Approaching Silence Mark W. Dennis, Darren J. N. Middleton, 2015-02-26 Shusaku Endo is celebrated as one of Japan s great modern novelists often described as Japan s Graham Greene and Silence is considered by many Japanese and Western literary critics to be his masterpiece Approaching Silence is both a celebration of this award winning novel as well as a significant contribution to the growing body of work on literature and religion It features eminent scholars writing from Christian Buddhist literary and historical perspectives taking up for example the uneasy alliance between faith and doubt the complexities of discipleship and martyrdom the face of Christ and the bodhisattva ideal as well as the nature of suffering It also frames Silence through a wider lens comparing it to Endo s other works as well as to the fiction of other authors Approaching Silence promises to deepen academic appreciation for Endo within and beyond the West Includes an Afterword by Martin Scorsese on adapting Silence for the screen as well as the full text of Steven Dietz s play adaptation of Endo s novel Seopyeonje Ch'öng-jun Yi, 2011 A disturbing and haunting novel set in Korea s southern provinces among the p ansori singers where blindness is seen to be an aid to creating pure art free of sensory distraction A Song Man causes his daughter s blindness in order to keep her from following her half brother who has run away Wandering through Guilt Paola Di Gennaro, 2015-06-18 The first comprehensive study on the pattern of guilt and wandering in literature this book examines the relationship between the two complex concepts as they appear in twentieth century novels positing its methodological premises on archetypal criticism and both close and distant reading but also drawing on psychology anthropology mythology and religion This research deciphers a common paradigm and literary representation whose archetype within Western literature is found in the biblical figure of Cain while presenting a critical framework valid for boundary crossing comparative approaches From Graham Greene s The Power and the Glory and Malcolm Lowry s Under the Volcano to Wolfgang Koeppen s Death in Rome and Oka Sh hei s Fires on the Plain this book is not merely a thematic study

but an analysis of the literary phenomena that appear in those novels where the sense of guilt is controversially subjective or so collective as to be perceived as universal as is often the case with war and postwar literature Di Gennaro goes beyond the analysis of explicit rewritings of the story of Cain in order to uncover the monomyth through its rhetorical structures and mythical methods The wasteland with no religion the lost abandoned garden the classical and religiously corrupted city and the tropical cannibalistic island at war are the respective settings of these narratives where the issue is neither homelessness nor journeying but rather the desperate and futile movement toward self consciousness or self destruction After the Second World War much was silenced rather than left unsaid This study retraces those silent cries over history through the powerful literary marks of myths Translation Review ,1998
