Waiting For The Barbarians A Novel:

Waiting for the Barbarians J. M. Coetzee, 2010-06-29 A modern classic by Nobel Laureate J M Coetzee now a major motion picture starring Robert Pattinson and Johnny Depp For decades the Magistrate has run the affairs of a tiny frontier settlement ignoring the impending war between the barbarians and the Empire whose servant he is When interrogation experts arrive however he finds himself jolted into sympathy with their victims until their barbarous treatment of prisoners of war finally pushes him into a quixotic act of rebellion and thus into imprisonment as an enemy of the state Waiting for the Barbarians J M Coetzee's third novel which won the James Tate Black Memorial Prize is an allegory of the war between oppressor and oppressed The Magistrate is not simply a man living through a crisis of conscience in an obscure place in remote times his situation is that of all men living in unbearable complicity with regimes that elevate their own survival above justice and decency

The Novel After Theory Judith Ryan, 2014-01-01 Novels began to incorporate literary theory in unexpected ways in the late twentieth century Through allusion parody or implicit critique theory formed an additional strand in fiction that raised questions about the nature of authorship and the practice of writing Studying this phenomenon provides fresh insight into the recent development of the novel and the persistence of modern theory beyond the period of its greatest success In this book Judith Ryan opens these questions to a range of readers drawing them into debates over the value of theory Ryan investigates what prompted fiction writers to incorporate and respond to theory nearly thirty years ago Designed for readers unfamiliar with the complexities of theory Ryan's book introduces the discipline's major trends and controversies and notes the salient ideas of a carefully selected set of individual thinkers Ryan follows novelists' adaptation to and engagement with arguments drawn from theory as they translate abstract ideas into language structure and fictional strategy At the core of her book is a fascinating microstudy of French poststructuralism in its dialogue with narrative fiction Investigating theories of textuality psychology and society in the work of Don DeLillo Thomas Pynchon J M Coetzee Margaret Atwood W G Sebald and Umberto Eco as well as Monika Maron Alain Robbe-Grillet Marguerite Duras Marilynne Robinson David Foster Wallace and Christa Wolf Ryan identifies subtle negotiations between author and theory and the richness this dynamic adds to texts Resetting the way we think and learn about literature her book reads current literary theory while uniquely tracing its shaping of a genre

J. M. Coetzee Dominic Head, 1997 The importance of J M Coetzee in the development of twentieth century fiction is widely recognised His work addresses some of the key issues of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries the relationship between postmodernism and postcolonialism the role of history in the novel and the question of how the author can combine an ethical and political consciousness with a commitment to the novel as a work of fiction In this study written in 1998 Dominic Head assesses Coetzee's position as a white South African writer engaged with the legacy of colonialism Through close readings of all the novels Head shows how Coetzee inhabits a transitional site between Europe and Africa and it is from this position that his more general concerns emerge Coetzee's engagement with the problems facing the postcolonial writer Head argues is always enriched by his awareness of a wider literary tradition
