USN Cruiser vs IJN Cruiser Mark Stille, 2012-01-20 Although the war in the Pacific is usually considered a carrier war it was the cruisers that dominated the early fighting This thrilling duel presents the cruiser clashes during the battles for Guadalcanal highlighting the Battle of Savo Island and the Battle of Cape Esperance The first was a Japanese victory that resulted in the loss of four Allied cruisers However in the latter the Americans managed to turn the tables despite the battle being fought throughout the night This book presents a view of the design and development of the opposing weapons systems illustrated with newly commissioned digital artwork It uses firsthand accounts to bring the battles to life and explain why the Americans suffered early on but eventually had their revenge

The naval battles for Guadalcanal 1942 Mark Stille, 2013-05-20 The battle for Guadalcanal that lasted from August 1942 to February 1943 was the first major American counteroffensive against the Japanese in the Pacific The battle of Savo Island on the night of 9 August 1942 saw the Japanese inflict a severe defeat on the Allied force driving them away from Guadalcanal and leaving the just landed marines in a perilously exposed position This was the start of a series of night battles that culminated in the First and Second battles of Guadalcanal fought on the nights of 13 and 15 November One further major naval action followed the battle of Tassafaronga on 30 November 1942 when the US Navy once again suffered a severe defeat but this time it was too late to alter the course of the battle as the Japanese evacuated Guadalcanal in early February 1943 This title will detail the contrasting fortunes experienced by both sides over the intense course of naval battles around the island throughout the second half of 1942 that did so much to turn the tide in the Pacific

USN Battleship vs IJN Battleship Mark Stille, 2017-11-30 In the build up to World War II both the United States and Japan believed their battleships would play a central role in battle but after the Pacific War began in December 1941 the role of the battleship proved to be much more limited than either side expected There would be only two battleship vs battleship actions in the Pacific in World War II both of which are assessed in this engaging study At Guadalcanal in 1942 Kirishima faced two modern US battleships USS Washington and USS South Dakota In the Surigao Strait in 1944 two World War I era Japanese battleships Yamashiro and Fuso faced six American battleships supported by four heavy cruisers in history's last ever clash between battleships Employing full colour artwork carefully selected archive photographs and expert analysis former US Navy Commander Mark

E Stille examines the two head to head clashes between the battleships deployed by the United States and Japan in the struggle for control of the Pacific during World War II US Navy Light Cruisers 1941-45 Mark Stille, 2016-07-28 During World War II the United States built 72 light cruisers of various classes In response to the severe air threat that surface ships faced new cruisers were designed with increasingly heavy antiaircraft weaponry as well as the traditional 6in guns With the speed and range to keep up with aircraft carriers and their considerable antiaircraft capability they were a mainstay of the carrier escorts This book examines every US light cruiser produced including those of the Fargo and Worcester classes which were actually complete after World War II had ended tracing their design development and evolution throughout the war and beyond USN PT Boat vs IJN Destroyer Mark Stille, 2025-02-27 This fully illustrated book assesses the trial of strength between US Navy PT boats and Japanese destroyers operating in the Solomon Islands during 1942-43 During the Solomons fighting the IJN was forced to rely on destroyers to move men and materiel to its forward garrisons Conducted at night to avoid American air power these missions first seen during the struggle for Guadalcanal were dubbed the Tokyo Express Unable to derail the Tokyo Express by using its destroyers the USN deployed PT boats off Guadalcanal from October 1942 sinking one destroyer and damaging another As the fighting moved into the Central Solomons the USN attempted to disrupt the build up of Japanese forces on New Georgia Island and other Japanese strongholds by using cruisers and destroyers but this approach resulted in heavy losses PT boat operations were increasingly important after the Japanese turned to barges to move troops and supplies Full colour artwork and mapping and carefully chosen archive photographs complement vivid battle narratives and shrewd analysis in this lively account of the ships and men fighting on both sides in the crucial Solomon Islands campaign at the height of World War II Renowned authority Mark Stille explores the background to this epic clash of arms charts its course during 1942-43 and offers insights into the performance of both sides in this pivotal campaign of World War II in the Pacific Křižníky USA vs japonské křižníky Mark Stille, 2010 USN Carriers vs IJN Carriers Mark Stille, 2012-05-20 This book dramatically reveals the experiences of the airmen and guncrews of the rival vessels as they battled for victory in a duel of skill tenacity and guts The IJN was a pioneer in naval aviation having commissioned the world's first carrier which was used against the US fleet at Pearl Harbor The Americans followed suit initiating a huge aircraft carrier development program As the War in the Pacific escalated into the largest naval conflict in history the role of the carrier became the linchpin of American and Japanese naval strategy as these rival vessels found themselves locked in a struggle for dominance of this critical theater This book provides an analysis of the variety of weaponry available to the rival carriers in particular the embarked aircraft as well as the powerful ship borne guns Study the design and development of these revolutionary ships and live the experiences of the rival airmen and gun crews as they battled for victory in a duel of skill tenacity and guts USN Destroyer vs IJN Destroyer Mark Stille, 2012-11-20 This book covers the fierce night naval battles fought between the US Navy and the Imperial Japanese Navy during late 1943 as the Allies advanced slowly up the

Solomons Islands toward the major Japanese naval base at Rabaul During this period several vicious actions were fought featuring the most modern destroyers of both navies Throughout most of 1942 the Imperial Navy had held a marked edge and a key ingredient of these successes was their destroyer force which combined superior training and tactics with the most capable torpedo in the world Even into 1943 mixed Allied light cruiser destroyer forces were roughly handled by Japanese destroyers After these battles the Americans decided to stop chasing Japanese destroyers with cruisers so the remainder of the battles in 1943 with one exception were classic destroyer duels This book explores the Americans technical edge provided to them by radar and now added new more aggressive tactics The final result was the defeat of the Imperial Navy s finely trained destroyer force and the demonstration that the Japanese were unable to stop the Allies advance World

PowerShips The Brooklyn class light cruiser USS Boise CL 47 was one of the most famous US combat ships of World War II already internationally renowned following her participation in the naval battles in the Solomons in 1942 After repairs and modifications in 1943 the Boise was sent to the Mediterranean theater there to participate in the invasions of Sicily Taranto and Salerno and enhancing her fame by destroying enemy tanks during armored counterattacks in both Sicily and Salerno From the Mediterranean Boise was sent to the Southwest Pacific theater to join the US 7th Fleet for the campaign in New Guinea in 1943 44 and then the invasion of the Philippines She fought in the battle of Leyte Gulf notably in the night engagement in the Surigao Strait where battleships faced off against each other for the last time in maritime history Boise was credited with helping to sink a Japanese battleship She also fought off the suicide planes known as kamikazes at Leyte and later at Lingayen Gulf during the invasion of Luzon MacArthur used her as his flagship for the Luzon attack thereby adding to her already considerable fame then after helping retake Corregidor and other islands in the Philippines Boise carried the general on a triumphant tour of the islands This tour was interrupted for the invasion of Borneo but completed when the beach was secured After MacArthur left the ship in June 1945 she returned to the US for overhaul which was just complete as the war ended by which time she had been awarded 11 battle stars more than any other light cruiser in her class This full account of USS Boise s war not only gives us an insight into how one ship navigated a global conflict but also an insight into the experiences of the men who served on her and a new perspective on the naval campaigns of the war

USN Battleship vs IJN Battleship Mark Stille,2017-11-30 In the build up to World War II both the United States and Japan believed their battleships would play a central role in battle but after the Pacific War began in December 1941 the role of the battleship proved to be much more limited than either side expected There would be only two battleship vs

battleship actions in the Pacific in World War II both of which are assessed in this engaging study At Guadalcanal in 1942 Kirishima faced two modern US battleships USS Washington and USS South Dakota In the Surigao Strait in 1944 two World War I era Japanese battleships Yamashiro and Fuso faced six American battleships supported by four heavy cruisers in history's last ever clash between battleships Employing full colour artwork carefully selected archive photographs and expert analysis former US Navy Commander Mark E Stille examines the two head to head clashes between the battleships deployed by the United States and Japan in the struggle for control of the Pacific during World War II Santa Cruz 1942 Mark Stille, 2012-09-20 A highly illustrated account of the fourth major carrier battle of the war in the Pacific Despite myth the Japanese carrier force was not destroyed at Midway but survived to still prove a threat in the Pacific Theater Nowhere was this clearer than in the battle of Santa Cruz of October 1942 The stalemate on the ground in the Guadalcanal campaign led to the major naval forces of both belligerents becoming inexorably more and more involved in the fighting each seeking to win the major victory that would open the way for a breakthrough on land as well The Japanese were able to gain a tactical victory at Santa Cruz and came very close to scoring a strategic victory but they paid a very high price in aircraft and aircrew that prevented them from following up their victory In terms of their invaluable aircrew the battle was much more costly than even Midway and had a serious impact on the ability of the Japanese to carry out carrier warfare in a meaningful manner Illustrated richly throughout this volume examines the encounter at Santa Cruz and its significance World War II Sea War, Vol 7: The Allies Strike Back Donald A Bertke, Gordon Smith, Don Kindell, 2014-12-15 From September through November 1942 the Allies defeated the Axis forces on all active fronts On land the British defeated Rommel in Operation SUPERCHARGE the US Marines defeated the Japanese on Guadalcanal and the Russians trapped the German Sixth Army at Stalingrad and disrupted the entire Axis southern front in Russia At sea the Royal Navy landed desperately needed supplies on Malta in Operations PEDESTAL and STONEAGE the USN defended the US Marines on Guadalcanal from a Japanese attack in the Battle of Cape Esperance the Allies landed troops at Morocco and Algeria in Operation TORCH USN cruisers sank a Japanese battleship in the 1st Battle of Savo Island the 2nd Battle of Savo Island was the only battleship to battleship engagement of the war in the Pacific the Battle of the North Atlantic increased in intensity and the Germans tried to capture the French Fleet at Toulon France in Operation ANTON only to arrive as the ships sank beneath the sea The Naval Battle of Guadalcanal James W. Grace, 1999 One of the most ferocious naval battles of World War II the night action off the coast of Guadalcanal on 13 November 1942 between US cruisers and Japanese battleships fighting at point blank range claimed the lives of two American admirals Though famous for tipping the scales in favor of the US Navy in this critical area of the Pacific this action has never before received the treatment provided in this book Here James Grace describes events from deck level and from both sides He draws on a wealth of previously untapped primary sources including the vivid personal recollections of some two hundred Japanese and American survivors of the fight These eyewitness accounts lend immediacy to a work that will appeal to the general reader as well as to serious World War II buffs and historians
