Who Needs The Past Indigenous Values And Archaeology One World Archaeology:

Who Needs the Past? Robert Layton, 1994 This book offers a critique of the all pervasive Western notion that other communities often live in a timeless present Who Needs the Past provides first hand evidence of the interest non Western non academic communities have in the past

Who Needs the Past? Robert Layton, 1989 Sentient Archaeologies Courtney Nimura, Rebecca O'Sullivan, Richard Bradley, 2023-07-15 Archaeology in the past century has seen a major shift from theoretical frameworks that treat the remains of past societies as static snapshots of particular moments in time to interpretations that prioritize change and variability Though established analytical concepts such as typology remain key parts of the archaeologist's investigative toolkit data gathering strategies and interpretative frameworks have become infused progressively with the concept that archaeology is living in the sense of both the objects of study and the discipline as a whole The significance for the field is that researchers across the world are integrating ideas informed by relational epistemologies and mutually constructive ontologies into their work from the initial stage of project design all the way down to post excavation interpretation This volume showcases examples of such work highlighting the utility of these ideas to exploring material both old and new The illuminating research and novel explanations presented contribute to resolving long standing problems in regional archaeologies across Africa Asia Australia Europe and Oceania In this way this volume reinvigorates approaches taken towards older material but also acts as a springboard for future innovative discussions of theory in archaeology and related disciplines

The Dead and Their Possessions Cressida Fforde, Jane Hubert, Paul Turnbull, 2004 Repatriation of human remains has become a key international heritage concern This extensive collection of papers provides a survey of the current state of repatriation in terms of policy practice and theory

Archaeologies of the British Susan Lawrence, 2003 Beginning with the early English colonisation of Ireland and Virginia the international range of contributors in Archaeology of the British examine the interplay of objects and identity in Scotland and Wales regional England Canada Australia South Africa Cyprus and Sri Lanka Informed by developments in historical archaeology and by postcolonial scholarship the case studies in this volume look at the colonists themselves The evidence draws upon includes vernacular architecture landscapes and objects of everyday life Archaeologies of the British makes it clear that Britishness has never been a fixed entity and that material culture can challenge historical and contemporary understandings of Britishness

Relevance and Application of Heritage in Contemporary Society Pei-Lin Yu, Chen Shen, George Smith, 2018-07-06 In the contemporary world unprecedented global events are challenging our ability to protect and enhance cultural heritage for future generations Relevance and Application of Heritage in Contemporary Society examines innovative and flexible approaches to cultural heritage protection Bringing together cultural heritage scholars and activists from across the world the volume showcases a spectrum of exciting new approaches to heritage protection community involvement and strategic utilization of expertise The contributions deal with a range of highly topical issues including armed conflict and non state actors as well as broad questions of public heritage museum roles in society heritage tourism disputed ownership and indigenous and local approaches In so doing the volume builds upon and introduces readers to a new cultural heritage declaration codified during a 2016 workshop at the Royal Ontario Museum Canada Offering a clarion call for an enduring spirit of innovation collaboration education and outreach Relevance and Application of Heritage in Contemporary Society will be important reading for scholars students cultural heritage managers and local community stakeholders Journal of the Steward Anthropological Society Steward Anthropological Society,1995 Current Swedish Archaeology ,1999

Natural Disasters and Cultural Change John Grattan,Robin Torrence,2003-08-27 Human cultures have been interacting with natural hazards since the dawn of time This book explores these interactions in detail and revisits some famous catastrophes including the eruptions of Thera and Vesuvius These studies demonstrate that diverse human cultures had well developed strategies which facilitated their response to extreme natural events Ethics in American Archaeology Mark J. Lynott,Alison Wylie,2000 Archaeology Robert L. Kelly,David Hurst Thomas,2010 This new brief edition pairs two of archaeology s most recognized names David Hurst Thomas of the American Museum of Natural History and Robert L Kelly of the University of Wyoming The authors passionate down to earth introduction to archaeological method and theory makes the book ideal for all students whether or not they intend to pursue a career in archaeology Students will gain an immediate concrete impression of what the practice of archaeology involves The authors include well chosen examples to show how archaeologists have worked through actual problems in the field and in the lab After using this text students will be better able to ask questions solve problems and discern truth from fiction They will learn about the nature of archaeological data and how archaeologists do such things as archaeological survey and excavation They will also develop their sense of scientific logic and gain a better understanding of career opportunities available to archaeologists This edition is enhanced with a new full color design that improves the visual presentation and enables students to more clearly see the key points of an image A rich array of supplemental resources includes a new companion website as well as the option to use the DOING FIELDWORK ARCHAEOLOGICAL DEMONSTRATIONS CD ROM Version 2 0 also developed by the authors Berytus ,1988 Bulletin of the Institute of Archaeology ,1990 Numbers for 1958 73 include the annual reports of the Institute for 1956 57 71 72 Membership List Prehistoric Society (London, England),1990 Life in Question Lisa Stevenson,2005

Recent Publications in Natural History ,1990 Archaeology: Down to Earth David Hurst Thomas,Robert L. Kelly,2007 This new brief edition pairs two of archaeology s most recognized names David Hurst Thomas of the American Museum of Natural History and Robert L Kelly of the University of Wyoming to bring a passionate down to earth introduction to archaeological method and theory to the classroom Designed both for students who intend on pursuing a career in archaeology as well as those who do not the authors give students a more immediate concrete impression of what the practice of archaeology is all about They include well chosen examples that show how archaeologists have worked through actual problems in the field and in the lab After using this text students will be better able to ask questions solve problems and discern truth from fiction Students will not only learn about the nature of archaeological data and how archaeologists do such things as archaeological survey and excavation they will also develop their sense of scientific logic and gain a better understanding of what career opportunities are available for archaeologists This edition is enhanced with new pedagogical features many more photos and a completely new design to help students prioritize and learn the material presented A rich array of supplemental resources includes a new companion website as well as the option to use a new CD ROM DOING FIELDWORK ARCHAEOLOGICAL DEMONSTRATIONS also developed by the authors Important Notice Media content referenced within the product description or the product text may not be available in the ebook version

Archaeology and Language: Theoretical and methodological orientations R. Blench, Matthew Spriggs, 1997 Archaeology and Language I is representative of groundbreaking work into two areas which have only recently been correlated linguistics and archaeology

Prehistoric Imagery and Landscapes Kalle Sognnes, 2001 A detailed study of the Bronze Age rock art found in the Stjordal region of central Norway Based on fieldwork carried out in the late 1980s and early 1990s Sognnes analyses the imagery of the art and the physical and social landscape in which it exists
