals 1 pro democracy forces focusing on Kuwait's relationship to the universal values of the democratic world around them and 2 anti democrats proffering Arab and Muslim religious and cultural traditions She explores how such dramatic events as the suspension of the Kuwaiti constitution in 1986 and the invasion by Iraq in 1990 occasioned major shifts in the course of the democracy movement The current running through virtually all of the nation's political drama is the monolithic Kuwait Petroleum Corporation KPC used by the government as an instrument of economic strength to safeguard sovereignty in the absence of military might

Football in the Middle East Abdullah Al-Arian, 2022-09-01 Far and away the most popular sport in the world football has a special place in Middle Eastern societies and for Middle Eastern states With Qatar hosting the 2022 FIFA World Cup this region has been cast into the global footballing spotlight raising issues of geopolitical competition consumer culture and social justice Taking an interdisciplinary approach this book examines the complex questions raised by the phenomenon of football as a significant cultural force in the Middle East as well as its linkages to broader political and socioeconomic processes The establishment of football as a national sport offers significant insight into the region's historical experiences with colonialism and struggles for independence as well as the sport's vital role in local and regional politics today whether at the forefront of popular mobilizations or as an instrument of authoritarian control Football has also served as an arena of contestation in the formation of national identity the struggle for gender equality and the development of the media landscape The twelve contributions to this volume draw on extensive engagement with the existing body of literature and introduce original research questions that promise to open new directions for the study of football in the Middle East
