poems are familiar and enchanting lit by the magic of everyday detail leaving readers with a sense of hope knowing that the will of a people will never let it be like it was before Words for War Oksana Maksymchuk, Max Rosochinsky, 2022-06-14

The armed conflict in the east of Ukraine brought about an emergence of a distinctive trend in contemporary Ukrainian poetry the poetry of war Directly and indirectly the poems collected in this volume engage with the events and experiences of war reflecting on the themes of alienation loss dislocation and disability as well as justice heroism courage resilience generosity and forgiveness In addressing these themes the poems also raise questions about art politics citizenship and moral responsibility The anthology brings together some of the most compelling poetic voices from different regions of Ukraine Young and old female and male somber and ironic tragic and playful filled with extraordinary terror and ordinary human delights the voices recreate the human sounds of war in its tragic complexity Contours of the City Attyla Mohyl'ny, 2018-01-01

Contours of the City arguably comprises one of the finest collections of free verse ever written in Ukrainian even though it was largely overlooked when it first appeared during the political transition to Ukrainian independence in 1991 It certainly deserves a broader audience both in Mohyl'ny's homeland as well as in the wider world While it may be described as a one hit wonder because of the poet's premature death it remains a brilliant hit for all time

Translator Michael Naydan received the Eugene Kayden Meritorious Achievement Award in Translation from the University of Colorado for a partial manuscript of his translations of Mohyl'ny's poetry into English in 1993 This edition includes a complete translation of Mohyl'ny's collection Contours of the City along with several poems translated by Virlana Tkacz and Wanda Phipps "Litajuča holova" ta inši virši Viktor Neborak, 2005 In a Different Light Ol'ha Luchuk, 2008
