Woman In Christ Toward A New Feminism:

Women in Christ Michele M. Schumacher, 2004 The challenge of promoting the new feminism has barely been addressed since it was first launched by Pope John Paul II in his 1995 encyclical Evangelium vitae The thirteen contributors in this book all outstanding international scholars take up this task together laying the necessary theoretical foundation for the new feminism These chapters articulate an integral philosophical and theological understanding of persons that moves beyond patriarchy on the one hand and traditional feminism on the other Central to the new perspective offered here is the biblical revelation of the human person man and woman in Christ a vision that directs women beyond the male standard against which they have too often been measured Far from constraining women to an eternal essence the dynamic view presented here encourages each woman to realize herself in perfect Christian freedom The New Catholic Feminism

Tina Beattie, 2004-06 Having confronted the conflict between feminism and the Vatican and Pope Benedict XVI Beattie proposes a new theological approach to the encounter between feminism and Catholicism for the twenty first century Jacket

Original Sin and the Evolution of Sexual Difference Megan Loumagne Ulishney, Megan Loumagne, 2022 Original Sin and the Evolution of Sexual Difference re examines Christian thinking about original sin and sexual difference in conversation with recent developments in evolutionary biology and feminist philosophy and theology The Oxford

Handbook of Christology Francesca Aran Murphy, Troy A. Stefano, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of Christology brings together 40 authoritative essays considering the theological study of the nature and role of Jesus Christ This collection offers dynamic perspectives within the study of Christology and provides rigorous discussion of inter confessional theology which would not have been possible even 60 years ago The first of the seven parts considers Jesus Christ in the Bible Rather than focusing solely on the New Testament this section begins with discussion of the modes of God's self communication to us and suggests that Christ's most original incarnation is in the language of the Hebrew Bible The second section considers Patristic Christology These essays explore the formation of the doctrines of the person of Christ and the atonement between the First Council of Nicaea in 325 and the eve of the Second Council of Nicaea The next section looks at Mediaeval theology and tackles the development of the understanding of who Christ was and of his atoning work The section on Reformation and Christology traces the path of the Reformation from Luther to Bultmann The fifth section tackles the new developments in thinking about Christ which have emerged in the modern and the postmodern eras and the sixth section explains how beliefs about Jesus have affected music poetry and the arts The final part concludes by locating Christology within systematic theology asking how it relates to Christian belief as a whole This comprehensive volume provides an invaluable resource and reference for scholars students and general readers interested in the study of Christology Woman as Prophet in the Home and the World R. Mary Hayden Lemmons, 2016-09-15 This first ever interdisciplinary study of woman as prophet shows that in these troubling times ordinary women especially Christian women need to function as prophets by proclaiming

in word and deed the indispensability of lovingly seeking the welfare of others More specifically social science shows that the person centered love prophesied by women prophets is able to meet interpersonal challenges within the home and world while philosophy and theology establish that women are able to excel as prophets due to the virtuous dispositions inculcated by femininity the choice to be caring a God centered spirituality and a pro life humanitarian personalist feminism that welcomes male collaborators Facilitating the ability of Christian women to prophesy love are Baptismal graces Thomistic virtues and a much needed prophetic Marian ecclesiology based on what John Paul II calls the prophetism of femininity These interdisciplinary findings provide an essential resource for educators and students of humanity the theology of women and evangelization These findings emerge first from an investigation into the cognitive and ontological underpinnings of what John Paul II called the feminine genius A second set of findings emerges from exploring the prophetic dimensions of the feminine genius secular feminism s need to adopt the insights of Christianity and the ability of femininity s prophetism to recast both femininity and feminism as Marian prophecies A third set of findings arises from analyzing the spirituality of women prophets within the Christian tradition by considering the conditions necessary for prophesying explicating requisite Thomistic virtues and delving into the spirituality of Hildegard Catherine of Siena Julian of Norwich and Teresa of Avila A fourth set of findings arises from innovative studies of polarization secularization lust romantic love the conditions whereby mothers with careers can flourish and the ability of nuns to combat racism in a small Midwestern town Overall these interdisciplinary investigations explicate the theology of women and show that women who prophesy love either in the order of grace or nature can help heal lives families and culture

The Rhetoric of Pope John Paul II Joseph R. Blaney, Joseph P. Zompetti, 2009-01-16 Pope John Paul II was clearly one of the most influential persons of the 20th Century He affected the world of politics religion and culture with a rhetorical zeal unmatched by few actors on the international stage From the downfall of communism in Eastern Europe to his devotion to Mary to his championing of social justice and orthodox theology this book examines his several moments of persuasive finesse as well as instances when his message could have been crafted more effectively The essays in this collection examine his persuasive skills from several scholarly points of view The book also offers analyses of media portrayals of this often controversial figure With contributions from some of the world s leading communication scholars clergy and social activists this book is must reading for anyone interested in a deeper understanding of religious communication in general and John Paul II s rhetorical papacy in particular Written by Catholics Protestants Mormons agnostics and atheists the chapters approach the Pope with varying degrees of admiration but always with intellectual respect

Christian and Lyric Tradition in Victorian Women's Poetry F. Elizabeth Gray, 2009-09-10 In this study Gray examines the broadly neglected body of Victorian women s religious verse showing how women of the period used an array of inventive literary strategies to construct and wield provocative forms of authority Their deployment of biblical source trope and genre transfigured Christian and lyric traditions

Conscience and Calling Anne E. Patrick, 2013-07-18 This volume probes the meaning and ethical implications of the powerful symbol of vocation from the vantage of contemporary Catholic women with particular attention to the experiences of women religious. Intended as a follow up to Liberating Conscience: Feminist Explorations in Catholic Moral Theology, the new book will benefit many readers including Catholic leaders, laity and religious as well as persons interested in Christian ethics and American religious history more generally. The work treats twentieth century history and more recent developments including tensions between the Vatican and progressive Catholics, the development of lay ministries and the movement to ordain women deacons, priests and bishops.

A Culture of Engagement Cathleen Kaveny, 2016-03-01 Religious traditions in the United States are characterized by ongoing tension between assimilation to the broader culture as typified by mainline Protestant churches and defiant rejection of cultural incursions as witnessed by more sectarian movements such as Mormonism and Hassidism. However, legal theorist and Catholic theologian Cathleen Kaveny contends there is a third possibility: a culture of engagement that accommodates and respects tradition. It also recognizes the need to interact with culture to remain relevant and to offer critiques of social, political, legal and economic practices. Kaveny suggests that rather than avoid the crisscross of the religious and secular spheres of life, we should use this conflict as an opportunity to come together and to encounter, challenge, contribute to and correct one another. Focusing on five broad areas of interest: Law as a Teacher, Religious Liberty and Its Limits, Conversations about Culture, Conversations about Belief and Cases and Controversies, Kaveny demonstrates how thoughtful and purposeful engagement can contribute to rich, constructive and difficult discussions between moral and cultural traditions. This provocative collection of Kaveny's articles from Commonweal magazine, substantially revised and updated from their initial publication, provides astonishing insight into a range of hot button issues like abortion, assisted suicide, government sponsored torture, contraception, the Ashley Treatment, capital punishment and the role of religious faith in a pluralistic society. At turns masterful and inspirational, A Culture of Engagement is a welcome reminder of what can be gained when a diversity of experiences and beliefs is brought to bear on American public life.

Reconsidering Gender Myk Habets, Beulah Wood, 2011-01-01 This volume deals with the varied forms of shame reflected in biblical, theological, psychological and anthropological sources. Although traditional theology and church practice concentrate on providing forgiveness for shameful behavior, recent scholarship has discovered the crucial relevance of social shame evoked by mental status, adversity, slavery, abuse, illness, grief and defeat. Anthropologists, sociologists and psychologists have discovered that unresolved social shame is related to racial and social prejudice, to bullying, crime, genocide, narcissism, post traumatic stress and other forms of toxic behavior. Eleven leaders in this research participated in a conference on The Shame Factor sponsored by St. Mark's United Methodist Church in Lincoln, NE in October 2010. Their essays explore the impact and the transformation of shame in a variety of arenas, comprising in this volume a unique and innovative resource for contemporary religion, therapy, ethics and social analysis.
