Mercado, Enjoy the Sunset Evelyn Miranda-Feliciano, Who s afraid of growing old With the physical changes and the feelings of uncertainty that accompany growing old who isn t Growing old is inevitable it is part of the natural progression of life Eventually everyone will grow old So why fear it when instead we can face it with grace confidence and appreciation of the life that we have Why not live fully and age well Seasoned writer and a senior citizen herself Evelyn Miranda Feliciano tackles the apprehensions and concerns of growing old wellness and pain loss of independence sex and intimacy in old age feelings of uselessness fear of death She writes Let us with joyful hearts and hopeful disposition hold hands and travel together in this great adventure of ageing well in full grip of the promises of God He is the Lord of the young and the old and of those who are in between the Almighty One of yesterday today and forever

Solidarity ,1993 Awakening Desire Irene Alexander,2018-04-19 The hope of this book is that it awakens desire to know more intimately the God who breaks through our compartmentalization and naming While most in the West have heard God s name as almost exclusively masculine a child growing up in Israel would have experienced the Spirit of God and Lady Wisdom as female This ruach the breath of God brooded over the face of the deep in the creation story like a hovering mother bird The God of the Bible and the early church has been described with both masculine and feminine imagery referred to by the church fathers and mystics as both Mother and Father In our time we have lost much of this rich feminine imagery This book explores not only this historical knowing of God but also more contemporary writers such as Carl Jung Paul Young The Shack George MacDonald and Thomas Merton Each of these men engaged with the Divine Feminine giving us examples of how we too may find God more deeply and more intimately Sarabihón ,2005
