The United Nations and Education David Coleman, Phillip W. Jones, 2004-11-10 The UN is often questioned about its ongoing relevance and overall effectiveness in the 21st century particularly in its involvement with educational policy and co operation around the globe This ground breaking book examines the four key agencies within the UN system that share the vital role of addressing educational futures UNESCO the World Bank UNICEF and UNDP As the core of educational multilateralism these agencies powerfully reflect the UN s historic grounding in peace human rights and economic development The history of each agency s commitment to education is explored with critical detachment with particular attention paid to the post Cold War period during which each agency has needed to re think the impact of globalisation on both its modes of operation as well as the content of its education policies Just as education policy itself has been subject to the impact of globalisation so to has each agency had to adapt at a time when not only education but also their own mandates have been thrown open to question This timely book will be essential reading for all those working with and for UN agencies foreign aid workers and the development co operation industry At a time when education policies budgets and strategies appear wide open to profound changes this book will provide a much needed roadmap to the future

International Handbook of Comparative Education Robert Cowen, Andreas M. Kazamias, 2009-08-22 A big project like this Handbook means that you incur debts and not only to your authors and your publisher As editors we along with our colleague Elaine Unterhalter who edited the section on postcolonialism would like to thank most warmly those authors who delivered on time and who did not fuss but just got on and did a r rate job We would also like to thank all authors who did deliver which was almost everyone we asked We know that some of our authors worked in very dif cult private circumstances as they were nishing their chapters and we hope the publication of the Volumes will later be for them a happy reminder of dif culties and disasters overcome The only sad theme is that some very close colleagues with whom we were wo ing and for whom we had the greatest respect and liking became very ill and died while the volumes were being prepared We decided to ask for copyright permissions to publish something of theirs These permissions were graciously given by two major journals and with the agreement also of our publishers Springer Rolland Paulston and Terry McLaughlin have examples of their writing in this Handbook

Educating for Durable Solutions Christine Monaghan,2021-04-08 What is education for an unknowable future In Educating for Durable Solutions Christine Monaghan explores how refugees and policymakers have answered this question over time by reconstructing the contemporary history of education in Kenya's Dadaab and Kakuma refugee camps Through oral histories and archival research Monaghan shows how since the founding of both camps in 1991 refugees and policymakers have conceptualized developed implemented and changed refugee education programs She also shows why and how despite these changes real challenges persist in refugee education in Dadaab Kakuma and other camps throughout the world these include high numbers of out of school children and youth high student to teacher ratios unpredictable funding and persistent questions regarding what refugee education is for The author shifts focus from debates over the impacts of specific policies and programs and explores instead how and why different policies and programs were implemented whether they led to meaningful changes in the long standing challenges of refugee education She finds that when and where real changes occurred individuals or small groups of refugees and policymakers acted with tremendous agency and as tireless advocates

The Transnational in the History of Education Eckhardt Fuchs,Eugenia Roldán Vera,2019-05-25 This edited volume reflects on how the transnational features in education as well as policies and practices are conceived of as mobile and connected beyond the local Like globalization the transnational is much more than a static reality of the modern world it has become a mode of observation and self reflection that informs education research history and policy in many world regions This book examines the sociocultural project that the transnational turn evident in historical scholarship of the last few decades represents and how a transnational history shapes how historians construct their objects of study It does so from a multinational perspective yet with a view of the different layers of historical meanings associated with the concept of the transnational Education Quality and Social Justice in the Global South Leon Tikly,Angeline M.

Barrett,2013-06-07 How we understand education quality is inextricably linked with perspectives on social justice Questions of inclusion relevance and democracy in education are increasingly contested most especially in the global South and improving the quality of education particularly for the most disadvantaged has become a topic of fundamental concern for education policy makers practitioners and the international development community The reality experienced by many learners continues to be of inadequately prepared and poorly motivated teachers struggling to deliver a rapidly changing curriculum without sufficient support and often using outmoded teaching methods in over crowded or dilapidated classrooms Education Quality and Social Justice in the South includes contributions from leading scholars in the field of education and development The text draws upon state of the art evidence from the five year EdQual research programme which focuses upon raising achievement in low income countries and demonstrates how systems of high quality universal education can be sustained By exploring recent research initiatives to improve education quality the importance of supporting local policy makers educators and parents as agents of change and students as active inquirers is highlighted and the challenge of taking successful initiatives to scale is explained The book is divided into three main parts Framing Education Quality Planning and Policies for Quality Implementing Quality in Schools Education Quality and Social Justice in the South argues that implementing a high quality of education using theories of social justice can inform the understanding of inclusion relevance and democracy in education The book should be essential reading for both students and researchers within the fields of international and comparative education along with educational policy poverty and development studies Nordic Voices

,2009-01-01 This volume represents the work of sixteen authors who all work at different universities and other academic institutions in the Nordic countries It provides insight into the diversity of research being conducted in the northernmost parts of Europe Although it would be incorrect to assert that research in this far away part of Europe represents something drastically different than that done in other parts of the world it would be equally incorrect to maintain that being at the outskirts on the cusp or on the periphery _ whichever way one wishes to describe the position of the Nordic countries in relation to the rest of the world does not influence the ways in which educational processes phenomena and their consequences are viewed These sixteen Nordic Voices discuss with readers different issues regarding teaching and researching Comparative and International Education in the Nordic countries The editors began their collaboration in 2006 working together to revitalize the Nordic Comparative and International Education Society NOCIES was officially re established in May 2008 Halla B Holmarsdottir who is from Iceland lives and works in Norway where she is Associate Professor in Multicultural and International Education at Oslo University College Mina O Dowd whose father is from the USA and mother is Norwegian lives and works in Sweden Nordic Voices Teaching and Researching Comparative and International Education in the Nordic Countries is a result of the collaboration that began over three years ago International Organizations and Higher Education Policy Roberta Malee Bassett,Alma Maldonado-Maldonado,2010-04-15 Higher

Education operates in an increasingly global context and yet the examination of what drives and moves the field has remained largely focused on domestic campus leaders national governments and institutional actors International Organizations and Higher Education Policy expands the analysis to include the global drivers behind higher education policy including a full array of influential organizations such as the World Bank UNESCO OECD WTO bilateral aid agencies and major private foundations The significance of these organizations is especially pronounced in the developing world where the expansion of higher education is happening in conjunction with the broadening influence of globalization International Organizations and Higher Education Policy critically analyses the impact that these influential organizations have at different levels of policy development and implementation around the world It examines their role in higher education institutions examines the strength of these relationships and exposes both the positive and negative implications This edited volume is composed of scholars and members of these organizations from around the world They address How international organizations represent the interests of the developed world and subsequently have an impact on the developing world How these organizations drive and shape the global agenda for higher education How higher education as an international industry is subject to a myriad of influences from the international to the regional level What ethical issues emerge when international organizations intervene in national policy making processes
