The Trickster Brain Neuroscience Evolution And Narrative:

The Trickster Brain David Williams,2012-01-01 The Trickster Brain Neuroscience Evolution and Nature by David Williams looks at literature from an evolutionary biological and neurological perspective He uses the Trickster character as he she appears across cultures to demonstrate how stories reveal universal aspects of the biological mind Williams brings together science and the humanities demonstrating a critical way of approaching literature that incorporates scientific thought

Theorizing Music Evolution Miriam Piilonen,2024 Theorizing Music Evolution is a critical examination of ideas about musical origins with emphasis on nineteenth century music evolutionary texts by Charles Darwin and Herbert Spencer In a ground breaking contribution to music theory and histories of science author Miriam Piilonen argues for the significance of this Victorian music evolutionism in lights of its ties to a recently revitalized subfield of evolutionary musicology

The Oxford Handbook of Biblical Narrative Danna Fewell,2016-06-01 Comprised of contributions from scholars across the globe The Oxford Handbook of Biblical Narrative is a state of the art anthology offering critical treatments of both the Bible s narratives and topics related to the Bible s narrative constructions The Handbook covers the Bible s narrative literature from Genesis to Revelation providing concise overviews of literary critical scholarship as well as innovative readings of individual narratives informed by a variety of methodological approaches and theoretical frameworks The volume as a whole combines literary sensitivities with the traditional historical and sociological questions of biblical criticism and puts biblical studies into intentional conversation with other disciplines in the humanities It reframes biblical literature in a way that highlights its aesthetic characteristics its ethical and religious appeal its organic qualities as communal literature its witness to various forms of social and political negotiation and its uncanny power to affect readers and hearers across disparate time frames and global communities

Excavating Stephen King James Arthur Anderson,2020-10-28 Excavating Stephen King A Darwinist Hermeneutic Study of the Fiction combines approaches from science and literary theory to examine the canon of Stephen King s fiction work in a single critical study James Arthur Anderson has devised the concept of Darwinist Hermeneutics as a critical tool to combine evolutionary psychology neuroscience biology and literary Darwinism with other more conventional critical theory including structuralism narratology semiotics and linguistic analysis Using this theory Anderson examines King s works in terms of archetypes and mythology human universals affective emotions and the organization of story to create maximum suspense This method brings new insights into King s stories and broader implications for storytelling as a whole

Subjects of Substance Julian Henneberg,2020-07-02 Recent U S literature has both been informed by and critically engaged with materialist conceptions of selfhood Over the past decades disciplines like neuroscience and evolutionary biology have increasingly recast the human self as a malleable construct produced by physiological processes In a parallel development literary authors have created their own conceptions of somatic subjectivity in conjunction or contrast with scientific and medical discourses Subjects of Substance examines the forms functions and effects of materialist models of mind in selected memoirs and novels Authors discussed include Michael W Clune Don DeLillo Kay Redfield Jamison Siri Hustvedt Richard Powers Elyn R Saks and David Foster Wallace The Supernatural After the Neuro-Turn Pieter F. Craffert, John R. Baker, Michael J. Winkelman, 2019-09-10 This book takes what is often referred to as the supernatural to be normal natural phenomena that are closely linked to the neurobiology of the human species Reflecting the neurocultural and biocultural perspective the chapters cover phenomena such as out of body experiences ghosts and experiences of spirit entities The contributors consider the supernatural as emerging from innate neurobiological structures and functions and reflecting known neurobiological processes that explain their universality and persistence The Semiotics of Clowns and Clowning Paul Bouissac, 2015-05-28 During the last 300 years circus clowns have emerged as powerful cultural icons This is the first semiotic analysis of the range of make up and costumes through which the clowns performing identities have been established and go on developing It also examines what Bouissac terms micronarratives narrative meanings that clowns generate through their acts dialogues and gestures Putting a repertory of clown performances under the semiotic microscope leads to the conclusion that the performances are all interconnected and come from what might be termed a mythical matrix These micronarratives replicate in context sensitive forms a master narrative whose general theme refers to the emergence of cultures and constraints that they place upon instinctual behaviour From this vantage point each performance can be considered as a ritual which re enacts the primitive violence inherent in all cultures and the temporary resolutions which must be negotiated as the outcome Why do these acts of transgression and re integration then trigger laughter and wonder What kind of mirror does this put up to society In a masterful semiotic analysis Bouissac delves into decades of research to answer these questions Entrancement Ruth Finnegan, 2017-03-23 This study of dreaming death and shared consciousness develops a context that is humanistic comparative and evidence based in its engagement with the work of cultural anthropology ethnomusicology and the study of the imagination It also reaches into current research on consciousness at the interface of neuroscience anthropology sociology musicology computer studies psychology parapsychology literature and cognitive studies in the process of drawing its content from a range of original writing from diverse disciplinary and cultural backgrounds How Literary Worlds Are Shaped Bo Pettersson, 2016-09-12 Literary studies still lack an extensive comparative analysis of different kinds of literature including ancient and non Western How Literary Worlds Are Shaped A Comparative Poetics of Literary Imagination aims to provide such a study Literature it claims is based on individual and shared human imagination which creates literary worlds that blend the real and the fantastic mimesis and genre often modulated by different kinds of unreliability The main building blocks of literary worlds are their oral visual and written modes and three themes challenge perception and relation They are blended and inflected in different ways by combinations of narratives and figures indirection thwarted aspirations meta usages hypothetical action as well as hierarchies and blends of genres and text types Moreover literary worlds are not only constructed by humans but also shape their lives and reinforce their sense of wonder Finally ten reasons are given in order to show how this comparative view can be of use in literary studies In sum How Literary Worlds Are Shaped is the first study to present a wide ranging and detailed comparative account of the makings of literary worlds

Popobawa Katrina Daly Thompson, 2017-02-06 Bravely takes on not the legendary shapeshifting creature spoken about sporadically on the Swahili coast of Tanzania but rather popobawa discourse The Journal of Modern African Studies Since the 1960s people on the islands off the coast of Tanzania have talked about being attacked by a mysterious creature called Popobawa a shapeshifter often described as having an enormous penis Popobawa's recurring attacks have become a popular subject for stories conversation gossip and humor that has spread far beyond East Africa Katrina Daly Thompson shows that talk about Popobawa becomes a tool that Swahili speakers use for various creative purposes such as subverting gender segregation advertising homosexuality or discussing female sexuality By situating Popobawa discourse within the social and cultural world of the Swahili Coast as well as the wider world of global popular culture Thompson demonstrates that uses of this legend are more diverse and complex than previously thought and provides insight into how women and men communicate in a place where taboo prohibition and restraint remain powerful cultural forces While Popobawa surely belong to one of the most interesting African legends Katrina Daly Thompson instead of asking where the story originated asks about how people talk about this trickster and what these conversations really mean Claudia Boehme University of Trier A well researched and well documented addition to the body of knowledge on local legends and their global manifestations Journal of Folklore Research Thompson's movement between local and global discourses demonstrates the importance of a phenomenon that could otherwise be viewed as exotic ethnographic trivia while her theoretical orientation makes the text as relevant to linguistic anthropologists as to African studies scholars African Studies Review
