The Touch Of The Past Remembrance Learning And Ethics:

The Touch of the Past R. Simon, 2016-04-30 In Roger Simon's new collection based on ten years of research the respected scholar reminds us that historically traumatic events simultaneously summon forgetting and remembrance in unique ways The Touch of the Past explores the ways in which remembrance consciousness and history affect how students learn and educators teach Simon examines how testimonies of historic events influence learning and how communities deal with collective memory A serious contribution to the research in education and memory and trauma studies from a top philosopher in the field

Indigenous Legal Traditions Law Commission of Canada, 2008-01-01 Although Indigenous peoples had their own systems of law based on their social political and spiritual traditions under colonialism their legal systems have often been ignored or overruled by non Indigenous laws Today however these legal traditions are being reinvigorated and recognized as vital for the preservation of the political autonomy of Aboriginal nations and the development of healthy communities The essays in this book present important perspectives on the role of Indigenous legal traditions in reclaiming and preserving the autonomy of Aboriginal communities and in reconciling the relationship between these communities and Canadian governments Contributors include Andr e Lajoie Minnawaanagigiizhigook Dawnis Kennedy Ghislain Otis Ted Palys and Wenona Victor Paulette Regan and Perry Shawana Common threads linking the essays include the relationship between Indigenous and Canadian legal orders the importance of Indigenous legal traditions for Aboriginal communities autonomy and the ways in which these traditions might be recognized and given space in the Canadian legal landscape In its examination of different aspects of and models for the recognition of Indigenous legal orders this book addresses important issues relating to legal pluralism It will be of interest to a wide audience including lawyers and legal academics teachers students policy makers and members of Aboriginal communities

The Ethics of Teaching at Sites of Violence and Trauma Natalie Bormann, 2017-08-29 This book chronicles a professor's experience with a group of US undergraduate students at Holocaust memorials museums and sites of remembrance as part of a yearly Holocaust study abroad program to Germany and Poland Narrated through a series of personal encounters The Ethics of Teaching at Sites of Violence and Trauma synthesizes a concrete experiential teaching account on issues ranging from trauma tourism to the ethics of spectatorship with contemporary debates on Holocaust education In doing so this book seeks to offer a critical assessment on the possibilities and limitations of teaching at sites that were central to the planning and execution of the Holocaust

The Story-Takers Paula M. Salvio, 2017-10-31 The Story Takers charts new territory in public pedagogy through an exploration of the multiple forms of communal protests against the mafia in Sicily Writing at the rich juncture of cultural feminist and psychoanalytic theories Paula M Salvio draws on visual and textual representations including shrines to those murdered by the mafia photographs and literary and cinematic narratives to explore how trauma and mourning inspire solidarity and a quest for justice among educators activists artists and journalists living and working in Italy Salvio reveals how the anti mafia movement is being brought out from behind the curtains with educators leading the charge She critically analyses six cases of communal acts of anti mafia solidarity and argues that transitional justice requires radical approaches to pedagogy that are best informed by journalists educators and activists working to remember not only victims of trauma but those who resist trauma and violence

The Train Journey Simone Gigliotti, 2009-07-01 Deportations by train were critical in the Nazis genocidal vision of the Final Solution of the Jewish Question Historians have estimated that between 1941 and 1944 up to three million Jews were transported to their deaths in concentration and extermination camps In his writings on the Final Solution Raul Hilberg pondered the role of trains How can railways be regarded as anything more than physical equipment that was used when the time came to transport the Jews from various cities to shooting grounds and gas chambers in Eastern Europe This book explores the question by analyzing the victims experiences at each stage of forced relocation the round ups and departures from the ghettos the captivity in trains and finally the arrival at the camps Utilizing a variety of published memoirs and unpublished testimonies the book argues that victims experienced the train journeys as mobile chambers comparable in importance to the more studied fixed locations of persecution such as ghettos and camps
