You Call This Art A Greg Irons Retrospective:

You Call This Art? Patrick Rosenkranz, 2008-08-27 If he were alive today he d be a superstar He was that good But Greg Irons died just as his star was rising He was only 37 years old when a speeding bus on a busy Bangkok street killed him in 1984 Irons was a psychedelic poster artist an underground cartoonist a book illustrator and an emerging tattoo virtuoso who brought a new sensibility to an age old art form This retrospective book spans his whole artistic career from his earliest dance posters to his ground breaking science fiction and horror comix to his innovative and colorful tattoo art Greg Irons was one of the elite among posters artists who worked for Bill Graham s Fillmore Ballroom in San Francisco during the Age of Aquarius designing posters for Chuck Berry Jefferson Airplane Big Brother and Paul Butterfield You Call This Art reprints his finest psychedelic posters in full color as well as complete comic stories from Slow Death Funnies Legion of Charlies Deviant Slice Yellow Dog Thrilling Murder and many other underground comic books It also includes rarely seen album cover art for Jerry Garcia Blue Cheer Jefferson Starship and other counterculture musicians Irons had a third career as an illustrator of children s coloring books and pages from books including One Old Oxford Ox Last of the Dinosaurs Pirates and Wyf of Bathe appear as well Many examples of his tattoo art are also included History of Illustration Susan Doyle, Jaleen Grove, Whitney Sherman, 2018-02-22 Written by an international team of illustration historians practitioners and educators History of Illustration covers image making and print history from around the world spanning from the prehistoric to the contemporary With hundreds of color image this book to contextualize the many types of illustrations within social cultural and technical parameters presenting information in a flowing chronology This essential guide is the first comprehensive history of illustration as its own discipline Readers will gain an ability to critically analyze images from technical cultural and ideological standpoints in order to arrive at an appreciation of art form of both past and present illustration West of Center Elissa Auther, Adam Lerner, 2011-11-02 In the heady and hallucinogenic days of the 1960s and 70s a diverse range of artists and creative individuals based in the American West from the Pacific coast to the Rocky Mountains and the Southwest broke the barriers between art and lifestyle and embraced the new hybrid sensibilities of the countercultural movement Often created through radically collaborative artistic practices such works as Paolo Soleri s earth homes the hand built architecture of the Drop City and Libre communes Yolanda Lopez s political posters the multisensory movement workshops of Anna and Lawrence Halprin and the immersive light shows and video based work by the Ant Farm and Optic Nerve collectives were intended to generate new life patterns that pointed toward social and political emancipation In West of Center Elissa Auther and Adam Lerner bring together a prominent group of scholars to elaborate the historical and artistic significance of these counterculture projects within the broader narrative of postwar American art which skews heavily toward New York s avant garde art scene This west of center countercultural movement has typically been associated with psychedelic art but the contributors to this book understand this as only one dimension of the larger artistically oriented socially based phenomenon At the same time they reveal the disciplinary geographic and theoretical biases and assumptions that have led to the dismissal of countercultural practices in the history of art and visual culture and they detail how this form of cultural and political activity found its place in the West A companion to an exhibition originating at the Museum of Contemporary Art Denver this book illuminates how in the western United States the counterculture s unique integration of art practices political action and collaborative life activities serves as a linchpin connecting postwar and contemporary artistic endeavors
