Diary of a psychopath Stefano Vignaroli, 2023-09-01 Deputy commissioner Caterina Ruggeri is a forty career policewoman from the Marche region in charge of the homicide section of the Ancona Police Headquarters Together with Commissioner Sergio Adinolfi of Senigallia an experienced criminal profiler she chases a psychopathic serial killer by interpreting strange traces scattered at the scenes of his crimes A challenge in the dark for Dr Ruggeri who will have to investigate very close to her family circle We have reached the third adventure of Commissioner Caterina Ruggeri the now well known policewoman from the Marche region beloved by her loyal readership At her side is a new colleague Commissioner Sergio Adinolfi of Senigallia an expert criminal profiler with whom she must chase a psychopathic serial killer At one point Caterina almost succumbs to her colleague's charms but the progress of the story cannot leave room for love affairs A challenge in the dark for Commissioner Caterina Ruggeri who will find herself involved in the most introspective of her adventures Indeed she will discover that the murderer is closer to her than anyone dares to imagine perhaps a member of her own family She will have to dig into her past and her unconscious to get to the solution but just when it seems to be within reach here come new twists and turns to turn the tables It seems that the psychopath enjoys creating embarrassing situations on purpose for our policewoman who pressed by the quaestor magistrate and journalists must quickly come to a plausible conclusion Will she succeed Let's leave that to the reader who will happily rediscover characters already known from the Commissioner's past adventures and intriguing new characters who emerge in this new episode Above all however the reading will open windows to reflect on some burning issues particularly the dramas that more or less veiledly can be consumed even within ordinary families And we are not just talking about violence or sexual abuse but about all those conflicts and tensions that occur within the family which children and adolescents often witness and which mark their lives forever even if adults completely miss these dynamics A warning in short to parents to try to make their children live as peaceful a childhood as possible which will propel them into a calibrated and responsible adulthood As usual there is no shortage of references to local history and traditions giving in certain sections a light and pleasant edge to the reading creating a break from the description of grisly crimes In this new investigation we find a Catherine still impulsive yes but perhaps a bit more reflective more mature After all advancing age and family responsibilities create changes in behavior and character in each of us and she certainly is not immune to that either What matters is her intelligence and intuition which with the help of her collaborators and her usual dog Fury constantly lead her to successfully solve her investigations
