Women United Women Divided Cross Cultural Perspectives On Female Solidarity Tavistock Womens Studies:

Women United, Women Divided Patricia Caplan, Janet M. Bujra, 1978 Readings in Gender in Africa Andrea Cornwall, 2005 This is a comprehensive overview on the existing literature on gender in Africa It covers areas such as Western perceptions colonial morality religion and politics Women in the Third World Lynne Brydon, 1989 Women in the Third World provides an up to date general account and review of research on the roles and status of women in contemporary Third World societies The book focuses on four major themes of underdevelopment which have particular relevance for gender roles and relations the household production reproduction and policy These issues are illustrated with material from rural and urban areas in all parts of the Third World The book summarizes significant ideas and findings Lynne Brydon and Sylvia Chang have avoided a narrow focus on particular regions and countries to provide a synoptic overview In addition to being a valuable source of reference for scholars interested in gender and development in the Third World the book also attempts to pinpoint fundamental aspects of gender inequality which apply to women everywhere The overriding conclusion of the book is that women s experiences of development are generally negative and that intervention is urgently required to prevent their positions relative to men s deteriorating still further ENTERPRISING WOMEN Parminde Bhachu, Dr Sallie Westwood, 2004-01-14 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Sex and Gender Hierarchies Barbara D. Miller, 1993-02-18 This edited collection attempts to revive a unified anthropological approach to the study of sex and gender hierarchies Seventeen distinguished contributors from cultural anthropology physical anthropology archaeology and anthropological linguistics have produced a wealth of fascinating data on human and primate ancient and contemporary and primitive and developed societies covering topics such as mothering and child care work health intrafamily relationships and public power The interdisciplinary approach successfully contributes to the development of better theory and methodology in anthropology Chinese Women Organizing Ping-Chun Hsiung, Maria Jaschok, Cecilia Milwertz, 2020-05-26 In the process of helping women to help themselves female activists have assumed a decisive role in negotiating social and political transformations in Chinese society This is the first book that describes and analyzes the new phase of women s organizing in China which started in the 1980s and remains a vital force to the present day The political and social changes taking place in contemporary Chinese society have surprisingly received scant attention This volume enriches our understanding of the working of grassroots democracy in China by exploring women s popular organizing activities and their interaction with party state institutions By subjecting these activities to both empirical enquiry and theoretical scrutiny a rigorous analysis of the exchange dialogue negotiation and transformation among and within three groups of political actors popular women s groups religious groups and the All China Women s Federation is concisely presented to the reader This book will be of tremendous interest to students of Chinese Studies Political Science and Gender Studies alike Women Among Women Jeanette Dickerson-Putman, Judith K. Brown, 1998

Cross cultural in nature the volume looks at relationships between women of different age groups in a village in Taiwan a town in central Sudan a rural setting in western Kenya an Andean peasant community a horticultural village in Melanesia and an Aboriginal community in Australia Adding an interspecies perspective is a study of two age groups of Japanese macaque monkeys Included is an ethnographic bibliography that lists books with a wealth of information on women in sixty societies

The Gender of the Gift Marilyn Strathern,1988-09-15 In the most original and ambitious synthesis yet undertaken in Melanesian scholarship Marilyn Strathern argues that gender relations have been a particular casualty of unexamined assumptions held by Western anthropologists and feminist scholars alike The book treats with equal seriousness and with equal good humor the insights of Western social science feminist politics and ethnographic reporting in order to rethink the representation of Melanesian social and cultural life This makes The Gender of the Gift one of the most sustained critiques of cross cultural comparison that anthropology has seen and one of its most spirited vindications

Women's Studies Candis Craven,1985

Women and Empowerment Haleh Afshar,2016-07-27 The authors in this volume address the questions What is empowerment Is it power over resources Is it the ability to create effective demand Is it about the ability to make choices Is it about access to resources and how they are controlled politically economically by NGOs by political parties by the state Do political parties facilitate or do they channel energies away from empowerment They evaluate how in different circumstances different political agents have been seen as provider of resources
