The best time to be strengthened against the Enemy's tactics of doubt, disappointment and devastation is before he makes his first move toward us. We all desperately need the biblical guidance and preparation found in Battle Ready. Lysa TerKeurst, New York Times bestselling author and president of Proverbs 31 Ministries, says the most difficult fights we will face in this life will not be on the outside; they will be within our own hearts and minds. As someone who has struggled with depression and anxiety throughout my life, I know this firsthand. Battle Ready will help encourage, empower and equip you to live in true victory. Holley Gerth, bestselling author of Fiercehearted, says Battle Ready will equip and empower you, teaching you where to park your mind during difficult times. Its practical advice and pen-to-paper reflection sections, coupled with the truths of Scripture sprinkled throughout, will enable you to avoid defeat and discouragement and walk confidently in faith instead. Highly recommended. Karen Ehman, national speaker, New York Times bestselling author of Keep It Shut, What to Say, How to Say It and When to Say Nothing at All, says Battle Ready is a field manual for the mind. If you desire to think more like Christ, its truths, stories, personal applications and discoveries will undoubtedly lead you to renewed places of peace, hope and life. Elisa Morgan, speaker and author of The Beauty of Broken, says relational, emotional and physical trials often hit one hundred miles an hour, making us feel defenseless and powerless. This no longer has to be the case. Battle Ready, an exploratory hands-on book, provides dozens of mind-renewing truths, hope-building exercises and habit-changing techniques to help you endure the worst of times with Jesus as if it was the best of times. Shannon Ethridge, MA, life relationship coach and bestselling author of Every Woman's Battle series, says Give Your Child the World by Jamie C. Martin (2016-06-07) is a treasure. Young children live with awe and wonder as their daily companions. But as they grow, worries often crowd out wonder. Knowing this, how can parents strengthen their kids' love for the world so it sticks around for the long haul? Thankfully, parents have at their fingertips a miracle vaccine: one that can boost their kids' immunity to the world's distractions. Well-chosen stories connect us with others, even those on the other side of the globe. Build your kids' lives on a story's solid foundation, and you'll give them armor to shield themselves from the world's cynicism. You'll give them confidence to persevere in the face of life's conflicts. You'll give them a reservoir of compassion that spills over into a lifetime of love in action. Give Your Child the World features inspiring stories, practical suggestions and carefully curated reading lists of the best children's literature for each area of the globe. Reading lists are organized by region, country and age range (ages 4-12). Each listing includes a brief description of the book, its themes and any content of which parents should be aware. Parents can introduce their children to the world from the comfort of home by simply opening a book together. Give Your Child the World is poised to become a bestselling family reading treasury that promotes literacy, develops a global perspective and strengthens family bonds while increasing faith and compassion.

Here Goes Nothing by Kendra Broekhuis (2017-02-28) is a powerful story. What happens when you ask God, "What do you want me to do today?" This is not a success story. And it's not one of those stories that has a beginning, a middle and then a perfectly tidy hind end either. It's really just a beginning. For thirty days, Kendra Broekhuis prayed to maintain the joy of being wife and mommy amid the daily grind To see the world through God's eyes To live intentionally To build relationships and share Christ's love with our neighbors To learn what it really means to give To collide motherhood with mission This became her motto her credo her personal mission statement Some days it led to actions the Lord gently nudged her to take Other days it led to reflections the Lord gently whispered into her heart Every day it led to a single word one underlying theme that ties all thirty days all thirty chapters and their wide variety of topics together giving These thirty days found Kendra and her husband and daughter in a strange time of transition They had just moved back to the United States after teaching for three years in the beautiful country of Guatemala They were in a new city working a new job living in a new apartment building in search of a new church And they wanted to put it all together all of their experiences all of the things they had just seen and learned and read and discussed It wasn't a clean slate but rather a chance to live intentionally When Kendra and her husband sought advice about the transition from fellow missionary friends the advice was Get to know your neighbors It might sound like strange advice but it made sense Jesus tells us to Love God and love your neighbor Many times the word neighbor is meant to be vague but it shouldn't always be Part of being mission minded no matter where you live or work is being willing to love the people closest to you people we often overlook Kendra's neighbors as in the people who live in the other eleven apartments in her building are whom she often found the Lord's generosity overflowing to and from during these thirty days
