Wayang Theatre in Indonesia Clara van Groenendaal, 2024-08-26 Tall Tree, Nest of the Wind: The Javanese Shadow-play Dewa Ruci Performed by Ki Anom Soeroto Bernard Arps, 2016-04-18 Javanese shadow puppetry is a sophisticated dramatic form often felt to be at the heart of Javanese culture drawing on classic texts but with important contemporary resonance in fields like religion and politics How to make sense of the shadow play as a form of world making In Tall Tree Nest of the Wind Bernard Arps explores this question by considering an all night performance of Dewa Ruci a key play in the repertoire Thrilling and profound Dewa Ruci describes the mighty Bratasena's quest for the ultimate mystical insight The book presents Dewa Ruci as rendered by the distinguished master puppeteer Ki Anom Soeroto in Amsterdam in 1987 The book's unusual design presents the performance texts together with descriptions of the sounds and images that would remain obscure in conventional formats of presentation Copious annotations probe beneath the surface and provide an understanding of the performance's cultural complexity These annotations explain the meanings of puppet action music and shifts in language how the puppeteer wove together into the drama the circumstances of the performance in Amsterdam Islamic and other religious ideas and references to contemporary Indonesian political ideology Also revealed is the performance's historical multilayering and the picture it paints of the Javanese past Tall Tree Nest of the Wind not only presents an unrivalled insight into the artistic depth of wayang kulit it exemplifies a new field of study the philology of performance Wayang Golek Peter Buurman, 1991 Since the early nineteenth century foreigners have been fascinated by Javanese puppet theatre or wayang This book is concerned with one form of wayang found exclusively in West Java or Sunda Wayang golek is performed with three dimensional wooden rod puppets and its repertoire of stories is taken from the great Indian epics the Mahabharata and the Ramayana Wayang Puppets R. L. Mellema, 1988 Shadow Theatre in Java Alit Veldhuisen-Djajasoebroto, 1999 Javanese society and wayang theatre are closely connected not only are ideas from the wayang stories deeply embedded in Javanese culture wayang is also a means of expression The heroes of wayang stories accompanied by their servants demons and gods have been part of everyday life in Java for centuries They have played the part of role models and examples but at times they have also served as mouthpieces that are able to express sentiments that would otherwise remain unspoken Over the centuries the ancient wayang theatre has developed into a distinctive form of art Foreign influences provided new stories characters were added new styles were refined at the courts and in the twentieth century wayang theatre even served as a vehicle for propaganda especially during the struggle for independence from Dutch colonial rule Sites, Bodies and Stories Susan Legêne, Bambang Purwanto, Henk Schulte Nordholt, 2015-06-22 Sites Bodies and Stories examines the intimate links between history and heritage as they have developed in postcolonial Indonesia Sites discussed in the book include Borobudur in Central Java a village in Flores built around megalithic formations and ancestral houses in Alor Bodies refers to legacies of physical anthropology exhibition practices and Hollywood movies

The Stories are accounts of the Mambesak movement in Papua the inclusion of wayang puppetry in UNESCO s List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity and subaltern history as written by the people of Blambangan in their search for national heroes Throughout the book citizenship entitlement figures as a leitmotif in heritage initiatives Contemporary heritage formation in Indonesia is intrinsically linked to a canon of Indonesian art and culture developed during Dutch colonial rule institutionalized within Indonesia s heritage infrastructure and in the Netherlands and echoed in museums and exhibitions throughout the world The authors in this volume acknowledge colonial legacies but argue against a colonial determinism considering instead how contemporary heritage initiatives can lead to new interpretations of the past
