Religion-Regime Relations in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Lovemore Togarasei, Joram Tarusarira, 2023-08-01 This book explores religion regime relations in contemporary Zimbabwe to identify patterns of co operation and resistance across diverse religious institutions Using co operation and resistance as an analytical framework the book shows how different religious organisations have interacted with Emmerson Mnangagwa s Second Republic following Robert Mugabe s departure from the political scene In particular through case studies on the Zimbabwe Council of Churches Zimbabwe Catholic Bishops Conference and Pentecostals African Traditional Religions Islam and others the book explores how different religious institutions have responded to Mnangagwa s new regime Chapters highlight the complexities characterising the religion regime interface showing how the same religious organisation might co operate and resist at the same time Furthermore the book compares how religious institutions co operated or resisted Mugabe s earlier regime to identify patterns of continuity and change Overall the book highlights the challenges of deploying simplistic frames in efforts to understand the interface between politics and religion A significant contribution to global scholarship on religion regime interfaces this book will appeal to academics and students in the field of Religious Studies Political Science History and African Studies

Scattered and Gathered Michael L. Budde, 2017-09-15 This volume takes its title from the first century Christian catechism called the Didache Even as this broken bread was scattered over the hills gathered together and became one so let Your Church be gathered together from the ends of the earth For Christians today these words remain relevant in an era of massive human movements voluntary and coerced hybrid identities and wide ranging cultural interactions How do modern Christians live as both a scattered and gathered people How do they live out the tension between ecclesial universality catholicity and particularity distinctive ways of being church in a given culture and context Do Christians today constitute a diaspora a people dispersed across borders and cultures that nonetheless maintains a sense of commonality and mission Scattered and Gathered Catholics in Diaspora explores these questions through the work of fourteen scholars in different fields and from different corners of the world Whether through reflections on Zimbabweans in Britain Levantines in North America or the remote island people of Chiloe now living in other parts of Chile they guide readers along the winding road of insights and challenges facing many of today s Christians

Shona Women in Zimbabwe--A Purchased People? John Chitakure, 2016-09-29 The position and treatment of women in every religion culture and society have been subjects of concern for a long time In every society women fight for their emancipation from exploitive and oppressive patriarchal structures The most contentious issues include domestic violence gender discrimination and inequality in the areas of employment leadership and marriage Domestic violence tops the list and is the worst enemy of any progressive and democratic society It dehumanizes disfigures and demeans its victims and survivors Shona Women in Zimbabwe a Purchased People explores the causes of domestic violence the cultural practice of bridewealth in particular and assesses the extent to which it contributes to the proliferation of domestic violence among the Shona people of Zimbabwe It then explores the Christian traditions particularly the Roman Catholic Church in search of resources that can be used to emancipate Shona women from patriarchal subjugation Finally the book offers a pastoral response that is informed by the experiences of the

Shona women their cultural resources and the Roman Catholic religious tradition The Life and Music of Oliver Mtukudzi Ezra Chitando, Pauline Mateveke, Munyaradzi Nyakudya, Bridget Chinouriri, 2022-01-13 This book is a critical reflection on the life and career of the late legendary Zimbabwean music icon Oliver Tuku Mtukudzi and his contribution towards the reconstruction of Zimbabwe Africa and the globe at large Mtukudzi was a musician philosopher and human rights activist who espoused the agenda of reconstruction in order to bring about a better world proposing personal cultural political religious and global reconstruction With twenty original chapters this vibrant volume examines various themes and dimensions of Mtukudzi's distinguished life and career notably how his music has been a powerful vehicle for societal reconstruction and cultural rejuvenation specifically speaking to issues of culture human rights governance peacebuilding religion and identity humanism gender and politics among others The contributors explore the art of performance in Mtukudzi's music and acting career and how this facilitated his reconstruction agenda offering fresh and compelling perspectives into the role of performing artists and cultural workers such as Mtukudzi in presenting models for reconstructing the world Missional Theology in Context Buhle Mpofu, 2025-10-30 This book discusses Missional Theology from trans disciplinary and diverse angles from which scholars unpack missional theologies which emerge out of their different contexts spanning from countries such as Thailand South Korea Taiwan Netherlands Switzerland Uganda South Africa and Zimbabwe This diversity of contexts and scholarly approaches underscore the notion of globality which is at the heart of subverting Empire explored through the intersecting themes of environmental justice social and economic justice addressing poverty migration challenges and dealing with all forms of discrimination such as gender and racism Central to the approach of this book is the notion that subverting Empire requires an urgent and transformational shift from traditional approaches to creative and missional approaches grounded on human dignity and life affirming values as opposed to the death dealing effects of the current global architecture which thrives on exploitation of the poor and marginalized communities Pentecostalism and Human Rights in Contemporary Zimbabwe Francis Machingura, Lovemore Togarasei, 2018-06-11 This volume offers updated accounts of Pentecostalism in Zimbabwe and explores most of the dominant themes in contemporary Pentecostalism including leadership competition gender youth and prosperity In addition some chapters investigate emerging themes in studies on Pentecostalism such as disability Contributors to this volume situate Zimbabwean Pentecostalism within the larger continuum of global Pentecostalism and reflect on Pentecostal biblical interpretation the interface between Pentecostalism and African Traditional Religions the use of titles in Zimbabwean Pentecostalism and Pentecostalism's engagement with HIV AIDS The book will appeal to scholars in religious studies and theology religious education disability studies social sciences history political science development studies gender cultural studies and anthropology as well as general readers Religion in Times of Crisis, 2014-07-03 Religion is alive and well all over the world especially in times of personal political and social crisis Even in Europe long regarded the most secular continent religion has taken centre stage in how people respond to the crises associated with modernity or how they interact with the nation state In this book scholars working in and on Europe offer fresh perspectives on how religion provides answers to existential crisis how crisis increases the salience of religious identities and cultural polarization and how religion is contributing to changes in the modern world in Europe and beyond Cases from Poland to Pakistan and from Ireland to Zimbabwe among others demonstrate the complexity and ambivalence of religion s role in the contemporary world Contributors are Mariecke van den Berg David J Bos Marco Derks Marco Derks R Ruard Ganzevoort Milo Jovanovi Vladimir Kmec Marta Ko odziejska Anne Marie Korte Anne Sophie Lamine Christophe Monnot Alexandre Piettre Ali Qadir Srdjan Sremac Joram Tarusaria Martina Topi and Tom Wagner The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Nature Laura Hobgood, Whitney A. Bauman, 2018-05-17 Divided into four parts Earth Air Fire and Water this book takes an elemental approach to the study of religion and ecology It reflects recent theoretical and methodological developments in this field which seek to understand the ways that ideas and matter minds and bodies exist together within an immanent frame of reference The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Nature focuses on how these matters materialize in the world around us thereby addressing key topics in this area of study The editors provide an extensive introduction to the book as well as useful introductions to each of its parts The volume s international contributors are drawn from the USA South Africa Netherlands Norway Indonesia and South Korea and offer a variety of perspectives voices cultural settings and geographical locales This handbook shows that human concern and engagement with material existence is present in all sectors of the global community regardless of religious tradition It challenges the traditional methodological approach of comparative religion and argues that globalization renders a comparative religious approach to the environment insufficient National Guide to Funding in Religion, 1997 Global Christianity Gina Zurlo, 2022-09-06 Explore Christian life in every corner of the world Christianity is now a majority global South religion with more believers living in Africa Asia and Latin America than in Europe and North America However most Americans have little exposure to Christians around the world In addition the United States is still the country that sends the most international missionaries While many American churches support missionaries overseas they may not understand the beliefs practices histories and challenges Christians experience abroad Global Christianity is an accessible quick reference guide to the global church Filled with at a glance maps and charts it puts relevant and up to date information into the hands of churches mission organizations and individuals Useful for prayer missions outreach and study of the global church this is the new standard resource on the world s largest religion Understand Christianity within each continent country tradition and movement with Current demographic information from the United Nations Research from the Center for the Study of Global Christianity A focus on historical sociological political and religious contexts Things to consider within each local context such as political conflicts church state relations religious freedom gender equality education health economics and climate change This resource will satisfy those looking for background on the global church and equip individuals and churches to strategically pray for give to and unite with fellow Christians around the world Rediscovering Jesus in Our Places Elia Shabani Mligo, 2020-05-28 The question of contextual theology and its relevance to Africa in this time of globalization whereby there are rampant uncontrolled changes in cultures technologies economic policies and even people s religious lives is very urgent How is contextual theology relevant in the ever changing contexts of the church in Africa Indeed there are a number of challenges which contextual theology faces within the church in Africa which need to be addressed contextually Some such challenges include poverty rampant violence homosexuality alcoholism the resurgence of prosperity gospel materialistic prophets and incurable illnesses like Ebola HIV and AIDS and the current coronavirus COVID 19 However which context in Africa Context in Africa as in other parts of the world is always in flux it is complex and fluid There is no permanent context The experience of Jesus in such a changing context needs to be rediscovered depending on what transpires in each particular place at a particular time This book addresses some of the overarching challenges that face contextual theology and how such challenges should be addressed by the church in Africa in contemporary ever changing context for it to be relevant in Africa It also highlights the need to move from liberation and inculturation theologies to reconstruction theology in dealing with the challenges of the current church Hence the book is important to students and scholars engaging in practical systematic biblical and contextual theologies in all their branches Leaning into the Spirit Virginia Miller, The Most Rev'd. Sir David Moxon, The Rt. Rev'd. Prof. Stephen Pickard, 2019-11-23 This book contains fresh insights into ecumenism and notwithstanding claims of an ecumenical winter affirms the view that we are actually moving into a new ecumenical spring It offers new theological insights in the areas of Christology Pneumatology and Trinitarian theology and discusses developments in ecumenism in the USA UK Australia India and Africa as well as in ecumenical institutions such as the World Council of Churches WCC and the Anglican Roman Catholic Commission ARCIC Development and Regional Stability in Africa Adeoye O. Akinola, Emmaculate Asige Liaga, 2024-06-22 This book critically engages with the development security nexus in contemporary Africa coinciding with the twentieth anniversary of the African Union AU Despite widespread discourse on the Africa Rising narrative many African states grapple with persistent economic challenges violent conflicts Afrophobia and democratic setbacks The AU s efforts alongside those of other regional actors to leverage regionalism for driving socio economic and political development while ensuring peace and security have yielded limited results Consequently this edited volume takes an incisive approach to unpack the complex and vexed issues obstructing sustainable advancements in security and development in Africa While existing studies have predominantly centered on conventional conflict and development concerns this book sheds light on the emerging realities and evolving dynamics shaping the region s trajectory Utilising a comprehensive case study approach the book places Africa s challenges within both historical and contemporary contexts aiming to present sustainable policy options to bridge the myriad gaps in the continent s peace security and governance architecture By addressing the intricacies of balancing individual state interests with collective regional advancement this volume offers a pathway toward unlocking Africa's potential for development and fostering a prosperous and harmonious Africa We Want
