The Unbounded Level Of The Mind Rod Macdonalds Legal Imagination:

The Unbounded Level of the Mind Richard Janda, Rosalie Jukier, Daniel Jutras, 2015-07-01 Essays honouring one of Canada's most brilliant legal minds International and Comparative Secured Transactions Law Spyridon V Bazinas, Orkun Akseli, 2017-10-19 The law of secured transactions has seen dramatic changes in the last decade International organisations particularly the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law UNCITRAL have been working towards the creation of international legal standards aimed at the modernisation and harmonisation of secured financing laws eg the United Nations Convention on the Assignment of Receivables in International Trade the UNCITRAL Legislative Guide on Secured Transactions and its Intellectual Property Supplement the UNCITRAL Guide on the Implementation of a Security Rights Registry and the UNCITRAL Model Law on Secured Transactions The overall theme of this book is international or cross border secured transactions law It assembles contributions from some of the most authoritative academic voices on secured financing law This publication will be of interest to those involved in secured transactions around the world including policy makers practitioners judges arbitrators and academics Law, Life, and the Teaching of Legal History Ian C. Pilarczyk, Angela Fernandez, Brian Young, 2022-07-19 As the leading legal historian of his generation in Canada and professor at McGill University for over three decades Blaine Baker 1952 2018 was known for his unique personality teaching style intellectual cosmopolitanism and deep commitment to the place of Canadian legal history in the curriculum of law faculties Law Life and the Teaching of Legal History examines important themes in Canadian legal history through the prism of Baker's career Essays discuss Baker's own research his influence within McGill's law faculty his complex personality and the relationship between the private and the public in the life of a university intellectual at the turn of the twenty first century Inspired by topics Baker took up in his own writing contributors use Baker's broad interests in legal culture to reflect on fundamental themes across Canadian legal history including legal education gender and race technology nation building and national identity criminal law and marginalized populations and constitutionalism Law Life and the Teaching of Legal History offers a contemporary analysis of Canadian legal history and thoughtfully engages with what it means to honour one individual's enduring legacy in the study of law Connecting the Dots Harry W. Arthurs, 2019-05-23 Harry W Arthurs is a name held in high esteem by labour lawyers and academics throughout the world Although many are familiar with Arthurs's contributions and accomplishments few are acquainted with the man himself or how he came to be one of the most influential figures in Canadian law and legal education In Connecting the Dots Arthurs recounts his adventures in academe and the people principles ideas motivations and circumstances that have shaped his thinking and his career The memoir offers intimate recollections and observations beginning with the celebrated ancestors who influenced Arthurs's upbringing and education It then sweeps through his career as an architect of important reforms in legal education and explores his research as a trailblazing commentator on the legal profession Arthurs analyzes his experiences as a legal theorist and historian and his pivotal role as a discordant voice in debates over constitutional and administrative law Along the way he muses on the intellectual projects he embraced or set in motion the institutional reforms he advocated the public policies he recommended and how they fared long term Framed with commentary on the historical context that shaped each decade of his career and punctuated by moments of personal reflection Connecting the Dots is a humorous frank and fearless account of the rise and fall of Canadian labour law from the man who was at the centre of it all Popular Culture and Legal Pluralism Wendy A Adams,2016-06-17 Drawing upon theories of critical legal pluralism and psychological theories of narrative identity this book argues for an understanding of popular culture as legal authority unmediated by translation into state law In narrating our identities we draw upon collective cultural narratives and our narrative nomos obligational selves become the nexus for law and popular culture as mutually constitutive discourse The author demonstrates the efficacy and desirability of applying a pluralist legal analysis to examine a much broader scope of subject matter than is possible through the restricted perspective of state law alone The study considers whether presumptively illegal acts might actually be instances of a re imagined alternative legality and the concomitant implications As an illustrative example works of critical dystopia and the beliefs and behaviours of eco animal terrorists can be understood as shared narrative and normative commitments that constitute law just as fully as does the state when it legislates and adjudicates This book will be of great interest to academics and scholars of law and popular culture as well as those involved in interdisciplinary work in legal pluralism The Daunting Enterprise of the Law Simon Archer,Daniel Drache,Peer Zumbansen,2017-03-01 Reconsidering the law through the work of a pre eminent scholar Building Justice Shauna Van Praagh,2022-09-26 Building Justice draws on the inspiring life of former Canadian Supreme Court Justice Frank Iacobucci to offer insight into the meaning of engaged citizenship through law Ignoring early advice that he had the wrong kind of name to go to law school Frank Iacobucci the son of Italian immigrants made a name for himself as an outstanding Canadian jurist Serving as justice of the Supreme Court of Canada from 1991 to 2004 Iacobucci was also professor and dean of law at the University of Toronto and deputy minister of justice for Canada In Building Justice Shauna Van Praagh weaves together the voices of individuals whose paths and projects have intersected with those of Frank Iacobucci The book provides a compelling consideration of the study and practice of law as it follows the stages of Iacobucci s life and career from his childhood in Vancouver his practice as a young lawyer his time at the University of Toronto and with the Federal Department of Justice his work as a judge at the highest level of court and his significant engagement with Canada s ongoing response to the legacy of residential schools Building Justice is a beautifully written biography in which the stories of one jurist serve to explore and illustrate engaged citizenship through law American Legal Education Abroad Susan Bartie,David Sandomierski,2021-07-06 A critical history of the Americanization of legal education in fourteen countries The second half of the twentieth century witnessed the export of American power both hard and soft throughout the world What role did US cultural and economic imperialism play in legal education American Legal Education Abroad offers an unprecedented and surprising picture of the history of legal education in fourteen countries beyond the United States Each study in this book represents a critical history of the Americanization of legal education reexamining prevailing narratives of exportation transplantation and imperialism Collectively these studies challenge the conventional wisdom that American ideas and practices have dominated globally Editors Susan Bartie and David Sandomierski and their contributors suggest that to understand legal education and to respond thoughtfully to the mounting present day challenges it is essential to look beyond a particular region and consider not only the ideas behind legal education but also the broader historical political and cultural factors that have shaped them American Legal Education Abroad begins with an important foundational history by leading Harvard Law School historian Bruce Kimball who explains the factors that created a transportable American legal model and the book concludes with reflections from two prominent American law professors Susan Carle and Bob Gordon whose observations on recent disruptions within US law schools suggest that their influence within the global order of legal education may soon fall into further decline This book should be considered an invaluable resource for anyone in the field of law

Trust, Distrust, and Mistrust in Multinational Democracies Dimitrios Karmis, François Rocher, 2018-09-15 The importance of research on the notion of trust has grown considerably in the social sciences over the last three decades Much has been said about the decline of political trust in democracies and intense debates have occurred about the nature and complexity of the relationship between trust and democracy Political trust is usually understood as trust in political institutions including trust in political actors that inhabit the institutions trust between citizens and to a lesser extent trust between groups However the literature on trust has given no special attention to the issue of trust between minority and majority nations in multinational democracies countries that are not only multicultural but also constitutional associations containing two or more nations or peoples whose members claim to be self governing and have the right of self determination This volume part of the work of the Groupe de recherche sur les sociétés plurinationales GRSP is a comparative study of trust distrust and mistrust in multinational democracies centring on Canada Belgium Spain and the United Kingdom Beliefs attitudes practices and relations of trust distrust and mistrust are studied as situated interacting and coexisting phenomena that change over time and space Contributors include Dario Castiglione Exeter Jérôme Couture INRS UCS Kris Deschouwer Vrije Universiteit Brussel Jean Leclair Montréal Patti Tamara Lenard Ottawa Niels Morsink Antwerp Geneviève Nootens Chicoutimi Darren O Toole Ottawa Alexandre Pelletier Toronto Rjean Pelletier Laval Philip Resnick UBC David Robichaud Ottawa Peter Russell Toronto Richard Simeon Toronto Dave Sinardet Vrije Universiteit Brussel and Jeremy Webber Victoria
