Women Have Not Lost Yet:

Through Russia Maksim Gorky, 2016-01-06 THE BIRTH OF A MAN The year was the year 92 the year of leanness the scene a spot between Sukhum and Otchenchiri on the river Kodor a spot so near to the sea that amid the joyous babble of a sparkling rivulet the ocean's deep voiced thunder was plainly distinguishable Also the season being autumn leaves of wild laurel were glistening and gyrating on the white foam of the Kodor like a quantity of mercurial salmon fry And as I sat on some rocks overlooking the river there occurred to me the thought that as likely as not the cause of the gulls and cormorants fretful cries where the surf lay moaning behind a belt of trees to the right was that like myself they kept mistaking the leaves for fish and as often finding themselves disappointed Over my head hung chestnut trees decked with gold at my feet lay a mass of chestnut leaves which resembled the amputated palms of human hands on the opposite bank where there waved tanglewise the stripped branches of a hornbeam an orange tinted woodpecker was darting to and fro as though caught in the mesh of foliage and in company with a troupe of nimble titmice and blue tree creepers visitors from the far distant North tapping the bark of the stem with a black beak and hunting for insects To the left the tops of the mountains hung fringed with dense fleecy clouds of the kind which presages rain and these clouds were sending their shadows gliding over slopes green and overgrown with boxwood and that peculiar species of hollow beech stump which once came near to effecting the downfall of Pompey's host through depriving his iron built legions of the use of their legs as they revelled in the intoxicating sweetness of the mead or honey which wild bees make from the blossoms of the laurel and the azalea and travellers still gather from those hollow stems to knead into lavashi or thin cakes of millet flour
