White Theology Outing Supremacy In Modernity Black Religion Womanist Thought Social Justice:

White Theology James W. Perkinson, 2004 White Theology re examines white race privilege throughout history and its relationship to black theology James W Perkinson articulates a white theology of responsibility responding to the claims of James Cone and other black scholars that serious engagement with history and culture must be at the heart of any American projection of integrity or salvation in the modern period Perkinson interweaves autobiography and postcolonial analysis history and phenomenology to explore white supremacy and the future of religious studies This is an essential and groundbreaking book for courses in religious studies African American studies and theology

Black Religion and the Imagination of Matter in the Atlantic World J. Noel, 2009-04-27 This book situates the study of Black Religion within the modern temporal and historical structures in the Atlantic World It describes how black people and Black Religion made a phenomenological appearance in modernity simultaneously and were signified in the identity formation of whites and their religion

Womanist Ethics and the Cultural Production of Evil Emilie M. Townes, 2006-11-13 This groundbreaking book provides an analytical tool to understand how and why evil works in the world as it does Deconstructing memory history and myth as received wisdom the volume critically examines racism sexism poverty and stereotypes

Self, Culture, and Others in Womanist Practical Theology P. Sheppard, 2011-03-28 To illustrate the complexities of black women's experiences of self identification and racial embodiment Phillis Isabella Sheppard provides an account that engages both psychoanalytic theory and the role of religion and cultural objects in self understanding

Toward a Womanist Ethic of Incarnation Eboni Marshall Turman, 2013-12-18 The Black Church is an institution that emerged in rebellion against injustice perpetrated upon black bodies How is it then that black women's oppression persists in black churches This book engages the Chalcedonian Definition as the starting point for exploring the body as a moral dilemma

A Womanist Pastoral Theology Against Intimate and Cultural Violence Stephanie M. Crumpton, 2014-10-02 This book is about Black women's search for relationships and encounters that support healing from intimate and cultural violence Narratives provide an ethnographic snapshot of this violence while raising concerns over whether or not existing paradigms for pastoral care and counseling are congruent with how many Black women approach healing

Womanism against Socially Constructed Matriarchal Images M. Hill, 2012-05-07 This book stems from a concern to assist pastoral counsellors in developing a therapeutic alliance with African American women It focuses on the social construct of the African American matriarch which can easily misinform the counsellor and cause emotional jeopardy for African American women who attempt to live up to its expectations

White Theology J. Perkinson, 2017-03-15 White Theology re examines white race privilege throughout history and its relationship to black theology James W Perkinson articulates a white theology of responsibility responding to the claims of James Cone and other black scholars that serious engagement with history and culture must be at the heart of any American projection of integrity or salvation in the modern period Perkinson interweaves autobiography and postcolonial analysis history and phenomenology to explore white supremacy and the future of religious studies This is an essential and groundbreaking book for courses in religious studies African American studies and theology Churches, Blackness, and Contested Multiculturalism R. Smith, W. Ackah, A. Reddie, 2014-06-18 This volume assesses contemporary church responses to multicultural diversity and resisted categories of social difference with a central focus on whether or how racial ethnic religious sexual and gender differences are validated by churches and especially black churches torn between competing inclusive and exclusive tendencies Enslaved Women and the Art of Resistance in Antebellum America R.

Harrison, 2009-09-28 Draws on mid seventeenth to nineteenth century slave narratives to describe oppression in the lives of enslaved African women Investigates pre colonial West and West Central African women s lives prior to European arrival to recover the cultural traditions and religious practices that helped enslaved women combat violence and oppression

Womanist and Black Feminist Responses to Tyler Perry's Productions L. Manigault-Bryant, T. Lomax, C.

Duncan, 2014-07-02 Tyler Perry has made over half a billion dollars through the development of storylines about black women black communities and black religion Yet a text that responds to his efforts from the perspective of these groups does not exist A Queering of Black Theology E. Kornegay, 2013-12-11 Kornegay s brilliant and insightful use of James Baldwin s literary genius offers a way forward that promises to overcome the divide between religion and sexuality that is of crucial importance not only for black church and theology but for socio political religious and theological discourse generally Religious Resistance to Neoliberalism Keri Day, 2016-04-29 Religious Resistance to Neoliberalism offers compelling and intersectional religious critiques of neoliberalism Neoliberalism is the normative rationality of contemporary global capitalism that orders people to live by the generalized principle of competition in all social spheres of life Keri Day asserts that neoliberalism and its moral orientations consequently breed radical distrust lovelessness disconnection and alienation within society She argues that engaging black feminist and womanist religious perspectives with Jewish and Christian discourses offers more robust critiques of a neoliberal economy Employing womanist and black feminist religious perspectives this book provides six theoretical theologically constructive arguments to challenge the moral fragmentation associated with global markets It strives to envision a pragmatic politics of hope Race, Religion, and Resilience in the Neoliberal Age Cedric C. Johnson, 2016-04-29 This book presents a study of the rise of American neoliberalism in the aftermath of the modern Civil Rights movement paying particular attention to the traumatic impact of the neoliberal age on countless African Americans Author Cedric C Johnson takes a close look at the manner in which American neoliberalism has been able to preserve articulate and exploit constructions of race based difference The neoliberal age has engendered an extraordinary growth in economic disparities and social inequalities with traumatic repercussions for innumerable African Americans Historically black religious forms have functioned as contested spaces capable of organizing alternative modes of cultural economic and political life This project examines forms of black religiosity that function as modes of soul care in this context Johnson posits an innovative multi systems approach that informs practices of care for populations traumatized or threatened by the neoliberal age

Gifts of Virtue, Alice Walker, and Womanist Ethics M. Harris,2010-10-25 Melanie L Harris dives into the spirituality and life work of Alice Walker literary genius and poet Through the lens of Womanist ethics Harris takes an inside look into the virtues and values that can be lifted from a study of Walker s non fiction work This work enlivens the debate in African and African American religious thought about the fluidity of spirituality and widens the conversation to encourage readers to embrace religious traditions inclusive of and beyond Christianity as the foundations for empowerment of both women and ethical values

Decolonizing Ecotheology S. Lily Mendoza,George Zachariah,2022-02-18 Decolonizing Ecotheology Indigenous and Subaltern Challenges is a pioneering attempt to contest the politics of conquest commodification and homogenization in mainstream ecotheology informed by the voices of Indigenous and subaltern communities from around the world The book marshals a robust polyphony of reportage wonder analysis and acumen seeking to open the door to a different prospect for a planet under grave duress and a different self assessment for our own species in the mix At the heart of that prospect is an embrace of soils and waters as commons and a privileging of subaltern experience and marginalized witness as the bellwethers of greatest import Of course decolonization finds its ultimate test in the actual return of land and waters to precontact Indigenous who yet have feet on the ground or paddles in the waves and who conjure dignity and vision in the manifold of their relations in spite of ceaseless onslaught and dismissal Their courage is the haunt these pages hallow like an Abel never entirely erased from the history May the moaning stop and the re creation begin

Black Theology in Transatlantic Dialogue A. Reddie,2006-09-16 In this book Anthony G Reddie creates a dynamic conversation between black theologies in the US and in the UK comparing and highlighting divergences in the respective movements

Mysterion Seeking Understanding Ian S. Markham,Jeremy Means-Koss,2022-10-21 The common misconception is that first came the church and then came the sacraments The reality is that first came God s grace and then came the church and then the church found visible ways to see the invisible grace God bestows The resulting perspective shift puts Christ where Paul would have us put him as the head of the church and author of our salvation This book invites us to see and write about the sacraments not as mere band aids to the problems we face but as lenses for examining our church Some of the authors delve deep into intellectual conceptions while others make plain what has always seemed so extravagant The thread they all hold onto however is the desire to help the reader see sacramentality as something wonderful rather than archaic and to find deep value for sacramentality and the visible signs of God s invisible grace

Black Theology and Pedagogy N. Erskine,2016-04-30 This project proposes to look at the emergence of Black theology as a discipline within the academy and how Black theology may serve as a resource for excellence in teaching

African American Female Mysticism Joy R. Bostic,2013-11-18 African American Female Mysticism Nineteenth Century Religious Activism is an important book length treatment of African American female mysticism The primary subjects of this book are three icons of black female spirituality and religious activism Jarena Lee Sojourner Truth and Rebecca Cox Jackson
