Writers of the American Renaissance Denise Knight,2003-12-30 The American literary canon has undergone revision and expansion in recent years and our notions of the 19th century renaissance have been reevaluated Mainstream anthologies have been revised to reflect the expanding literary canon yet resources for readers have remained widely scattered This book expands earlier definitions of the 19th century American Renaissance as represented by canonical writers such as Emerson and Poe covering writers who published popular fiction and dominated the literary marketplace of the day Included is generous coverage of women writers and writers of color The volume provides alphabetically arranged entries for more than 70 writers of the period including Louisa May Alcott Emily Dickinson Frederick Douglass Margaret Fuller Nathaniel Hawthorne Herman Melville Harriet Beecher Stowe Henry David Thoreau Walt Whitman and many more Each entry was written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes a survey of the writer s critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies

Zen on the Trail Christopher Ives, 2018-09-11 Discover how hiking can be a kind of spiritual pilgrimage calming our minds enhancing our sense of wonder and deepening our connection to nature Evoking the writings of Gary Snyder Bill Bryson and Cheryl Strayed Zen on the Trail explores the broad question of how to be outside in a meditative way By directing our attention to how we hike as opposed to where we re headed Ives invites us to shift from ego driven doing to spirit filled being and to explore the vast interconnection of ourselves and the natural world Through this approach we can wake up in the woods on nature s own terms In erudite and elegant prose Ives takes us on a journey we will not soon forget This book features a new prose poem by Gary Snyder

The Same Ax, Twice Howard Mansfield, 2001-06 A wide ranging inquiry into the nature and possibility of restoration

At Home on the Earth David Landis Barnhill, 1999-08-05 The physical earth is clearly under unprecedented siege heated toxified scraped But almost as if they were antibodies the finest nature writers of any era have come forward to help in the fight This anthology collects many of the most important at their most eloquent May it ring and echo and do some good Bill McKibben author of The End of Nature This is a stunning collection of vivid writing about landscapes and the people who inhabit them The diverse narratives gathered here do more than describe hawks diving and twigs snapping although the book has its share of moving accounts of the natural world A concern to live responsibly in nature runs through this evocative anthology like a subterranean stream and that moral impulse together with the lively prose makes this the best collection of nature writing I ve seen Thomas A Tweed editor of Retelling U S Religious History

Landscapes with Figures Robert L. Root, 2007-04-01 For some a sense of place is about travel about plunging oneself into new settings For others it is about being and knowing home This book is a collection of essays memoirs nature writing and travel narratives that document the impact this sense of place has on writing In locations as familiar as Cape Cod or Mesa Verde and as exotic as Krak w or Kyrgyzstan thirteen accomplished writers of contemporary creative nonfiction share some of their most memorable work disclosing how place alters our perception and influences our insight Taking readers to deserts and forests islands and mountains Landscapes with Figures is an encounter not only with places but also with writers themselves Each contribution is accompanied by an author's commentary that discusses the relationship to place in his or her writing. The authors reveal the connections they feel to the places they write about, the role that place plays in the choices they make in relating their experiences, and the strategies and work habits that produce such writing. This compilation is at once a wide-ranging anthology of the nonfiction of place for the armchair traveler and a book about writing for those who aspire to understand and practice the craft, carrying with it the invitation to reflect on one's own special places.
