Britten's works their partnership of thirty years significantly shaped and defined musical developments not only in England but on a broader plane. Throughout their busy professional lives they travelled extensively on concert tours and on holiday finding fresh stimulus in change. Pears's twelve travel diaries brought together in this volume record much of that travel and provide valuable contextual material on the musical development of both Pears and Britten. The first diary dates from 1936 the year before his friendship with Britten began when he went on tour to North America with the New English Singers. Other diaries record the five month tour to the Far East and the important encounters especially for Britten with the gamelan music of Bali and the Japanese Noh theatre visits to Russia as guests of Mstislav Rostropovich and his wife Galina Vishnevskaya where they met significant figures from Russian musical life and attendance at the Ansbach Bach Festival when Pears was at the height of his career. Also recorded are holidays in the Caribbean and Italy a concert tour through the north of England and accounts of the rehearsals and performances of the New York premieres of Billy Budd and Death in Venice.

Novel Shakespeares Julie Sanders, 2001 Much recent contemporary fiction by women has appropriated and adapted themes and plot structures found in Shakespearean drama. This is an innovative study of these texts. It considers novels by authors set in locations covering the globe.

Meanwhile on the east coast of Africa Hattie Josh's first love now writes girls ballet books when she can carve out time when she isn't caring for her husband and her crosspatch daughter. Elizabeth Gilbert on Barbara Trapido Why did it take me so long to discover the singular joys of Barbara Trapido's novels? Why for so many years had I missed these witty soulful heartbreaking expansive brilliant tales? I have become a literary evangelist on her behalf.
