Together they explore Austen's connections with Edmund Burke Adam Smith Johann Wolfgang von Goethe Madame de Staël Joanna Baillie Jean Jacques Rousseau Mary Anne Schimmelpenninck and other writers engaged in debates on the sensuous experience and the intellectual judgment of art. Our contributors look at Austen's engagement with diverse art forms painting ballet drama poetry and music investigating our topic within historically grounded and theoretically nuanced essays. They represent Austen as a writer thinker reflecting on the nature and practice of artistic creation and considering the social moral psychological and theological functions of art in her fiction. We suggest that Austen knew modified and transformed the dominant aesthetic discourses of her era at times ironically to her own artistic ends. As a result a new and compelling image of Austen emerges a portrait of a lady artist confidently promoting her own distinctly post enlightenment aesthetic system Images of the Modern Vampire Barbara Brodman, James E.
