Haters Bailey Poland, 2016 Cybersexism is rampant and can exact an astonishingly high cost In some cases the final result is suicide Bullying stalking and trolling are just the beginning Extreme examples such as GamerGate get publicized but otherwise the online abuse of women is largely underreported Haters combines a history of online sexism with suggestions for solutions Using current events and the latest available research into cybersexism Bailey Poland questions the motivations behind cybersexist activities and explores methods to reduce footprints of Internet misogyny drawing parallels between online and offline abuse By exploring the cases of Alyssa Funke Rehtaeh Parsons Audrie Pott Zoe Quinn Anita Sarkeesian Brianna Wu and others and her personal experiences with sexism Poland develops a compelling method of combating sexism online

A voice from the signal-box: or, Railway accidents and their causes, by a signalman Voice, 1874 A Voice from the Signal-Box: or Railway Accidents and their causes. By a Signalman. [With introduction by E. Phillips.], 1874 A Voice from the Signal-box: Or, Railway Accidents and Their Causes Signalman, 1874 New Voices Tony Vellela, 1988 Based on extensive travel research and interviewing this book brings together under one cover all the different strands of student activism that make up today s multi issue student movement Producing Masculinity Michele White, 2019-02-08 Thoughtful witty and illuminating in this book Michele White explores the ways normative masculinity is associated with computers and the Internet and is a commonly enacted online gender practice Through close readings and a series of case studies that range from wedding forums to men s makeup video tutorials White considers the ways masculinities are structured through people s collaborations and contestations over the establishment of empowered positions including debates about such key terms and positions as the nice guy nerd bro and groom She asserts that cultural notions of masculinity are reliant on figurations of women and femininity and explores cultural conceptions of masculinity and the association of normative white heterosexual masculinity with men and women A counterpart to her earlier book Producing Women White has crafted an excellent primer for scholars of gender media and Internet studies The Farmer's Voice, 1912 Your Voice Is All I Hear Leah Scheier, 2015-09-01 I was the one he trusted I was the one he loved the only one who believed him even when his own mother had locked him up and thrown away the key And now I was going to pass down the white tiled hallway knock on his doctor's office door slam his secret notebook on her desk and make her read it make her understand what he was hiding make her see what only I had seen April won't let Jonah go without a fight He's her boyfriend her best friend She'll do anything to keep him safe But as Jonah slips into a dark depression trying to escape the traumatic past that haunts him April is torn To protect Jonah she risks losing everything family friends an opportunity to attend a prestigious music school How much must she sacrifice And will her voice be loud enough to drown out the dissenters and the ones in his head The Appropriated Voice Bette Lynn London, 1990 Uses feminist theory cultural criticism cultural ethnography and narrative theory in critiquing traditional and revisionist criticism National Criminal Justice Thesaurus, 1998 Contesting the Politics of Genocidal Rape Debra B. Bergoffen, 2013-03-01 Rape traditionally a spoil of war became a weapon of war in the ethnic cleansing campaign in Bosnia The ICTY Kunarac court responded by transforming wartime rape from an ignored crime into a crime against humanity In its judgment the court argued that the rapists violated the Muslim women's right to sexual self-determination Announcing this right to sexual integrity the court transformed women's vulnerability from an invitation to abuse into a mark of human dignity This close reading of the trial guided by the phenomenological themes of the lived body and ambiguity feminist critiques of the autonomous subject and the liberal sexual social contract critical legal theory assessments of human rights law and institutions and psychoanalytic analyses of the politics of desire argues that the court by validating women's epistemic authority their right to establish the meaning of their experience of rape and affirming the dignity of the vulnerable body thereby dethroning the autonomous body as the embodiment of dignity shows us that human rights instruments can be used to combat the epidemic of wartime rape if they are read as delegitimizing the authority of the masculine autonomous subject and the gender codes it anchors Theatre of the Book, 1480-1880 Julie Stone Peters, 2003 This volume explores the impact of printing on the European theatre in the period 1480-1880 and shows that the printing press played a major part in the birth of modern theatre Race, Gender and the Activism of Black Feminist Theory Surya Nayak, 2014-09-04 Beginning from the premise that psychology needs to be questioned dismantled and new perspectives brought to the table in order to produce alternative solutions this book takes an unusual transdisciplinary step into the activism of Black feminist theory The author Surya Nayak presents a close reading of Audre Lorde and other related scholars to demonstrate how the activism of Black feminist theory is concerned with issues central to radical critical thinking and practice such as identity alienation trauma loss the position and constitution of individuals within relationships the family community and society Nayak reveals how Black feminist theory seeks to address issues that are also a core concern of critical psychology including individualism essentialism and normalization Her work grapples with several issues at the heart of key contemporary debates concerning methodology identity difference race and gender Using a powerful line of argument the book weaves these themes together to show how the activism of Black feminist theory in general and the work of Audre Lorde in particular can be used to effect social change in response to the damaging psychological impact of oppressive social constructions Race Gender and the Activism of Black Feminist Theory will be of great interest to advanced students researchers political activist and practitioners in psychology counselling psychotherapy mental health social work and community development The Text and the Voice Alessandro Portelli,1994-01-05 The Text and the Voice Dream Machine Samir Dayal,2015-08-05 In Dream Machine Samir Dayal provides a history of Hindi cinema starting with films made after India's independence in 1947 Dayal suggests that Hindi cinema functions as both mirror and lamp reflecting and illuminating new and possible representations of national and personal identity beginning with early postcolonial films including Awaara and Mother India a classic of the Golden Age More recent films address critical social issues such as My Name is Khan and Fire which concern terrorism and sexuality respectively Dayal also chronicles changes in the industry audience reception and the influence of globalization considering such films as Slumdog Millionaire Angels in the Machinery Rebecca Edwards,1997-11-27 Angels in the Machinery offers a sweeping analysis of the centrality of gender to politics in the United States from the days of the Whigs to the early twentieth century Author Rebecca Edwards shows that women in the U S participated actively and influentially as Republicans Democrats and leaders of third party movements like Prohibitionism and Populism decades before they won the right to vote and in the process managed to transform forever the ideology of American party politics Using cartoons speeches party platforms news accounts and campaign memorabilia she offers a compelling explanation of why family values women's political activities and even candidates sex lives remain hot button issues in politics to this day A Vindication of the late Editor of Pope's Works, from some charges brought against him, by a writer in the Quarterly Review ... with further Observations on "the invariable principles of poetry" ... Dismantling Rape Culture Tracey Nicholls, 2020-11-15 This book analyses rape culture through the lens of the me too era Drawing feminist theory into conversation with peace studies and improvisation theory it advocates for peace building opportunities to transform culture and for the improvisatory resources of culture jamming as a mechanism to dismantle rape culture The book's key argument is that cultural attitudes and behaviours can be shifted through the introduction of disrupting narratives so each chapter ends with a culture jammed re telling of a traditional fairy tale Chapter 1 traces an overlap of feminist theory and peace studies arguing that rape culture is most fruitfully understood through the concept of structural violence Chapter 2 investigates the gender scripts that rape culture produces considering a female counterpart to the concept of toxic masculinity complicit femininity Chapter 3 offers analysis of non consensual sex and a history of consent education culminating in an argument that we need to move beyond consent to conceptualise a robust respectful mutuality Chapter 4's history of sexual harassment in the workplace and the rise of metoo argues that its global manifestations are a powerful peace building initiative Chapter 5 situates me too within a culture jamming history using improvisation theory to show how this movement's potential can shape cultural reconstruction This is a provocative and interventionist addition to feminist theory scholarship and is suitable for researchers and students in women's and gender studies feminist theory sociology and peace studies
