Two Months in the Camp of Big Bear (Esprios Classics) Theresa Gowanlock, 2021-05-25 It is not the desire of the author of this work to publish the incidents which drenched a peaceful and prosperous settlement in blood and subjected the survivors to untold suffering and privations at the hands of savages in order to gratify a morbid craving for notoriety During all my perils and wanderings amid the snow and ice of that trackless prairie the hope that nerved me to struggle on was that if rescued I might within the sacred precincts of the paternal hearth seek seclusion where loving hands would help me to bear the burden of my sorrow and try to make me forget at times if they could not completely efface from my memory the frightful scenes enacted around that prairie hamlet which bereft me of my loved one leaving my heart and fireside desolate for ever

Decolonizing the Lens of Power Kerstin Knopf, 2008 This is the first book that comprehensively examines Indigenous filmmaking in North America as it analyzes in detail a variety of representative films by Canadian and US American Indigenous filmmakers two films that contextualize the oral tradition three short films and four dramatic films The book explores how members of colonized groups use the medium of film as a means for cultural and political expression and thus enter the dominant colonial film discourse and create an answering discourse The theoretical framework is developed as an interdisciplinary approach combining postcolonialism Indigenous studies and film studies As Indigenous people are gradually taking control over the imagemaking process in the area of film and video they cease being studied and described objects and become subjects who create self controlled images of Indigenous cultures The book explores the translatability of Indigenous oral tradition into film touching upon the changes the cultural knowledge is subject to in this process including statements of Indigenous filmmakers on this issue It also asks whether or not there is a definite Indigenous film practice and whether filmmakers tend to dissociate their work from dominant classical filmmaking adapt to it or create new film forms and styles through converging classical film conventions and their conscious violation This approach presupposes that Indigenous filmmakers are constantly in some state of reaction to Western ethnographic filmmaking and to classical narrative filmmaking and its epitome the Hollywood narrative cinema The films analyzed are The Road Allowance People by Maria Campbell Itam Hakim Hopiit by Victor Masayesva Talker by Lloyd Martell Tenacity and Smoke Signals by Chris Eyre Overweight With Crooked Teeth and Honey Moccasin by Shelley Niro Big Bear by Gil Cardinal and Atanarjuat The Fast Runner by Zacharias Kunuk
