This is England Neil Rattigan, 2001 Third that the condition of total war in which Britain found itself a short time after the commencement of hostilities would mean that films and indeed all mass popular culture would respond to the urgency of the situation by taking a special interest in representations of British society And fourth following on from this that British films of the Second World War would one way or another be agents of propaganda From these propositions the book examines just what these films had to say about social class in the images of Britain they were promulgating with the corollaries of just how were they saying it and why were they
