Zest For Life Lesbians Experiences Of Menopause:

Zest for Life Jennifer Kelly, 2005 Features how lesbians describe their experience of menopause This book suggests that the experience of menopause can be significantly altered through shifting perceptions about body image Menopause Transitions and the Workplace Vanessa Beck, Jo Brewis, 2024-01-10 The symptoms of menopause transitions have profound implications for work and are in turn affected by work Despite this the topic is rarely discussed in management and organization studies Providing an overview of existing knowledge in the field of menopause in the workplace this collection re theorizes the management of human resources as it relates to the connections between gender age and the body in the workplace environment with an intersectional analysis Offering theoretical frameworks from experts as well as possible practical approaches that can be implemented in workplaces to support women transitioning through menopause this is a go to reference for academics and policy makers working in the field LGBTQ Cultures Michele J. Eliason, Peggy L.

Chinn, 2017-10-16 Drawn from real world experience and current research the fully updated LGBTQ Cultures 3rd Edition paves the way for healthcare professionals to provide well informed culturally sensitive healthcare to lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer LGBTQ patients This vital guide fills the LGBTQ awareness gaps including replacing myths and stereotypes with facts and measuring the effects of social stigma on health Vital for all nursing specialties this is the seminal guide to actively providing appropriate culturally sensitive care to persons of all sexual orientations and gender identities

Alternative Publishers of Books in North America Byron Anderson, 2006 This directory is a unique reference tool that gathers information on significant alternative presses 126 U S presses 19 Canadian and 18 international presses having either a North American address or distributor Thirty three presses are new to this edition The Butterfly Effect Susan

Hawthorne, 2005 This is a concept from physics in which it is surmised that small actions can have enormous consequences and that the flutter of a butterfly s wing on one side of the world can cause devastating storms on the other side This work includes poems on a range of subjects including death history culture physics and more Researching the Margins M.

Pitts, A. Smith, 2007-07-12 Social researchers are increasingly aware of their obligations to the hard to reach communities they research This book identifies the issues associated with researching these communities and offers both conceptual analyses and practical suggestions The contributors are members of ARCSHS staff or drawn from the affected communities themselves Women's Studies Journal , 2002 Australian Book Review , 2005 Feminist Collections University of Wisconsin System. Women's Studies Librarian, University of Wisconsin System. Gender & Women's Studies Librarian, 2005

New Books on Women and Feminism , 2007 Gendered Bodies Judith Lorber, Lisa Jean Moore, 2007 For centuries the biological sciences have dissected measured and probed the human body as a product of nature But from a feminist perspective the human body is a social production Human bodies are shaped and controlled by the norms and expectations of gendered social orders intersected by racial class religious and age norms and expectations The result is a gendered body produced for a gendered social world In this concise text with readings designed for undergraduate students Lorber and Moore present feminist contributions to social and cultural studies of the human body showing the construction of gendered bodies in different contexts The authors argue that the ideology of the perfect body is a powerful means of social control for girls and boys as well as women and men The authors show how children s bodies are gendered through games and sports and shaped and modified throughout adulthood to meet social expectations Each chapter includes a list of key concepts three readings recommended books and articles and Internet sources For the instructor the book includes class exercises and a list of films with somatic themes Westerly ,2005 Feminist Periodicals ,2005 Book Review Index ,2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Joyce in the Belly of the Big Truck; Workbook Joyce A. Cascio,2005-05 Moving Beyond Words Gloria Steinem,2012-05-15 Essays from the New York Times bestselling author who inspired the film The Glorias a woman who has told the truth about her life and ours Los Angeles Times With cool humor and rich intellect Gloria Steinem strips bare our social constructions of gender and race explaining just how limiting these invented cultural identities can be In the first of six sections Steinem imagines how our understanding of human psychology would be different in a witty reversal What if Freud had been a woman who inflicted biological inferiority on men think womb envy In other essays she presents positive examples of people who turn gendered stereotypes on their heads from a female bodybuilder to Mahatma Gandhi whose followers absorbed his wisdom that change starts at the bottom And in some of the most moving pieces Steinem reveals some of her own complicated history as a writer woman and citizen of the world This ebook features an illustrated biography of Gloria Steinem including rare images from the author s personal collection WLW Journal Women Library Workers (U.S.),1983 Not Too Old for That Vicki Larson,2022-04-04 Helps women break through the tired and hurtful stereotypes of aging to better reflect who they are how they live and what they want as they age Who hasn t heard the stereotypes about women of a certain age That s the age when women become invisible irrelevant undesirable asexual unhinged dried up hormonal messes It s when women quickly slide into fragility and become forgetful passive weak feeble debilitated disabled dependent and depressed Or so the story goes Not only are those outdated narratives sexist and ageist they are also damaging to women s physical emotional financial romantic and sexual health It s time to change them In Not Too Old for That Vicki Larson helps change the narrative about being a woman at midlife and older She questions what we ve been told aging would be like and encourages us to instead ask ourselves what do we want it to be like and how can we get there The key is to be curious open minded and intentional about the ways we are becoming our future selves We have an opportunity to create new narratives of aging as a woman ones that value women at all stages of life not just youth and it starts with us Once the stereotypes that have held women back are broken down women can move past them and rather than feel helpless as the years add up they can discover and tap into just how much agency they have Not only will this book help to create a less ageist less sexist more inclusive future it will release our daughters and all young women from a similar future Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton, 1994 Human Behavior in the Social Environment José B. Ashford, Craig W. LeCroy, Kathy L. Lortie, 2001 In this revision of their ground breaking book the authors offer an even more balanced integrated and applied text In addition the book s multidimensional framework integration of the biopsychosocial dimensions for assessing social functioning attention to foundation knowledge and diversity and use of case studies to illuminate the applied aspects of HBSE content all combine to give readers an experience that is meaningful and exciting Using a unique multidimensional framework for assessing behavior the authors look at biopsychosocial development across the life span Essentially the framework provides a concrete tool for the reader to assess human behavior from a perspective that truly reflects the values and knowledge base of the social work profession Lively and comprehensive this book succeeds by helping students connect foundation knowledge with practice concerns
