The Visitor, Or Monthly Instructor, for 1850 (Classic Reprint) Religious Tract Society, 2017-12-18 Excerpt from The Visitor or Monthly Instructor for 1850 The enthoriton which peers hold their seats is divided Some gain them by descent or inheritance some by creation as do all newly made peers and some by election The list includes sixteen Scotch peers who are elected at the beginning of every parliament by the Scotch nobility and the twenty eight Irish peers who in like manner represent the Irish peerage but

are electa for life They are called representative peers Whether the bishops sit in parliament by right of certain free baronies of who they have or are supposed to have the tenure under the queen or whether they gain this position by usage and custom is a question involving much material for curious investigation They are a distinct estate from the lords temporal and are so characterised in most acts of parliament yet in practice they are usually blended together under the name of lords they intermix their votes and the majority of such intermixture binds both estates From this want of a separate assembly and a separate vote for the prelates some writers argue that the lords temporal and spiritual are now in reality but one estates Acts may be passed without the assent or even the presence of any lords spiritual 1 and on the other hand lord Coke doubts whether a measure passed by the king the lords spiritual and the commons without the presence of some lords temporal would be any thing more than an ordinance If this be the case it would be temporary unless confirmed by act of parliament and could introduce no new law About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Visitor, Or Monthly Instructor, for 1845 \(Classic Reprint\) Great Britain Religious Tract Society, 2018-02-27 Excerpt from The Visitor or Monthly Instructor for 1845 Aim at peace 240 America singular use of names in 40 Ancient fable of colossal ants producing gold About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Visitor, Or Monthly Instructor for 1840 (Classic Reprint) Religious Tract Society, 2017-01-08 Excerpt from The Visitor or Monthly Instructor for 1840 The other lesson impressed on my mind was the duty of cherishing tender affection and exercising constant kindness towards those with whom we are united in the most intimate connexions I could remember with pleasure the interchange of habitual kindness between Ronald and myself I recollected with intense pain one instance of unkindness and alienation The spot and circumstances of our trying quarrel are still vividly pictured to my mind and send a painful thrill through my conscience My childish feeling was if I should die and go to heaven as I hoped Ronald had done my first impulse on meeting him there would be to embrace him and ask his forgiveness A more correct and permanent effect of the recollection has been to check the utterance of a hasty expression the indulgence of an unkind feeling and to prompt me
