Women Nobel Peace Prize Winners:

Women Nobel Peace Prize Winners, 2d ed. Anita Price Davis, Marla J. Selvidge, 2015-12-01 From the first woman Nobel Peace Prize recipient Bertha von Suttner 1905 to the latest and youngest female Nobel laureate Malala Yousafzai 2014 this book in its second edition provides a detailed look at the lives and accomplishments of each of these sixteen Prize winners They did not expect recognition or fame for their work economist Emily Greene Balch 1946 was surprised to learn that anyone knew about her But they did not work in isolation all met with discouragement derision threats or in Yousafzai's case attempted murder and exile A history of the Prize and a biographical sketch of Alfred Nobel are included Women of Peace Anne E. Schraff, 1994 Provides information on the lives and achievements of the nine women who have won the Nobel Peace Prize from Baroness Bertha von Suttner and Jane Addams to Daw Aung San Suu Kyi and Rigoberta Menchu Champions for Peace Judith Hicks Stiehm, 2006 Since it was first awarded in 1901 only twelve women have won the Nobel Prize for Peace They hail from all over the world including the United States Europe Asia the Middle East Africa and Central America Engaged and inspiring these women clearly demonstrate that there is something each of us can do to advance a just positive peace Whether they began by insisting on garbage collection or simply by planting a tree each understood that peace must be global in order to be sustained All learned that peace is not always popular but believed they must persevere All are truly champions for peace Nobel's Women of Peace Michelle Benjamin, Maggie Mooney, 2008-01-01 Each year since 1901 the Nobel Peace Prize has been awarded to a person who has made a difference in the world Twelve women have been given this award and each has her own fascinating story Each had to struggle to be heard because she was a woman and each one shares an incredible determination commitment and hope for the future The most recent winner Wangari Maathai of Kenya has helped African women plant more than 30 million trees How does planting trees promote peace By improving the lives of communities Aung San Suu Kyi of Burma has also fought to improve lives by trying to bring democracy to her country Mairead Corrigan Maguire and Betty Williams worked to end violence in Northern Ireland Jody Williams campaigns to ban landmines and Mother Theresa was an example of compassion to millions The courage of the women here will inspire

Battling Injustice Supriya Vani, 2017-08-25 Supriya Vani's book will educate people about gender equality and inspire women to rise up to their potential It will inspire parents not to clip the wings of their daughters All our girls are meant for stars and they need equality and freedom to flourish Nobel Peace laureate Malala Yousafzai and her father Ziauddin Yousafzai Malala Yousafzai Tawakkol Karman Ellen Johnson Sirleaf Leymah Gbowee Shirin Ebadi these women and others like them shaped the history of their peoples through their fight against political persecution social deprivation and gender discrimination The Nobel Peace Prize memorializes their achievements and courage and ability to inspire hope in others Through the life portraits of sixteen women Nobel Peace laureates peace activist and journalist Supriya Vani argues that the fate of the world is inextricably tied to the emancipation of women and that the cause of world peace urgently requires women leaders These stories the result of six years of painstaking research and many interviews show how we have much to learn from the laureates from the events that shaped their work to their inner journey of spirit Women in the workplace at home as mothers and nurturers as leaders will all find something to take away from this collection Battling Injustice is an authentic record of women s cultural history told through the lives of some of the most remarkable women since modernity The lives of the women Nobel Peace laureates detailed in this book by Supriya Vani are clear evidence of my belief that women are naturally more sensitive to others needs and well being They have greater potential for expressing love and affection Therefore when as now compassionate leadership is required women should take on a greater role in making this world a better place His Holiness the Dalai Lama Supriya Vani s stories of Nobel Peace laureates amount to much more than a sincere tribute to some of the world s most fearless women By bringing us their voices their vulnerabilities their wisdom she inspires us all to make a difference in the world by tapping into our better selves Arianna Huffington co founder of The Huffington Post A monumental effort by a vivacious young woman on the human potential for goodness Sharon Stone American actress and human rights activist Since 1999 Nobel Peace Prize laureates have been gathering to reaffirm their commitment to peaceful means of resolving the world s problems I admire the contribution of women laureates their energy and warmth As shown in this book by Supriya Vani they give their hearts to our common efforts and to the younger generations that will continue their great work Mikhail Gorbachev former president of the Soviet Union Supriya Vani s book is for everyone across the globe I am sure it will spur many souls to tread the path of humanitarian service to choose a life of peace and love Nobel Peace laureate Tawakkol Karman This book will inspire and motivate young people to work for peace Cherie Blair British barrister and spouse of former British prime minister Tony Blair I recommend this book to the youth It can inspire them to reach their goals Nobel Peace laureate Shirin Ebadi Supriya Vani rightly highlights the fact that the world needs more women leaders who are spiritually mentally and emotionally equipped to bring peace to our planet Nobel Peace laureate Rigoberta Menchu Tum I hope those who read this book will feel inspired to work for disarmament and peace Nobel Peace laureate Mairead Maguire In February of 2017 at the XVI World Summit of Nobel Peace laureates held in Bogota I had the happy opportunity to meet with six of my fellow female laureates They represent the values of courage determination generosity and solidarity shared by millions of women around the planet who strive each day to make a better freer and more peaceful world That is why I welcome and cherish this book by Supriya Vani the stories of all the sixteen women Nobel Peace laureates must be known They are a source of inspiration for our youth and every one of us Juan Manuel Santos Calderon president of Colombia and a Nobel peace laureate

Equality of Women and Men

Reynaldo Pareja, 2017-06-19 We are witnessing today women being elected as presidents or prime ministers women that have been awarded Nobel prizes that perform exceedingly in sports winning Olympic medals women that excel in art that have defended the rights of the oppressed that have gone to space that are active in politics and are CEOs of businesses and corporations Women today are found in the most difficult jobs such as urgency paramedics workers in heavy machinery factories and in the construction of skyscrapers they are in research laboratories or as members of toxic materials management teams This was not the scenario 175 years ago On the contrary women since the cave times until the dawn of the twentieth century have been oppressed by the fact they were born as women Social cultural economic and political roles defined by men in those times obliged women to stay at home raising children without being allowed to aspire to play a significant role in the construction of human history The explosion of women participating today in the social political and economic arenas of the advanced countries might give the impression that this was their situation in the past Not true This modern movement of women engaged in a tenacious struggle for equality with men has given them unquestionable victories and a powerful consciousness of their role in the development of the history of humanity Their victories were not given to them by men On the contrary it has been a slow process that has demanded extraordinary effort from women all over the world We are just beginning to be witnesses of the potential that women have and can foresee the brilliant future they are going to create for humanity Appreciating defending and promoting this evolution is the invitation to participate in such a noble journey Africa's Peacemakers Adekaye Adebajo,2014-02-13 As Africa and its diaspora commemorate fifty years of post independence Pan Africanism this unique volume provides profound insight into the thirteen prominent individuals of African descent who have won the Nobel Peace Prize since 1950 From the first American president of African descent Barack Obama whose career was inspired by the civil rights and anti apartheid struggles promoted by fellow Nobel Peace laureates Martin Luther King Jr Nelson Mandela Desmond Tutu and Albert Luthuli to influential figures in peacemaking such as Ralph Bunche Anwar Sadat Kofi Annan and F W De Klerk as well as Ellen Johnson Sirleaf Leymah Gbowee Wangari Maathai and Mohamed El Baradei who have been variously involved in women s rights environmental protection and nuclear disarmament Africa s Peacemakers reveals how this remarkable collection of individuals have changed the world for better or worse

Women in Developing Countries Karen L. Kinnear,2011-07-22 This book provides a much needed survey of the discrimination and violence against women in developing countries and identifies the literature and resources available about this topic Because of improvements in communication technologies the West has become increasingly aware of horrific examples of ongoing discrimination and violence against individual women in developing countries As a result more attention is being paid to the gender bias and hardship that women in developing countries face in their everyday lives and the importance of these women in economic development and the alleviation of poverty is starting to be recognized Women in Developing Countries A Reference Handbook addresses topics like the status of women in developing countries their access to education health care and the political process their legal status the extent to which they are considered property female genital mutilation and other harmful practices and other timely issues This book also provides statistical information data on selected nongovernmental organizations NGOs and other organizations set up to improve the lives and advance the status of women and sources of further information in print and nonprint media Women's Lives Claire A. Etaugh, Judith S. Bridges, 2015-07-14 Women's Lives: A Psychological Exploration 3rd Edition draws on a wealth of the literature to present a rich range of experiences and issues of relevance to girls and women. This text offers the unique combination of a chronological approach to gender that is embedded within topical chapters. Cutting edge and comprehensive, each chapter integrates current material on women differing in age, ethnicity, social class, nationality, sexual orientation, and ability. The third edition reflects substantial changes in the field while maintaining its empirical focus through engaging writing, student activities, and critical thinking exercises. With over 2,100 new references emphasizing the latest research and theories, the authors continue to pique interests in psychology of women.
