Understanding Art Markets Iain Robertson,2016 The global art market has recently been valued at close to 50bn a rise of over 60% since the global financial crisis These figures are driven by demand from China and other emerging markets as well as the growing phenomenon of the artist bypassing dealers as a market force in his her own right This new textbook integrates updates and enhances the popular aspects of two well regarded texts Understanding International Arts Markets and The Art Business Topics covered include Emerging markets in China East Asian South East Asian Brazilian Russian Islamic and Indian art Art valuation and investment Museums and the cultural sector This revitalized new textbook will continue to be essential reading for students on courses such as arts management arts marketing arts business cultural economics the sociology of arts and cultural policy

Topics on Art and Money Adriá Harillo Pla,2021-07-06 The title of this book is intended to be an honest one far from exaggerated phrases and empty meanings Three words a preposition and a coordinating conjunction Topics on Art and Money A coordinating conjunction not a subordinating one since this book does not intend to express a hierarchical order As all words united by a coordinating conjunction this book intends to connect them As simple as that This book presents through the chapters written by its authors some of the ways in which Art and Money are linked In order to observe this relationship this book consists of authors whose analysis refers to political propaganda historical events with artistic repercussions or strictly economic analysis of the art market for example And connects or divides This book not only presents a connection between Art and Money but between academics from different fields and geographical areas This humble book presents precisely how individuals from different specialties think of this relationship It will appeal to academics dedicated to Arts Economics and Cultural Management professionals from the art market world with an interest in works of an academic nature and general readers with an interest in this topic and a strong knowledge of Arts Economics

Global Art Markets Iain Robertson,Derrick Chong,Luís U. Afonso,2024-11-29 The art market is worth billions globally despite the effects of the Covid 19 health pandemic This book brings together a strong cast of contributors to explore contemporary and historical themes Readers of the book will gain awareness of how historical foundations of arts markets continue to impact on contemporary global developments while transformational digital technology shakes up the art world With new insights into emerging arts markets the book also covers themes and phenomena such as NFTs secrecy platforms and financialization in the arts The result is a book that will prove valuable reading for scholars involved in art markets studies

Art Production Beyond the Art Market? Karen van den Berg,Ursula Pasero,2013 Much evidence suggests that a fundamental reordering of artistic production and a transformation of the art field are about to take place Heated debates have been sparked over new forms of work public subsidies and the expanding impact of the creative industries Independent education programs self organized urban planning artistic practices in the outer field of scientific research and similar initiatives have unfolded over the last few years This publication addresses this wide field focusing on theoretical reflections and exemplary insights into alternative artistic working models The anthology assembles expert studies and artist interviews in order to reflect on new forms of practices that have been established beyond the exhibition gallery nexus and hegemonic market activity These strategies in particular are investigated concerning their self images organizational structures networks and economies and the potential for usurpation A New

Art from Emerging Markets Iain Alexander Robertson,2011 Robertson examines three types of emerging market for contemporary art the recently established the maturing and the mature The book is also concerned with looking at how value in non Western contemporary art is constructed by external political events and economic factors rather than aesthetic considerations The Market Natasha Degen,2013 Drawing on a wide range of interdisciplinary sources in dialogue with artists writings this anthology traces the historic origins of these debates in different versions of modernism and surveys the relationship between art value and price the evolution and influence of patronage the actors and institutions of the art market and the diversity of artistic practices that either criticise or embrace the condition of the contemporary market

The Art Business Iain Alexander Robertson,Derrick Chong,2008 Drawing on the experience of Sotheby s Institute of Art this text exposes the realities of the commercial trade in fine art from its structure to legal issues and wider cultural policy and including interviews with leading experts in the field Academy of Management Annual Meeting Academy of
