Thinking Through Translation:

Thinking Through Translation with Metaphors James St.Andre,2014 Thinking through Translation with Metaphors explores a wide range of metaphorical figures used to describe the translation process from Aristotle to the present Most practitioners and theorists of translation are familiar with a number of metaphors for translation such as the metaphor of the bridge following in another s footsteps performing a musical score changing clothes or painting a portrait yet relatively little attention has been paid to what these metaphorical models reveal about how we conceptualize translation Drawing on insights from recent developments in metaphor Thinking Through Translation Jeffrey M. Green,2010-09-01 Punctuated by thoughtful wit this engaging volume of essays offers Jeffrey M Green s personal and theoretical ruminations on the profession of translation Green begins many of the essays by relating the specific techniques and problems associated with translating from Hebrew texts From this intimate perspective he forges wise reflections on such subjects as identifying and preserving the writer s voice the cultural significance of translations and their contents the research and travel that are part of a translator s everyday life and the frequent puzzles associated with the craft Green combines a contemporary frankness about the financial practical theoretical and ethical aspects of translation with an aspiration to write like a good literary critic of the old school considering the moral and spiritual implications of the translation as well as its content Thinking Through Translation shows us with eloquent honesty that translation is a delicate art and skill and presents the trade as a way of attaining insight about history the world and oneself
