Wages Of Violence Naming And Identity In Postcolonial Bombay:

Wages of Violence Thomas Blom Hansen, 2018-06-05 When Bombay changed its name to Mumbai in 1995 it was the culmination of a long process that transformed India's primary symbol of modernity and cultural diversity into a site of intense ethnic conflict and violent nationalism Wages of Violence is a startling account of how the city's atmosphere dominant public languages and power structures have changed since the 1960s The book centers on how Shiv Sena a militant Hindu movement has advanced a new plebeian political culture and has undermined democratic rule in India's premier city Drawing on a large body of archival material and conversations with people from all walks of life Thomas Blom Hansen paints a vivid picture of this dynamic and violent movement Challenging conventional views of recent trends in Indian politics Hansen shows that the xenophobic public culture of today's Mumbai has deep roots in the region's history and its contested identities We are also given revealing insights into the city's Muslim communities and the authorities understanding and control of the ethno religious subcultures in the city Hansen argues cogently that Shiv Sena's success represents the violent possibilities of the vernacularization of democracy in India Unfolding at a juncture where the globalization of India's economy is having a deepening impact on the lives of ordinary people this is a story that resonates with the directions urban growth is taking both elsewhere in India and beyond

Emotions and Modernity in Colonial India Margrit Pernau, 2019-08-22 With this pioneering project Margrit Pernau brings the history of emotions approach to South Asian studies A theoretically sophisticated and erudite investigation Emotions and Modernity in Colonial India maps the history of emotions in India between the uprising of 1857 and World War I Situating the prevalent experiences interpretations and practices of emotions of the time within the context of the major political events of colonial India Pernau goes beyond the dominant narrative of colonial modernity and its fixation with discipline and restraint and traces the contemporary transformation from a balance in emotions to the resurgence of fervor The current volume is based on a large archive of sources in Urdu many being explored for the first time Pernau grounds her work on such diverse sources as philosophical and theological treatises on questions of morality advice literature journals and newspapers nostalgic descriptions of courtly culture and even children's literature This close look into individual experiences practices and interpretations reveals the myriad emotions of the day and the importance of these micro histories in presenting an alternative account of colonial India

Hydraulic City Nikhil Anand, 2017-03-17 Nikhil Anand explores the politics of Mumbai's water infrastructure to demonstrate how citizenship and the rights through which to make demands on the state for public services emerges through the relations between residents plumbers politicians engineers and the 3000 miles of pipe that bind them

Hero and Hero-Worship: Fandom in Modern India Rahul Chaturvedi, Hariom Singh, Anita Singh, 2021-01-05 In the aftermath of liberalization of Indian economy in 1991 the study of star fan studies has experienced exponential expansion Hero and Hero Worship Fandom in Modern India explores the areas of political religious film and cricket star fandoms analyzing the rise of star formations and their consequent fandoms star fan bonds as well as the physical and virtual space that both stars and fans inhabit As perhaps one of the first book length studies on Indian fandom this volume not only draws on the works of Jenkins and other fandom scholars but also explores the economic and cultural specificities of Indian fandom This book will be of particular interest to scholars working in the field as well as general readers interested in understanding star fan interactions and intersections Feeding the City Sara Roncaglia,2013-07-15 Every day in Mumbai 5 000 dabbawalas literally translated as those who carry boxes distribute a staggering 200 000 home cooked lunchboxes to the city s workers and students Giving employment and status to thousands of largely illiterate villagers from Mumbai s hinterland this co operative has been in operation since the late nineteenth century It provides one of the most efficient delivery networks in the world only one lunch in six million goes astray Feeding the City is an ethnographic study of the fascinating inner workings of Mumbai s dabbawalas Cultural anthropologist Sara Roncaglia explains how they cater to the various dietary requirements of a diverse and increasingly global city where the preparation and consumption of food is pervaded with religious and cultural significance Developing the idea of gastrosemantics a language with which to discuss the broader implications of cooking and eating Roncaglia s study helps us to rethink our relationship to food at a local and global level The Oxford Handbook of Governance and Limited Statehood Thomas Risse,Tanja A. Börzel,Anke Draude,2018-03-08 Unpacking the major debates this Oxford Handbook brings together leading authors of the field to provide a state of the art guide to governance in areas of limited statehood where state authorities lack the capacity to implement and enforce central decision and or to uphold the monopoly over the means of violence While areas of limited statehood can be found everywhere not just in the global South they are neither ungoverned nor ungovernable Rather a variety of actors maintain public order and safety as well as provide public goods and services While external state governors and their interventions in the global South have received special scholarly attention various non state actors from NGOs to business to violent armed groups have emerged that also engage in governance This evidence holds for diverse policy fields and historical cases The Handbook gives a comprehensive picture of the varieties of governance in areas of limited statehood from interdisciplinary perspectives including political science geography history law and economics 29 chapters review the academic scholarship and explore the conditions of effective and legitimate governance in areas of limited statehood as well as its implications for world politics in the twenty first century The authors examine theoretical and methodological approaches as well as historical and spatial dimensions of areas of limited statehood and deal with the various governors as well as their modes of governance They cover a variety of issue areas and explore the implications for the international legal order for normative theory and for policies toward areas of limited statehood

Shadows at Noon Joya Chatterji,2023-01-01 A groundbreaking view of South Asian history in the twentieth century that underlines the similarities and intertwined cultures of India and Pakistan Winner of the 2023 Los Angeles Times Book Prize in History Longlisted for the 2024 Women's Prize for Non Fiction Longlisted for the 2024 Cundill History Prize Chatterji tells the story of the subcontinent's recent history in a fluent sweeping arc Wonderfully enjoyable to read and sure to become a classic William Dalrymple The Guardian This radically original and ambitious history of the Indian subcontinent explores the region's unique twentieth century history and foregrounds the deep connections rather than the well publicized fissures between the cultures of India and Pakistan Taking the partitions of British India rather than the two world wars as the century's inflection points Joya Chatterji examines how issues of nationalism internal and external migration and technological innovation contributed to South Asia's tumultuous twentieth century Chatterji weaves together elements of her autobiography and family history stories of such legendary figures as Tagore Jinnah Gandhi and Nehru and in particular the accounts of the many who were left behind and marginalized in relentless nation building projects Chatterji examines the countries mirroring patterns in state building social and cultural life modes of leisure consumption and oppression and offers a timely course correction to our understanding of the dynamics of South Asian history It reframes the events of the twentieth century that are continuing to play out in the present day

Dissent and Cultural Resistance in Asia's Cities

Melissa Butcher, Selvaraj Velayutham, 2009-03-23 This book documents urban experiences of dissent and emergent resistance against disjunctive global and local capital technology and labour flows that converge and intersect in some of Asia's fastest growing cities Rather than constructing occupants of the city as simply passive victims of globalisation or urbanisation it presents ways in which people are using everyday strategies embedded in cultural practice to challenge dominant socio economic and political forces impacting on urban space Taking the city as a site of contestation and a stage where social conflicts are played out the book highlights the connections between urban power and dissent the nature and impact of resistance how the spatiality and built environment of the city generates conflict and conversely how protagonists use the cityscape to stage their everyday and public dissent The contributors explore the conditions strategies and outcomes of such dissent and forms of cultural resistance and explore the following themes the impact of urban development gentrification and ghettoisation urban counter narratives and the re imagining of city spaces the role of grassroots activism and social movements cultural resistance in the creation of neighbourhoods and communities the impact of gender class and the politics of identity on forms of dissent the formation of transgressive spaces

Global Perspectives on War, Gender and Health

Hannah Bradby, 2016-04-22 Rendering the suffering of the marginalized visible has been an important aspect of feminist sociological studies of health illness and medicine with the subjective experience of those without access to institutional power being at the forefront of the research This volume analyzes the links between the suffering caused by the intentional violence of war and the unintentional suffering engendered by modern medicinal processes By establishing a fitting tribute to the academic and campaigning work of Meg Stacey Global Perspectives on War Gender and Health responds to her challenge of why medical sociology had not yet turned its gaze upon the health consequences of war A selection of international case studies are used to create a volume of significant interest to sociologists and those working in the fields of anthropology social policy social work peace war and security studies and international development Suffering for Territory Donald S. Moore, 2005-09-12 An ethnographic study of Zimbabwe's land occupations that focuses on the effects of spatialized struggles on sovereignty and the nation state
