The Radical Reformation, 3rd ed. George Huntston Williams, 1995-05-01 George Williams monumental The Radical Reformation has been an essential reference work for historians of early modern Europe narrating in rich interpretative detail the interconnected stories of radical groups operating at the margins of the mainline Reformation In its scope spanning all of Europe from Spain to Poland from Denmark to Italy and its erudition The Radical Reformation is without peer Now in paperback format Williams magnum opus should be considered for any university level course on the Reformation Zeven eeuwen; geschiedenis van het oude en nieuwe gasthuis te Delft, 1954

The Art of Midwifery Hilary Marland, 2005-09-26 The Art of Midwifery is the first book to examine midwives lives and work across Europe in the early modern period Drawing on a vast range of archival material from England Holland Germany France Italy and Spain the contributors show the diversity in midwives practices competence socio economic background and education as well as their public function and image The Art of Midwifery is an excellent resource for students of women s history social history and medical history

Craft Guilds in the Early Modern Low Countries Catharina Lis, Hugo Soly, 2017-03-02 In the half millennium of their existence guilds in the Low Countries played a highly significant role in shaping the societies of which they were a part One key aspect that has been identified in recent historical research to explain the survival of the guilds for such a long time is the guilds continued adaptability to changing circumstances This idea of flexibility is the point of departure for the essays in this volume which sheds new light on the corporate system and identifies its various features and regional variances The contributors explore the interrelations between economic organisations and political power in late medieval and early modern towns and address issues of gender religion and social welfare in the context of the guilds This cohesive and focussed volume will provide a stimulus for renewed interest and further research in this area It will appeal to scholars and students with an interest in early modern economic social and cultural history in particular but will also be valuable to those researching into political religious and gender history

A Classified Bibliography of the History of Dutch Medicine 1900-1974 G.A. Lindeboom, 2012-12-06 I In some periods of the past Netherlands medicine has played a major role in the evolution of European medicine today its history still enjoys much interest even at the other side of the Ocean In this bibliography it has been my endeavour to compile references for all that has been written on the history of Dutch medicine in our country and elsewhere in our age The main concern of this work is with the medicine of the Northern Netherlands However before the end of the sixteenth century the Northern and Southern Netherlands were not yet divided into two separate countries they were still politically one and for the greater part spoke the same Flemish language So before their separation the present day Belgium and Netherlands also had a common medical history Therefore many entries have been included which bear on early and sometimes later Flemish medicine but it has not been the intention to strive for completeness in this respect Het Coolsingelziekenhuis te Rotterdam (1839-1900) M.J. van Lieburg, 2024-10-02 Piety in Practice and Print Koen Goudriaan, 2016 The late Middle Ages provide us with a fascinating religious landscape The quest for new religious ideals and intense spirituality can be observed in movements such as the Modern Devotion and the Franciscan Observance marking the late fourteenth and fifteenth century with new institutional dynamics and the formation of a variety of religious communities The dissemination of these new religious ideas and ideals profited from the advent of the printing press It is these subjects that Koen Goudriaan professor of Medieval History at VU University Amsterdam has studied for decades This volume edited by Anna Dlabová and Ad Tervoort presents a collection of eleven of his best essays It focuses on three themes the institutional parameters of late medieval religious movements the cult of remembrance and the interaction between religious movements and the early printing press Together these essays provide a representative sample of Goudriaan's substantial contribution to scholarship on late medieval history Goederenverwerving en goederenbeheer van de abdij Mariënweerd (1129-1592) Bas J.
