Parrish, 1994-04-17 Impressively detailed An authoritative and epic overview Publishers Weekly In the convulsive years between 1920 and 1941 Americans were first dazzled by unprecedented economic prosperity and then beset by the worst depression in their history It was the era of Model T s rising incomes scientific management electricity talking movies and advertising techniques that sold a seemingly endless stream of goods But it was also a time of grave social conflict and human suffering The Crash forced Hoover and then Roosevelt and the nation to reexamine old solutions and address pressing questions of recovery and reform economic growth and social justice The world beyond America changed also in these years making the country rethink its relation to events in Europe Latin America and Asia The illusion of superiority slowly died in the 1930s sustaining a fatal blow in December 1941 at Pearl Harbor American Photography and the American Dream James Guimond,1991 Looks at how documentary photographers have contested the idea of the American dream and discusses the work of Francis Benjamin Johnston Lewis Hine Walker Evans Dorothea Lange William Klein Diane Arbus and Robert Frank Los Angeles Magazine,2001-05 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian Documenting America, 1935-1943 Lawrence W.
