Women At The Crossroads A Path Beyond Feminism And Traditionalism:

Women at the Crossroads Kari Torjesen Malcolm, 1982 Kari Torjesen Malcolm offers readers a satisfying alternative to both traditional and feminist models of what a woman should be Liberated Traditionalism Ronald B. Allen, Beverly Allen, 2009-07-01 In the struggle between the sexes Ronald and Beverly Allen are peacemakers With feminists they feel fully the past and present pain the yearning for new freedom and fulfillment But they also trust the Bible the source for all that is oldest and best in male female traditions To open your mind to what really matters in the women s movement the Allens take you everywhere to the incomparable events in Eden and to Paul s perplexing directives in the New Testament to Betty Friedan in the sixties and a different Betty Friedan in the eighties to Sarah and Steinem to Deborah and deBeauvoir to Proverbs 31 and Archie Bunker The result is a call to balance to help you rise from the ruts of injustice and insensitivity and yet stay in the safe confines of God s design Reading a Different Story (Turning South: Christian Scholars in an Age of World Christianity) Susan VanZanten, 2014-01-21 Christianity s demographics vitality and influence have tipped markedly toward the global South and East Addressing this seismic shift a noted Christian literary scholar recounts how her focus has shifted from American to African literature Susan VanZanten began her career working on nineteenth century American literature A combination of personal circumstances curricular demands world events and unfolding scholarship have led her to teach research and write about African literature and to advocate for a global approach to education and scholarship This is the second book in the Turning South series which offers reflections by eminent Christian scholars who have turned their attention and commitments beyond North America Beyond Sex Roles Gilbert G. Bilezikian, Gilbert Bilezikian, 2006-10 This first rate biblical and theological study offers an accessible examination of the key texts of Scripture pertinent to understanding female roles affirming full equality of the sexes in family and church The third edition has been revised throughout Gilbert Bilezikian avoids using scholarly jargon and complex argumentation in the main text of the book to encourage readers to interact with the biblical research The aim is for nonspecialized readers to be able to follow his discussion step by step evaluate arguments consider alternative views and arrive at independent conclusions The study guide format of the book is designed for either individual investigation or group work Pastors church leaders students and those interested in issues relating to gender and church life will value this classic work on the egalitarian viewpoint Women

Caught in the Conflict Rebecca M. Groothuis, 1997-07-16 The goal of this book is not to analyze the competing viewpoints women s equality versus traditional family values in any depth but simply to step outside the familiar rhetoric in an attempt to obtain a view of the Big Picture The aim of this inquiry is a clearing of the conceptual atmosphere Evangelical Feminism and Biblical Truth Wayne Grudem, 2012-11-30 What does the Bible really teach about the roles of men and women Bible scholar Wayne Grudem carefully draws on 27 years of biblical research as he responds to 118 arguments often levied against traditional gender roles Grudem counters egalitarian and feminist critiques with clarity compassion and precision showing God's equal value for men and women while celebrating the beauty in their differences Evangelical Christian Women Julie Ingersoll, 2003-12 Evangelical Christian Women draws on two years of ethnographic research nationwide to shed new light on the gender conflict faced by women in evangelical Christianity Perspectives on the World Christian Movement (4th Edition) Ralph D. Winter, Steven C. Hawthorne, 2009-06-01 Perspectives on the World Christian Movement presents a multi-faceted collection of readings exploring the biblical, historical, cultural, and strategic dimensions of world evangelization. Writings from more than 150 mission scholars and practitioners, over 60 of them new to this edition, portray the history and anticipate the potential of the global Christian movement. Every one of the 170 articles and side bars offers practical wisdom enabling Christians to labor together in bold biblical hope to finish the task of seeing that Christ is named and followed among all the peoples of the earth. The Fourth Edition contains over 60 articles and sidebars that are new to this edition. Many articles have been updated and revised The Biblical Liberation of Women for Leadership in the Church Knofel Staton, 2003-03-21 Good News for Women Rebecca Groothuis, 1996-12-01 Most evangelical discussion of the gender issue has been spent in feverish debate over the exegetical intricacies of the traditional proof texts, writes Rebecca Merrill Groothuis. And though faithful exegesis is certainly crucial, a myopic fixation on a handful of controversial biblical texts will not ultimately resolve the gender debate. In Good News for Women, Groothuis looks at the Big Picture, the overall outline of biblical teaching on relationships between men and women. This provides the foundation for examining the passages specifically relating to gender issues. Written with the razor sharp insight that prompted critical acclaim for Groothuis' first book, Good News for Women shows that the broad sweep of biblical thought aligns more readily with gender equality than gender hierarchy. Traditionalist proof texts do not present an open and shut case in favor of universal male authority; the traditionalist agenda on gender issues is neither helpful nor healthy for Christian women today.
