You Can Make A Difference In Silicon Valley:

You Can Make a Difference in Silicon Valley Tom Hayes, 1994 Silicon Valley: Planet Startup Peter Ester, Arne Maas, 2025-10-01 For decades now Silicon Valley has been the home of the future It s the birthplace of the world s most successful high tech companies including Apple Yahoo Google Facebook Twitter and many more So what s the secret What is it about Silicon Valley that fosters entrepreneurship and innovation With Silicon Valley Planet Startup Peter Ester and Arne Maas argue that the answer lies in Silicon Valley s culture a corporate culture that values risk taking creativity invention and sharing Through extensive interviews with Dutch entrepreneurs working in the area Ester and Maas show that Silicon Valley is above all a mind set a belief in thinking with passion and ambition far beyond the here and now Scholars and business people and budding entrepreneurs alike are sure to find both inspiration and illumination in the stories and analyses Ester and Maas have assembled here Cultures@SiliconValley J.A. English-Lueck, 2017-08-29 Since the initial publication of Cultures@SiliconValley fourteen years ago much has changed in Silicon Valley The corporate landscape of the Valley has shifted with tech giants like Google Facebook LinkedIn and Twitter vying for space with a halo of applications that connect people for work play romance and education Contingent labor has been catalyzed by ubiquitous access to the Internet on smartphones enabling ride sharing services like Uber and Lyft and space sharing apps like Airbnb Entrepreneurs compete for people s attention and screen time Alongside these changes daily life for all but the highest echelon has been altered by new perceptions of scarcity risk and shortage Established workers and those new to the workforce try to adjust The second edition of Cultures@SiliconValley brings the story of technological saturation and global cultural diversity in this renowned hub of digital innovation up to the present In this fully updated edition J A English Lueck provides readers with a host of new ethnographic stories documenting the latest expansions of Silicon Valley to San Francisco and beyond The book explores how changes in technology especially as mobile phones make the Internet accessible everywhere impact work family and community life The inhabitants of Silicon Valley illustrate in microcosm the social and cultural identity of the future The globalization of R & D and innovation United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science and Technology, 2008

Startup Capitals Zafar Anjum, 2014-12-15 As the Internet has matured in technology and reach we have seen an explosion in tech startups all over the world Not only are some of these startups changing the world and how we live in it they are also proving to be the engines of job creation an aspect that will be critical in the future To support these startups new ecosystems are popping up all over the globe to help grow these companies aided by governments successful entrepreneurs and venture capitalists In Startup Capitals Zafar Anjum brings you a ringside view from the world s top ten startup cities of the world Well researched and highly insightful this book lays bare the engines of innovation and the lessons that can be learnt from these burgeoning startup capitals Networks, Markets, and the Pacific Rim W. Mark Fruin, 1998 Despite the negative press Asian economies have received in connection with the recent financial crisis their record of spectacular growth over the past few decades remains irrefutable In an effort to provide a rich textured analysis of these economies editor W Mark Fruin presents a collection of essays that explores the wide range of network organizations that have been established in the Pacific Rim Conventional studies of economic organization have tended to center on markets and hierarchies the two forms of organization most common in the West But today the world moves too quickly and too unpredictably for the idealized organizations of microeconomic theory to keep up It is no accident that the region that has generated the world s most explosive economic growth is also the region where network organizations sets of independent actors who cooperate frequently for mutual advantage are most pervasive Rapid economic social and technical changes favor the formation of network organizations and vice versa The contributors to this volume identify and elucidate four basic types of networks naturally occurring networks market replacing networks hierarchy replacing networks and market enhancing networks They show how all of these have been shaped by the history government legal system and culture of each country under consideration These network organizations allow the authors to compare and contrast network forms in China Japan South Korea Taiwan and the United States according to features such as degrees of formalization rule definition and market conformance The works collected here make an important contribution to a networks markets hierarchies framework that recognizes and emphasizes the diversity of organizational forms and behaviors A unique resource for scholars and professionals in the fields of management and economics this book enables a complex analysis of one of the world s fastest growing and most theoretically challenging regions
