Karasu,2001-07-01 T Byram Karasu says that healing at best is not what the healer does but what he is that what really matters are not the schools of psychotherapy but the psychotherapists themselves In this deeply moving and self revealing book Karasu portrays the therapist as healer through a series of clinical vignettes from the treatment of a younger therapist whom the author perceives to be more intelligent talented and better educated than himself This patient a veteran of a classical analysis and two lengthy therapies challenges the therapist at every turn and engages him in a search for new experiential truths The reader is privy to the internal monologue of the therapist as he conceives of and rejects interpretations looks to varied experts for help and ends with an inner voice not heard before Books and Pamphlets,
