LaGuardia,2016-05-06 Intertextual Masculinity in French Renaissance Literature is an in depth analysis of normative masculinity in a specific corpus from pre modern Europe narrative literature devoted to the subject of adultery and cuckoldry The text begins with a set of general questions that serve as a conceptual framework for the literary analyses that follow why were early modern readers so fascinated by the figure of the cuckold What was his relation to the real world of sexual behavior and gender relations What effect did he have on the construction of actual masculinities To respond to these questions David LaGuardia develops a theoretical approach that is based both on modern critical theory and on close readings of records and documents from the period Reading early modern legal texts penance manuals criminal registers and exempla collections in relation to the Cent nouvelles nouvelles Rabelais s Tiers Livre and Brant me s Dames galantes LaGuardia formulates a definition of masculinity in this historical context as a set of intertextual practices that men used to relay and to reinforce their gender identities By examining legal and literary artifacts from this particular period and culture this study highlights the extent to which this supposedly normative masculinity was historically contingent and materially conditioned by generic practices

The Deceived Husband Alison Sinclair,1993 The Deceived Husband is an ambitious and original study of the representation in European literature of adultery focusing in particular on the figure of the husband Drawing on psychoanalysis and primarily the work of Melanie Klein Dr Sinclair argues that the differing representations of the deceived husband evidence anxieties within patriarchal society about gender and power and ultimately about death and the unknown Detailed discussions of a wide range of texts including The Canterbury Tales The Decameron Othello Madame Bovary Effi Briest Anna Karenina La Regenta and Flaubert s Parrot reveal that fundamental anxieties about masculinity are repeatedly articulated in two main characterizations of the deceived husband the cuckold and the man of honour These are representations which can be usefully understood the book shows with reference to the two early developmental positions forwarded by Klein the paranoid schizoid and the depressive positions Innovative and challenging The Deceived Husband is an important examination of a previously neglected aspect of European literature and a significant addition to psychoanalytic literary criticism in general
