Witchcraft, Violence, and Democracy in South Africa Adam Ashforth, 2005-01-15 Large numbers of people in Soweto other parts of South Africa live in fear of witchcraft presenting complex unique problems for the government Adam Ashforth explores the challenge of occult violence the spiritual insecurity that it engenders to democratic rule in South Africa The Road to Democracy in South Africa: 1970-1980 South African Democracy Education Trust, 2004 v 3 The third volume in the series examines the role of anti apartheid movements around the world The global anti apartheid movement was very successful in creating awareness of the liberation struggle in South Africa and in contributing to the downfall of the apartheid government This volume in 2 parts brings together analyses which in the main are written by activist scholars with deep roots in the movements and organizations they are writing about Johannesburg Keith Beavon, 2022-08-01 Until now there has been no single text that brings together the material that reveals the unfolding geography of Johannesburg South Africa This book describes the history of the city from its days as a mining camp to its position of premier metropolis in Africa The present geography of Johannesburg and the problems and dysfunctions that it has exhibited at various stages in its history since 1886 cannot be understood without a firm grasp of what has evolved over the past 120 years Soweto Poetry Michael J. F. Chapman, 2007 This anthology seeks to understand and appreciate a major phenomenon in South African literary and political life the rise to prominence of a Black Consciousness poetry called the New Black Poetry of the 1970s or Soweto Poetry The contributions republished here 25 years later gain resonance in retrospect They draw on the insights of many leading literary commentators including Peter Abrahams H I E Dhlomo Nat Nakasa Es'kia Mphahlele James Matthews Lionel Abrahams Douglas Livingstone Njabulo S Ndebele and Mbulelo Mzamane They remind us of what editor Michael Chapman identifies as the inheritance of the Soweto voices part of a global movement towards a non elitist poetry of ethical power The challenge of such an aesthetic a poetry that is both simple and profound lends continuing relevance to these perspectives This collection was initially published in the revolutionary aftermath of Soweto 76 and is reprinted in this current edition Hunting the Seven Beverley Roos-Muller, 2024-05-22 In 1986 seven young men were shot and killed by police in Gugulethu in Cape Town The nation was told they were part of a terrorist MK cell plotting an attack on a police unit An inquest followed then a dramatic trial in 1987 and a second inquest in 1989 that again exonerated the police Finally ten years later Eugene de Kock's Vlakplaas unit was exposed at the Truth and Reconciliation Commission for having planned and executed the cold blooded killings Yet their real agenda remained a mystery In Hunting the Seven Beverley Roos Muller reveals her own decades long connection to the case and her search for the truth of their deaths that has been shrouded in lies and mystery Sifting through the evidence and interviewing many of those involved Roos Muller reveals that it was Vlakplaas's only operation in the Western Cape and behind it lay a shocking secret Soweto P. L. Bonner, Lauren Segal, 1998 A fascinating look at the vicious aftermath of the uprising of 16 June 1976 and the role of the African National

Congress the United Democratic Front the Inkatha Freedom Party the National Party and other role players in the story of this unique place of laughter and suffering The plight of scholars and students the Defiance Campaign the move to armed struggle the State of Emergency the grip of crime and violent confrontation were all to take their toll on the people of the township before the era of reform promised that long awaited freedom for both the people of Soweto and the rest of the nation

The West Rand Development Board (Sowetour) Welcomes You to Greater Soweto, 1984 Inside BOSS Gordon Winter, 1981 For my Country Themba Maseko, 2021-05-17 When I joined the struggle as a 13 year old boy in Soweto I would never have imagined that one day I would blow the whistle on a special kind of corruption that was destroying the party and the values I had been fighting for all my life In 2010 government spokesperson Themba Maseko was called to the Gupta family's Saxonwold compound and asked by Ajay Gupta to divert the government's entire advertising budget to the family's media company When Maseko refused to do so he was removed from his position and forced to leave the public service The life of this once proud civil servant would never be the same again Maseko whose activism was forged in the Soweto uprising of 1976 is a product of the struggle and has always been unfailingly loyal to the principles of the ANC In 2016 when the party called on members with evidence of wrongdoing by the Guptas to step forward Maseko was the only one to do so For this courageous act of whistleblowing he was ostracised slandered and even threatened As a former senior state official Maseko also offers a rare insider's view of the presidencies of Thabo Mbeki and Jacob Zuma and of the inner workings of government Compelling and revelatory For My Country shows what it takes to stand up for one's principles and defy the most powerful man in the country
