The Unconquerable World Power Nonviolence And The Will Of The People:

The Unconquerable World Jonathan Schell, 2004-07-07 Argues for an end to the belief that military domination is the best path to global peace offering the tradition of nonviolent political action and passive resistance in its stead The Unconquerable World Jonathan Schell, 2004 Throughout history civilisation has been shaped by war Now after a century of unprecedented devastation it seems humankind is preparing to embark on another cycle of violence Are we condemned to be in a state of perpetual warfare Jonathan Schell has consistently been one of the most influential and eloquent voices in the debate about global warfare and the arms race His bestseller The Fate of the Earth focussed on the case for nuclear disarmament and may have helped shape two decades of thinking about man's relationship with agents of destruction Now as the international order is once more in a state of upheaval Schell has written another provocative book that aims to point the way out of the bloodshed of the twentieth century Schell strives to show how the underlying dynamics of history have often been shaped not by military actions but by battles for the hearts and minds of the people His close re-examinations of the British French and Russian revolutions the collapse of Soviet power in eastern Europe in 1989 the war in Vietnam and other key moments in history illustrate how all these events can be understood in a new way when viewed through the prism of non-violence The Second World Parag Khanna, 2009-02-10 In The Second World scholar Parag Khanna chosen as one of Esquire's 75 Most Influential People of the Twenty First Century reveals how America's future depends on its ability to compete with the European Union and China to forge relationships with the Second World the pivotal regions of Eastern Europe Central Asia South America the Middle East and East Asia that are growing in influence and economic strength Informed, witty and armed with a traveler's intuition for blending into diverse cultures Khanna depicts second world societies from the inside out observing how globalization divides them into winners and losers and shows how China Europe and America use their unique imperial gravities to pull the second world countries into their orbits Along the way Khanna explains how Arabism and Islamism compete for the Arab soul reveals how Iran and Saudi Arabia play the superpowers against one another unmasks Singapore's inspirational role in East Asia and psychoanalyzes the second world leaders whose decisions are reshaping the balance of power Catholic Realism Abolition of War David Carroll Cochran, 2014-01-09 Argues that the abolition of war like that of slavery and other forms of social violence is possible using the principles and history of the Just War tradition in Catholic theology and philosophy Christianity without God Daniel C. Maguire, 2014-08-18 Argues that Christianity does not require its supernatural aspects Christianity without an omnipotent god without a divine savior without an afterlife In this bold and hopeful book theologian Daniel C. Maguire writes that traditional supernatural aspects of Christianity can be comforting but are increasingly questionable A century of scholarly research has not been supportive of the dogmatic triad of personal god incarnate savior and life after death Demonstrating that these beliefs have questionable roots in historical traditions Maguire argues for a return to that brilliant and revolutionary moral epic of the Hebrew and Christian Bible Rescued from god Christianity can offer a realistic global ethic to heal a planet sinking under the effects of our ungrateful mismanagement Once again Dan Maguire s new book is at the cutting edge Passionate yet crystal clear Christianity without God distills the essential Christian message from the mythological and theological accretions that have distorted it It s a message we need today more than ever David R Loy author of Awareness Bound and Unbound Buddhist Essays For many of us Maguire s book will be a kind of homecoming Someone at last has had the courage to write what so many of us have been thinking John C Raines author of The Justice Men Owe Women Positive Resources from World Religions With immense learning and considerable charm Daniel Maguire evokes a Christianity freed from dogma literalism self righteousness and terror Believers and skeptics alike can delight in what s left poetry morality a sense of awe and wonder In a word humanity Katha Pollitt author of The Mind Body Problem Poems
