Woede Boekenweek 2001:

The Postcolonial Low Countries Elleke Boehmer, Sarah De Mul, 2012-06-01 The Postcolonial Low Countries is the first book to bring together critical and comparative approaches to the emergent field of neerlandophone postcolonial studies. The collection of essays ranges across the cultures and literatures of the Netherlands and Belgium and establishes an encounter between postcolonial theoretical discourses from both within and without the region. Each one of the contributions puts under pressure the definitive concepts of postcolonial studies in its more conventional anglophone or francophone formation as well as perceptions of the Low Countries. Belgium and the Netherlands as lying outside or to the side of the postcolonial domain. In the Low Countries local and regional issues concerning multiculturalism and colonial belatedness have raised important questions about the possible grounds on which postcolonial critical concepts might be not only translated but also generated afresh to suit these paradoxically new contexts. As The Postcolonial Low Countries incisively demonstrates, the Low Countries demand a careful rearticulation of such postcolonial readymades as hybridity, accommodation and creolization. Gathering together contributions from both internationally renowned scholars and newly established researchers in the field, The Postcolonial Low Countries maps previously underexplored national and transnational literary critical trajectories. The book challenges in boundary shifting ways current readings of the so described multicultural and postcolonial Netherlands and Belgium.

Woede Salman Rushdie, 2001 Potret van een leven aan het begin van het derde millennium van een wereldstad in een tijd van schijnbaar eindeloze welvaart die paradoxaal genoeg in het dagelijks bestaan van veel mensen ook een tijd is van dorheid Comparing Postcolonial Diasporas M. Keown, D. Murphy, J. Procter, 2009-01-15 Bringing together a group of intellectuals from a number of disciplines, this collection breaks new ground within the field of postcolonial diaspora studies, moving beyond the Anglophone bias of much existing scholarship by investigating comparative links between a range of Anglophone, Francophone, Hispanic and Neerlandophone cultural contexts. Brinkman's cumulatieve catalogus van boeken, 2002 Voorts een alfabetische lijst van Nederlandsche boeken in België uitgegeven. Boekblad, 2001
