Walk Wit Me All Ova Guyana:

Walk Wit' Me... Helena Martin, 2011-12-16 My memoir is laced with nostalgia and at the same time it is my sincere intention to portray the true essence of the Guyanese culture without offence Keep in mind that this is not based on the experience of every Guyanese This was the way I saw and experienced things back then The use of colloquialism is of utmost importance it is the vernacular we understand It may sound like another language so unless you were born and bred in Guyana you will need to refer to the glossary provided Folklore and mothers preaching life lessons through proverbs played a large part in Guyanese life This is not only an account of the first twenty one years of my life in Guyana it also contains anecdotes of visits back to my homeland You will also find a sprinkling of information pertaining to my new life in Australia Before immigrating to Australia I believed the sun only rose and set in Guyana I never imagined another paradise existed on the planet There is a saying that most Guyanese use to identify their roots after they have voluntarily immigrated or simply fled to another country When we say My navel string is buried in Guyana we simply mean My roots are there Its a place where true and enduring friendships were formed forever We will meet one another decades later and feel as if it was yesterday reminiscing about our beloved land lapsing into the language only a fellow Guyanese can understand A famous Australian crooner said I still call Australia home and I can assure you that saying applies to Guyanese who have immigrated to every corner of the globe Navigating the labyrinth of family secrets was my one mission in life I just had to know Walk Good Guyana Boy Bernard Heydorn, 1994 Imperishable Memories Seegobin Ragbeer, 2011-10-18 What seemed like a remote and fruitless yearning for a young lad to raise and fulfil his innate calling became a reality through a set of strange and seemingly fictional circumstances for truth is sometimes stranger than fiction Purely accidental and only the workings of the three fates have caused him to acquire proper schooling to become a school teacher and headmaster ag of DeHoop Canadian Mission School his alma materto enter into teachers college to do research work in the Certificate in Education and the Bachelor Of Education in Mona Jamaica and later to complete the Bachelor of Arts in the University of Torontogreat achievements for one who never crossed the door of a High School in Guyana For he was not only a school teacher in Guyana and Jamaica but went on to retire honorably from the teaching profession in Scarborough Ontario 1993 This book reveals that persevering strength of the human spirit to swim ponds creeks rivers and marshes to saunter through valleys and downs to brave thickets and thorns to ascend hills and mountains and to reach the apex of the Wills longing Such is the true story of Imperishable Memories Death's Realm Stephen Graham Jones, John FD Taff, Hank Schwaeble, JG Faherty, Karen Runge, John C.
