The Toilet Papers Recycling Waste And Conserving Water:

The Toilet Papers Sim Van Der Ryn, 1999-08-01 A classic is back in print One of the favorite books of 1970s back to the landers The Toilet Papers is an informative inspiring and irreverent look at how people have dealt with their wastes through the centuries In a historical survey Van der Ryn provides the basic facts concerning human wastes and describes safe designs for toilets that reduce water consumption and avert the necessity for expensive and unreliable treatment systems The Toilet Papers provides do it yourself plans for a basic compost privy and a variety of graywater systems , A Crisis of Waste? Martin O'Brien, 2012-11-12 This book takes a measured look at the crisis of waste in modern society and it does so historically sociologically and critically It tells stories about past and present crises of waste and puts them in their appropriate social and industrial contexts From Charles Dickens to Don DeLillo from the internal combustion engine to fish fingers from kitchen grease to the Tour de France this book digs deep into society's dust piles and emerges with untold treasures of the imagination Recycling Finn Arne Jorgensen, 2019-11-12 An overview of recycling as an activity and a process following different materials through the waste stream Is there a point to recycling Is recycling even good for the environment In this volume in the MIT Press Essential Knowledge series Finn Arne Jorgensen answers drumroll please it depends From a technical point of view recycling is a series of processes collecting sorting processing manufacturing Recycling also has a cultural component at its core recycling is about transformation and value turning material waste into something useful plastic bags into patio furniture plastic bottles into T shirts Jorgensen offers an accessible and engaging overview of recycling as an activity and as a process at the intersection of the material and the ideological Jorgensen follows a series of materials as they move back and forth between producer and consumer continually transforming in form and value in a never ceasing journey toward becoming waste He considers organic waste and cultural contamination the history of recyclable writing surfaces from papyrus to newsprint discarded clothing as it moves from the the Global North to the Global South the shifting fate of glass bottles the efficiency of aluminum recycling the many types of plastic and the difficulties of informed consumer choice e waste and technological obsolescence and industrial waste Finally re asking the question posed by John Tierney in an infamous 1996 New York Times article is recycling garbage Jorgensen argues that recycling is necessary as both symbolic action and physical activity that has a tangible effect on the real world Unmaking Waste in Production and Consumption Robert Crocker, Christopher Saint, Guanyi Chen, Yindong Tong, 2018-09-13 This book provides scholars working in the many disciplines that relate to the concept of the Circular Economy with a cross disciplinary forum looking at areas such as Theory Policy and Contexts Improving Resource Efficiency and Reducing Waste Changing Consumption and Behaviour by Design and Transforming Technologies of Production Construction Ecology Charles J. Kibert, Jan Sendzimir, G. Bradley Guy, 2003-08-27 Industrial ecology provides a sound means of systematising the various ideas which come under the banner of sustainable construction and provides a model for the design operation and ultimate disposal of buildings Digital Culture & Society (DCS) Cindy Kohtala,Yana Boeva,Peter Troxler,2021-02-26 As DIY digital maker culture proliferates globally research on these practices is also maturing Still particular terminologies dominate beyond their Western contexts and technocultural histories of making are often rendered as over simplified technomyths that render invisible diverse local practices This special issue brings together contributions that highlight how historicising plays a role in mythmaking and the creation of social imaginaries The peer reviewed articles present cultural historical perspectives technology and design histories and historiographies and alternative histories related to postcolonial resistance The contributions illustrate the relevance of craft to making as a reparative practice after the Salvadoran Civil War and as a leisure activity to spark innovation in mid century corporate culture the political economic background to the diffusion and differentiation of community workshops in contemporary Spain and post war Germany and the various aesthetics and politics of technology culture manifestos over the years The issue features an interview with Peter Harper of the Alternative Technology movement by Simon Sadler as well as an interview with Felix Holm and Sun Stassen on the antecedents of making and design in South Africa The special issue is rounded off with six short alternative hi stories of DIY making including multiple practices geographies and temporalities Heating, Cooling, Lighting Norbert M.

Lechner,2014-09-23 Sustainable environmental control through building design Heating Cooling and Lighting is the industry standard text on environmental control systems with the emphasis on sustainable design By detailing the many factors that contribute to the comfort in a building this book helps architects minimize mechanical systems and energy usage over the life of the building by siting building design and landscaping to maximize natural heating cooling and lighting This new fourth edition includes new information on integrated design strategies and designing for the Tropics Resources include helpful case studies checklists diagrams and a companion website featuring additional cases an image bank and instructor materials Designing buildings that require less energy to heat cool and light means allowing the natural energy of the sun and wind to reduce the burden on the mechanical and electrical systems Basic design decisions regarding size orientation and form have a great impact on the sustainability cost and comfort of a building Heating Cooling and Lighting provides detailed guidance for each phase of a design project Readers will Understand the concept of sustainability as applied to energy sources Review the basic principles of thermal comfort and the critical role of climate Learn the fundamentals of solar responsive design including active and passive solar systems as well as photovoltaics Discover how siting architectural design and landscaping can reduce the requirements for mechanical and electrical systems In sustainable design mechanical and electrical systems should be used to only accomplish what the architect could not by the design of the building itself With this in mind designers require a comprehensive understanding of both the properties of energy and the human factors involved in thermal comfort Heating Cooling and Lighting is the complete industry leading resource for designers interested in sustainable environmental control French Women Philosophers Christina Howells,2004 This Reader will be the first of its kind to present the work of leading French women philosophers to an English speaking audience Howells draws on several major areas of philosophical and theoretical debate Contemporary American Literature and Excremental Culture Mary C. Foltz, 2020-10-08 Contemporary American Literature and Excremental Culture American Sh t analyzes post 1960 scatological novels that utilize representations of human waste to address pressing issues including pollution of waterways environmental racism and militarism Primarily examining postmodern parody the book shows the value of aesthetic renderings of sanitary engineering for composting ideologies that fuel a ruinous impact on the world Drawing on late twentieth century psychoanalytic thinkers Norman O Brown Frantz Fanon and Leo Bersani American Sh t shows the continued relevance of psychoanalytic interpretations of contemporary fiction for understanding post 45 authors engagement with waste Ultimately the monograph reveals how novelists Ishmael Reed Jonathan Franzen Gloria Naylor Don DeLillo and Samuel R Delany critique subjects who abnegate their status as waste producing beings and bring readers back to embrace Winner of the 2019 Northeast Modern Language Association Book Award for Literary Criticism of English Language Literature
