Writing Across Difference James Rushing Daniel, Katherine Helen Malcolm, Candice Rai, 2022-03-01 As the nation becomes increasingly divided by economic inequality racial injustice xenophobic violence and authoritarian governance scholars in writing studies have strived to develop responsive theories and practices to engage students teachers administrators and citizens in the crisis of division and to begin the complicated work of radically transforming our inequitable institutions and society Writing Across Difference is one of the first collections to gather scholars from across the field engaged in offering theoretical methodological and pedagogical resources for understanding interrogating negotiating and writing across difference No text in composition has made such a sweeping attempt to place the multiple areas of translanguaging anti racism anticolonialism interdisciplinarity and disability into conversation or to represent the field as broadly unified around the concept of difference The chapters in this book specifically explore how monolingual ideology is maintained in institutions and how translanguaging strategies can re include difference how narrative based interventions can promote writing across difference in classrooms and institutions by complicating dominant discourses and how challenging dominant logics of class race ability and disciplinarity can present opportunities for countering divisiveness Writing Across Difference offers writing scholars a sustained intellectual encounter with the crisis of difference and foregrounds the possibilities such an encounter offers for collective action toward a more inclusive and equitable society It presents a variety of approaches for intervening in classrooms and institutions in the interest of focalizing understanding negotiating and bridging difference The book will be a valuable resource to those disturbed by the bigotry violence and fanaticism that mark our political culture and who are seeking inspiration models and methods for collective response Contributors Anis Bawarshi Jonathan Benda Megan Callow James Rushing Daniel Cherice Escobar Jones Laura Gonzales Juan Guerra Stephanie Kerschbaum Katie Malcolm Nadya Pittendrigh Mya Poe Candice Rai Iris Ruiz Ann Shivers McNair Neil Simpkins Alison Y L Stephens Sumyat Thu Katherine Xue Shui yin Sharon Yam Focus, 2nd Edition Mike Schmoker, 2018-07-16 In this 2nd edition of Focus Elevating the Essentials to Radically Improve Student Learning Mike Schmoker extends and updates the case that our schools could be on the cusp of swift unparalleled improvements But we are stymied by a systemwide failure to simplify and prioritize we have yet to focus our limited time and energy on the most essential widely acknowledged evidence based practices that could have more impact than all other initiatives combined They are simple coherent curricula straightforward traditional literacy practices and lessons built around just a few hugely effective elements of good teaching As Schmoker demonstrates the case for these practices and the need for them has grown prodigiously In every chapter you ll find late breaking discoveries and practical advice on how to simplify the implementation of new state standards in the subject areas on the hidden pitfalls of our most popular but unproven instructional fads and programs and on simple versatile strategies for building curriculum planning lessons and integrating literacy into every discipline All of these strategies and findings are supported with exciting new evidence from actual schools Their success confirms as Michael Fullan writes that a focus on the best high leverage practices won t only improve student performance they will produce stunningly powerful consequences in our schools L2 Writing in Secondary Classrooms Luciana C. de Oliveira, Tony Silva, 2013-03-20 Second language writers and the teaching of writing at the secondary level have received little attention compared with other skills such as reading Addressing this gap this volume uniquely looks at both adolescent L2 writing and the preparation of secondary teachers to work with this population of students Part I on adolescent L2 writers includes case studies looking at their literacy identities their trajectories in mainstream content area classes and their transition from high school to college Part II looks at academic issues The focus in Part III is L2 writing teacher education Taking a theoretically eclectic approach that can support a variety of pedagogies this book contributes significantly to understanding adolescent second language writers and to educating teachers to address these students specific needs

Teaching Queer Stacey Waite, 2017-07-17 Teaching Queer looks closely at student writing transcripts of class discussions and teaching practices in first year writing courses to articulate queer theories of literacy and writing instruction while also considering the embodied actuality of being a queer teacher Rather than positioning queerness as connected only to queer texts or queer teachers students as much work on queer pedagogy has done since the 1990s the book offers writing and teaching as already queer practices and contends that the overlap between queer theory and composition presents new possibilities for teaching writing Teaching Queer argues for and enacts queer forms non normative and category resistant forms of writing those that move between the critical and the creative the theoretical and the practical and the queer and the often invisible normative functions of classrooms
