Mind of Winter William Bevis,2010-11-23 Bevis addresses the most puzzling and least studied aspect of Wallace Stevens poetry detachment Stevens detachment often associated by readers with asceticism bareness or withdrawal is one of the distinguishing and pervasive characteristics of Stevens poetic work Bevis argues that this detachment is meditative and therefore experiential in origin Moreover the meditative Stevens of spare syntax and clear image is in constant tension with the romantic imaginative Stevens of dazzling metaphors and exuberant flight Indeed for Bevis Stevens is a poet not of imagination and reality but of imagination and reality but of imagination and meditation in relation to reality

Ephemera Romila Chitturi, In this collection I invite you to step into the world of haiku a form of poetry that captures moments in their purest essence For me writing haiku is an exercise in mindfulness finding beauty in the ordinary acknowledging the passing moments that slip by unnoticed in the busyness of life Whether it s the quiet movement of the wind through the trees the sudden quiet after a rainstorm or the ephemeral beauty of a single blooming flower haiku has a way of anchoring me to the present reminding me of the vastness of time and the fragility of the moment This book is not just a collection of poems it is a collection of moments small quiet sometimes fleeting but always meaningful I have always believed that there is beauty in simplicity and the haiku form exemplifies this in the most profound way There is power in what is left unsaid in what is left to the imagination In each haiku I have sought to capture a feeling a memory or a moment in time while leaving enough space for you the reader to fill in the gaps with your own experiences I hope this collection brings you a sense of peace of wonder and of connection to the world around you Whether you read these haiku in one sitting or return to them over time I hope they offer a moment of stillness in a busy world a moment to breathe to reflect and to appreciate the fleeting beauty of life
