This Light In Oneself:

This Light In Oneself - True Meditation Jiddu Krishnamurti, 2002 This Light in Oneself J. Krishnamurti, 1999-03-16

A leading spiritual teacher of the twentieth century presents meditation as a tool for better understanding not just ourselves but the world around us. These selections present the core of Krishnamurti's teaching on meditation taken from discussions with small groups as well as from public talks to large audiences. His main theme is the essential need to look inward to know ourselves in order really to understand our own and the world's conflicts. We are the world, says Krishnamurti, and it is our individual chaos that creates social disorder. He offers timeless insights into the source of true freedom and wisdom. The

Meditative Mind Jiddu Krishnamurti, 1993 The Renewal of Ourselves and Our World Samuel Widmer Nicolet, 2024-02-20

Twenty letters, thirteen of which appeared during Samuel Widmer's lifetime and eleven after his death, were published with a foreword summarising the basic work of self-knowledge. They also summarise Samuel's literary activities of the past years on the subject of self-knowledge in a concise work. Samuel wrote: Should not the most important and fundamental concerns of such a movement be addressed in a collection of such letters over time? Shouldn't its goals and its tools for achieving these goals be outlined in more detail and anew? And do these goals not simply consist in the renewal of ourselves and our world, which we hope to achieve with the tool of self-knowledge? Have we not come to make the earth a paradise? Is this not our real goal? Are we not part of the movement that intends such a thing? Dreams such a thing? We are not really forming a movement. That would be something organised, something created and produced by thoughts by the ego. We are part of the movement that is led by love. We have awakened to this fundamental movement in the universe. The goal of this force, if it can be described as a goal at all, is renewal. The renewal of us humans and thus of our world. It is love that makes everything new again and again. Contemplative Literature Louis Komjathy, 2015-08-31

An anthology of primary texts on meditation and contemplative prayer from a wide range of religious traditions. This is the first theoretically informed and historically accurate comparative anthology of primary texts on meditation and contemplative prayer. Written by international experts on the respective texts and corresponding traditions, Contemplative Literature provides introductions to and primary sources on contemplative practice from various religious traditions. The contributors explore classical Daoist apophatic meditation, Quaker silent prayer, Jewish Kabbalah, Southern Buddhist meditation, Sufi contemplation, Eastern Orthodox prayer, Pure Land Buddhist visualization, Hindu classical Yoga, Dominican Catholic prayer, Daoist internal alchemy, and modern therapeutic meditation. Each introduction to a contemplative text discusses its historical context, the associated religious tradition and literature, the method of contemplative practice, and the text's legacy and influence. Volume editor Louis Komjathy opens the work with a thoughtful consideration of interpretive issues in the emerging interdisciplinary field of contemplative studies. Readers will gain not only a nuanced understanding of important works of contemplative literature but also resources for understanding contemplative practice and contemplative experience from a comparative and cross-cultural perspective. We have not seen anything this bold and this global since Friedrich Heiler wrote his classic study on the typology of prayer over eighty years ago Komjathy and his essayists have vastly expanded the scope depth and sophistication of this project here In the process they have struggled with all of the critical questions around religious pluralism tradition and religious authority and have emboldened the comparative project itself Contemplation and comparison it turns out go very well together Jeffrey J Kripal author of Comparing Religions Coming to Terms Teachers and scholars undergraduate and graduate students and general readers interested in contemplative practice will cherish a book like this I m happy that Louis Komjathy has done this great work It will undoubtedly be hailed as a milestone Ruben L F Habito author of Healing Breath Zen for Christians and Buddhists in a Wounded World

The Grail Legend in Modern Literature John Barry Marino, 2004 The Grail legends have in modern times been appropriated by a number of different scholarly schools of thought their approaches are analysed here This study shows how modern including postmodern adaptations of the Grail legend correspond to trends in the scholarly community and how the legend has been appropriated by competing world views There are three parallel trends in Grail scholarship and modern adaptations of the legend controversy over Christian or pagan origins secularization by way of humanism and esoteric mysticism These three trends reflect movements in popular culture Relativism and multiculturalism influence Christian pagan cultural conflict in the adaptations Mythographers maintain the legend's appeal in a humanist culture by considering the Grail metaphor rather than material actuality modern adaptations then transform the Grail from a particularly Christian symbol to one with universal application in an increasingly secular society Modern esoteric spiritualities allow the Grail actuality with flexible meaning This study then demonstrates how the Grail legend is transformed and adapted from medieval to modern cultures and continues to evolve today JOHN B MARINO is adjunct instructor Maryville University and Saint Louis University

THE LIGHT OF SELF: The Secret of Luminosity in Life, Death, and Beyond Laing Z. Matthews, 2025-11-09 The Light of Self Awakening the Inner Radiance of Consciousness By Laing Z Matthews There are books that tell you what to believe and books that teach you how to see The Light of Self belongs to the second kind Written as both revelation and reflection this seminal work explores light as the living essence of consciousness not as symbol or metaphor but as the original condition of existence itself Drawing from Daoist internal alchemy Hermetic cosmology Buddhist clear light meditation and modern physics Laing Z Matthews unveils the luminous continuum between cosmic radiance and human awareness The Structure of Illumination Divided into four movements The Mystery of Light The Anatomy of Luminosity Living in the Light and The Return to Source the book moves from cosmogenesis to embodiment guiding the reader through the physics and metaphysics of awakening Each chapter unfolds as a contemplative rhythm rather than argument blending philosophy neuroscience and sacred poetry into a single act of remembrance that light does not come from the sun or stars but from the awareness that perceives them Key Insights The cosmological birth of light how darkness gives rise to illumination The Daoist anatomy of body breath and spirit as mirrors of Heaven and Earth The heart as the furnace of Dao where energy refines into virtue and compassion The alchemy of emotion sexuality and mortality into radiant consciousness Meditative methods for perceiving the white born of emptiness without leaving the body The final recognition that the light within the reader is the same light that reads these words A New Science of Seeing Like The Tao of Physics The Secret of the Golden Flower and The Radiance Sutras this work dissolves the boundary between mysticism and science Matthews language is both precise and devotional each page a mirror polished to reflect stillness itself The Light of Self can be read linearly or opened at random like scripture its rhythm is its message This is not a book of doctrine but of direct perception an experiment in awareness The Trilogy of
