The Trinitarian Self The Key To The Puzzle Of Violence:

The Trinitarian Self Charles K Bellinger,2010-08-27 The Trinitarian Self argues that the insights of three key authors Soren Kierkegaard Eric Voegelin and Rene Girard can be synthesized to produce a Trinitarian theological anthropology Their reflections on the deep roots of human behavior illuminate three structural dimensions of human existence the temporal trajectory of selfhood the vertical axis God and nature and the horizontal plane of cultural formation An understanding of these dimensions and how they interrelate proves very fruitful in making sense of a wide variety of pathological forms of behavior that human beings have engaged in during the modern era This work links together in thought provoking ways various realms of thought such as Trinitarian theology a plea for a New Copernican Revolution that will result in a broadly held psychological understanding of violence the ethics of war and peace atonement theologies and critical commentaries on terrorism and the War on Terror The interplay between these topics will likely prove very stimulating to a wide variety of readers

Peacemaking and Religious Violence Roger A. Johnson,2009-09-01 From its very beginning Christian faith has been engaged with religious violence The first Christians were persecuted by their co religionists and then by imperial Rome Jesus taught them in such circumstances not to retaliate but to be peacemakers to love their enemies and to pray for their persecutors Jesus s response to religious violence of the first century was often ignored but it was never forgotten Even during those centuries when the church herself persecuted Christian heretics Jews and Muslims some Christians still struggled to bear witness to the peace mandate of their Lord In the thirteenth century Thomas Aquinas wrote a theology to help his Dominican brothers persuade Cathar Christians to return to their Catholic faith peacefully Ramon Lull a Christian student of Arabic and the Qur an sought to help his fellow Christians recognize the elements of belief they shared in common with the Muslims in their midst In the fifteenth century Nicholas of Cusa a Church Cardinal and theologian expanded Lull s project to include the newly discovered religions of Asia In the seventeenth century Lord Herbert an English diplomat and lay Christian began to identify the political union of church and government as a causal factor in the religious warfare of post Reformation Christendom One and a half centuries later Thomas Jefferson a lay theologian of considerable political stature won a political struggle in the American colonies to disestablish religion first in his home colony of Virginia and then in the new nation he helped to found All five of these theologians reclaimed the peace mandate of Jesus in their response to the religious violence of their own eras All of which points us to some intriguing Christian responses to religious violence in our own century as recounted in the epilogue

Dietrich Bonhoeffer and the Ethical Self Clark J. Elliston,2016-10-01 Dietrich Bonhoeffer s work has persistently challenged Christian consciousness due to both his death at the hands of the Nazis and his provocative prison musings about Christian faithfulness in late modernity Although understandable given the popularity of both narrative trajectories such selective focus obscures the depth and fecundity of his overall corpus Bonhoeffer s early work and particularly his Christocentric anthropology grounds his later expressed commitments to responsibility and faithfulness in a world come of age While much debate accompanies claims regarding the continuity of Bonhoeffer's thought there are central motifs which pervade his work from his doctoral dissertation to the prison writings This book suggests that a concern for otherness permeates all of Bonhoeffer's work Furthermore Clark Elliston articulates drawing on Bonhoeffer a Christian self defined by its orientation towards otherness Taking Bonhoeffer as both the origin and point of return the text engages Emmanuel Levinas and Simone Weil as dialogue partners who likewise stress the role of the other for self understanding albeit in diverse ways By reading Bonhoeffer through their voices one enhances Bonhoeffer's already fertile understanding of responsibility

Life in the Spirit Andréa Snavely, 2015-05-12 What would the church look like if Christians saw their lives as constituted by the Spirit's presence to live as Jesus lived In a time when being led by the Spirit is defined more by achieving the American Dream than by Jesus's life answering this question rightly seems all the more critical for the church to survive in a culture increasingly hostile to Christianity Building upon the work of post Constantinians John Howard Yoder and Stanley Hauerwas and upon the Trinitarian Spirit Christology of Leopoldo Sanchez this account of the Christian life provides a framework for seeing one's Christian life as one transformed by the Spirit to live in the resurrection reality of Jesus's sonship with the Father in the Spirit In the process one will discover that for Jesus being led by the Spirit meant trusting his Father to the point of death on a cross trusting God to resurrect him even if he did not save him Should it mean the same for Christians today If so this would require the church to reimagine its ministries for the Spirit to work repentance and faith rather than simple agreement For Christians living in the Spirit their lives might look very different

René Girard and Secular Modernity Scott Cowdell, 2015-11-30 In Ren Girard and Secular Modernity Christ Culture and Crisis Scott Cowdell provides the first systematic interpretation of Ren Girard's controversial approach to secular modernity Cowdell identifies the scope development and implications of Girard's thought the centrality of Christ in Girard's thinking and in particular Girard's distinctive take on the uniqueness and finality of Christ in terms of his impact on Western culture In Girard's singular vision according to Cowdell secular modernity has emerged thanks to the Bible's exposure of the cathartic violence that is at the root of religious prohibitions myths and rituals In the literature the psychology and most recently the military history of modernity Girard discerns a consistent slide into an apocalypse that challenges modern ideas of romanticism individualism and progressivism In the first three chapters Cowdell examines the three elements of Girard's basic intellectual vision mimesis sacrifice biblical hermeneutics and brings this vision to a constructive interpretation of secularization and modernity as these terms are understood in the broadest sense today Chapter 4 focuses on modern institutions chiefly the nation state and the market that function to restrain the outbreak of violence And finally Cowdell discusses the apocalyptic dimension of Girard's theory in relation to modern warfare and terrorism Here Cowdell engages with the most recent writings of Girard particularly his Battling to the End and applies them to further conversations in cultural theology political science and philosophy Cowdell takes up and extends Girard's own warning concerning an alternative to a future apocalypse What sort of conversion must humans undergo before it is too late

Truth and Compassion Robert Petkovsek, Bojan Zalec, 2017 Truth and Compassion offers an integral and interdisciplinary view on truth and compassion their mutual connectedness the meaning of their cultivation and the devastating consequences of their neglect and destruction The authors analyze their various forms their origins and concrete ways and attempts of their repression Essays focus on the attention to truth and compassion under communism but this is only one of its segments As a whole topics range from basic theological and philosophical analysis to concrete historiographic treatments of particular cases The central message is that speaking about grievances communication dialogue empathy and solidarity are necessary for living in truth and compassion Series Theology East West Theologie Ost West Vol 20 Subject Philosophy Ethics Studies The Mission of the Triune God Adam Dodds, 2017-07-31 Lesslie Newbigin was arguably the greatest missionary thinker of the twentieth century After a successful missionary career in south India Newbigin pioneered missionary engagement with the secular West and resurgent Islam He also led the way in arguing that the Church's mission can only be understood in light of the doctrine of the Trinity Over fifty years ago Newbigin called for the further development of missionary thinking grounded in the Triune being of God This work is in response to that call Adam Dodds provides the first in depth study of Newbigin's trinitarian theology of mission Dodds constructs a systematic account of the central features of the mission of the Triune God the Triune being of God the mission of the Son the mission of the Holy Spirit and the mission of the church This book contributes to our understanding of the work of Lesslie Newbigin offers a systematic theological account of the mission of the Triune God and contributes to the retrieval of Christian mission from the theological margins back to a place of central importance to Christian theology Justice That Transforms, Volume One Wayne Northey, 2020-01-09 Restorative Justice was a term and concept largely unused before the mid 1970s Wayne Northey happened to be in on the ground floor of facilitating its worldwide adoption as a challenge to Western retributive justice systems ultimately to violent responses to conflict domestically and internationally The most replicated early model of Restorative Justice based on the well known Elmira Case was a Canadian first initially dubbed Victim Offender Reconciliation Project VORP The author became its second director in 1977 The term mediation later displaced the more religious word reconciliation as the model spread outside Christian moorings and program displaced the initially more tentative project At seminary Northey had learned to think through one's vocation theologically He began in that vein writing and publishing on this profound call for a systemic paradigm shift and has been at it ever since This publication is volume 1 of a series of his collected writings of which two additional volumes may be found online Two or three further volumes are projected The Routledge International Handbook of Sociology and Christianity Dennis Hiebert, 2023-10-18 The Routledge International Handbook of Sociology and Christianity examines the intersection of the sociology of religion a long standing focus of sociology as a discipline and Christianity the world's largest religion An internationally representative and thematically comprehensive collection it analyzes both the sociology of Christianity and Christian approaches to sociology with attention to the Roman Catholic Orthodox and Protestant branches of Christianity An authoritative state of the art review of current research it is organized into five inter connected thematic sections considering the overlapping emergence of both the Christian religion and the social science the conceptualization of and engagement with Christianity by sociological theory the ways in which Christianity shapes and is shaped by various social institutions the manner in which Christianity resists and promotes various forms of social change and the identification diagnosis and correction of social problems by sociology and Christianity This volume is an invaluable collection for scholars and advanced students with special appeal for those working in the fields of sociology and social theory as well as religious studies and theology The Anointed Son Myk Habets,2010-01-01 Spirit Christology complements Logos Christology in the same way in which Christ and the Spirit are mutually constitutive Or at least this should be the case The history of Christian thought shows that Logos Christology has dominated resulting in both an eclipse of Trinitarian doctrine and a diminution of pneumatology Recently there have been calls to reclaim a theology of the Third Article in order to present a Trinitarian theology that is faithful to Scripture the Great Tradition and one that is existentially viable While studies examine various aspects of Spirit Christology there has yet to appear a work that introduces the doctrine examines the various mutually exclusive proposals and offers a constructive trinitarian proposal The present work does just this introducing the constituent features of a Spirit Christology that is Trinitarian orthodox and contemporary The current work proposes a model of Spirit Christology that complements rather than replaces Logos Christology and does so in a robustly Trinitarian framework Within contemporary theology a pneumatically oriented approach to Christology is being advanced across denominational and traditional lines Those wanting to navigate their way through the many competing proposals for a Third Article theology will find a comprehensive map here
